

Today, I reached BapDada in the subtle region carrying the love and remembrance of householder brothers and sisters who have come here for the bhatti. From a distance, I celebrated a sweet meeting with BapDada, and through Baba's drishti, I was taken beyond as I continued to come close. Baba said: Come, My multimillion times fortunate child, come. Saying this, Baba merged me in His heart and garlanded me with His spiritual angelic arms. As soon as I was garlanded with this alokik garland, I was very happy in my heart seeing my fortune. So many devotee souls garland God with a variety of garlands, but here, God Himself is garlanding me with the garland of His invaluable alokik arms. Throughout the whole cycle, you cannot receive such a garland. I became merged in the attainment of such fortune. BapDada said: Child, BapDada merges every child in His divine arms and constantly continues to sing songs of the children's fortune. Look at the wonder of the children. BapDada said through a thought in His heart: Come, children! Come, children! He invited them all and all the children reached there and became merged. After that, Baba said: I will show you the wonder of the children even now, and saying this, Baba had a thought and within a few moments there was a very big circular hall and all around were seats of light. In just one second, the group of all of you householders who had come reached the hall and sat down on your own seats. It was such a beautiful scene; it was like a beautifully decorated gathering of angels. BapDada was giving everyone drishti with a lot of love and spoke sweet words: Children, whilst living in the household, always remain detached in the attitude towards others and be the ones who remain loving to the Father. Be a point of double light and might and make the atmosphere everywhere light, because nowadays all souls are oppressed by many burdens and due to this they have become powerless. With your angelic form, give such souls vibrations to become light and liberate them from their burden. This is the special service of you souls who live with an attitude beyond (par vruti). (Pravruti is household).

After that, this scene came to an end and Baba asked: Child, what other news have you brought? I replied: Baba, these days, there is the sparkle of this group in Madhuban. The rains are playing their part very well and everyone is doing yoga bhattis and classes with a lot of love. Diamond Hall gets completely full, and everyone loves this scene. BapDada smiled and said: BapDada now wants this from every child: Each one to constantly, with an easy thought, and even in their dreams, stay in the personality of purity. On each one's face, let the sparkle of this divine personality be practically visible because it is through the group of householders that the great power of purity is to be revealed. Those who are going to make the very well-known great souls bow down, to such children who are like Angad, BapDada continually gives you the blessing: May you be immortal! May you be unshakeable! May you be immovable! As Baba said this, it felt as though Baba was in front of me and yet not there. I just continued to observe. After some time, Baba looked at me and smiled. I asked: Baba, where were You? Baba replied: I was watching the children of this group and seeing that the children are moving along with courage, zeal and enthusiasm, they are also studying, and yet every now and again, some children, instead of following the father, seeing the father and taking the easy simple highway for self-transformation, are going onto the small streets of "Why is this? What is this? How is this?" They become confused in this revelation and with this, waste the power of their elevated thoughts and the power of their elevated time, and so they become weak, because on this Godly path, purity is not just celibacy, but together with this, you also have to follow the footsteps of Brahma (Brahmachari). You also have to become one who follows every step of Father Brahma. It is not complete purity if in every thought, word, attitude or vision, there is anything wasteful or negative, and this is why BapDada constantly draws your attention: At every moment let there be self-respect, self-transformation and positive thoughts for the self, and you will easily be able to attain perfection.

According to the atmosphere of the world today, Maya and the atmosphere of the elements, there is a need for introversion, concentration and the elevated stage of stability. This is the transformation BapDada wants to see in every child of this group and each one of you have to continue to give your news in essence: Whether you are continuing to move along having become free from waste or it is up to a certain percentage only.

After that, BapDada said: OK, child! What gift will you take back for this group? Within a few moments, I saw that many beautiful bracelets arrived in front of me. On each bracelet were diamonds shining with colourful lights that were sparkling very brightly. Baba said: Baba is giving every child this bracelet as a divine gift so that you constantly keep yourself tied with this bracelet (promise): At this time, I have to be a master almighty authority and give power to others. I have to bring my title of being master almighty into every action in a practical way. Not just one with powers, but I have to become one with all powers and make others that. Saying this and giving love and remembrance from the heart for everyone, BapDada bid me farewell.
