

*Special love and remembrances from the Trimurti Dadis
(Dadi Prakashmani, Dadi Janki and Dadi Gulzar)*

5th April 2003

Dear Jewels of the Brahmin clan,

Please accept special love and greetings from the Trimurti Dadis. By now, everyone must be safely settled in their respective service places and experiencing Baba's canopy of protection over them.

Dadi Janki's health is much, much better now and she will be leaving Ahmedabad for Shantivan today and will be joining Dadiji there as over a 1000 teachers have gathered for the Teachers meetings.

BapDada has sent a very lovely message (attached) of what He wants us to do now.

Dadi Janki has requested that any messages for her should be sent to her through London as she herself won't be able to respond to them instantly from Madhuban.

With much love to the whole family world-wide from the Trimurti Dadis.

In Baba's sweet yaad

B. K. Jayanti

Today, when I reached BapDada in the subtle region carrying greetings of the Hindu New Year (especially celebrated in Maharashtra and a few other states), what did I see? That BapDada was standing just ahead in a very powerful form and the different lights that were emerging from BapDada were spreading everywhere and forming a canopy. This scene looked very beautiful even from a distance. I continued to move forward and went under the canopy and came close to BapDada. It felt as though I had become the form of all of those lights. Baba said: Child, see how much love Baba has for the children! The Father feels that every child should always remain safe under the canopy in this way because at the present time, there will continue to be a subtle attack from Maya and also the times will continue to become delicate. This is why the World Protector Father is also especially protecting the children. Seeing this sustenance from BapDada, I was feeling in my heart: Who else would sustain us with so much love! BapDada smiled, looked at me very lovingly and began to swing me in the swing of His arms. That supersensuous joy was beyond all limits. Tell me, all of you are also experiencing this invaluable swing, are you not?

After some time, Baba said: Child, what news have you brought? I replied: Baba, our sweet Dadi has given greetings for the New Year on behalf of everyone and said: Some new service should take place in the New Year. Baba smiled and said: Your sweet and lovely Dadi has a lot of enthusiasm to do something new and also to inspire others to do something new. One thing finishes and another starts because in Dadi's mind, she only feels that the Father's revelation should now take place very quickly. Now, your meetings are going to take place and so Dadi has a lot of enthusiasm. Look, all the service that children have done in all the places with their heart and with enthusiasm has been very good and worthy of congratulations. You have sown the seeds of the message in large gatherings with a big heart. Baba is pleased, but now BapDada wants that the quality fruit that has emerged from the service that has spread everywhere should now be selected and revealed separately. BapDada has already told you earlier also, that now, let there be the result of:

- 1. Those who have become loving and can become instruments for service in any way.*
- 2. Those who come in close contact and become instruments for service.*
- 3. Those who have become the children.*
- 4. Those who say that this is good.*

Because now, according to the time, BapDada wants to see the various rosaries of the quality souls ready. You have made the quantity emerge, now let the quality emerge. BapDada is seeing that those of the different wings have been serving since a long time, but what has been the result of the service of every wing? BapDada wants to see who has emerged, how many have emerged and of what quality are those who have emerged, because those of that quality should be given different sustenance through which they can come closer still. You can hold their gatherings anywhere, because in order to reveal the Father, let the result of service be revealed. Discuss this in this meeting.

After that BapDada said, "May you be a destroyer of obstacles" and gave a blessing and multimillion-fold greetings for the New Year. He passed His hand of blessing over the head of each child and showered them with blessings and spoke these sweet words: "Oh My master bestower children, now continue to give to every soul because to give is to automatically receive." Seeing this gathering of the instrument servers, BapDada is very pleased: Wah, My children are so sweet, so lovely, such long-lost and now-found beloved, spiritual roses. You are special now and are going to be that in the future too. You are very fortunate. The Father knows that every child is a star of the Father's hopes. This is why, now, for self-transformation, you mustn't repeatedly give your time and energy of thoughts to the old trivial things but with your powers, be a great donor, a bestower of blessings and a benefactor for everyone. Now, according to the time, put a firm seal of the Almighty Government on such wasteful sanskars that Maya or the problems of nature cannot open that seal for 5000 years. Now, all of you together make such a promise from your heart to let the past be the past. Put a full stop to the past and let the new Brahmin sanskars emerge.

Have a unique dance of the harmonising of sanskars amongst yourselves. Whether others harmonise them or not, I have to harmonise them. In this, each one of you has to make this lesson firm of “I first, I am Arjuna” (the one who takes the first step). Continue to check yourself from time to time. This is the hope that BapDada has for this gathering. Tell me, all of you are the lamps of the Father’s hopes, are you not?

After that, I gave BapDada remembrances from Dadi Janki and Dadiji. Hearing the remembrance from both Dadis, Baba merged both jewels in His heart and said: The children’s praise is greater than the Father’s praise because at the time of Father Brahma, the family was small. Now, you are looking after such a big family on behalf of the Father with a lot of courage and enthusiasm. What praise can I sing of you children? Saying this, Baba embraced both of them and merged them in His heart. And again and again, Baba said: The Father has surrendered Himself to the children. He has surrendered Himself. Seeing such a scene of being absorbed in love, I also became absorbed in love and came back to the corporeal world. Achcha.

Om Shanti
