

Today, on behalf of our sweet Dadis, I carried the love and remembrance of all of you instrument teachers to BapDada. What did I see from a distance as soon as I reached the subtle region? BapDada was sitting on a dias of light. From His eyes and forehead different lights were emerging, like a light-house revolving around, the light reaching all souls of the world. The scene appeared to be like a unique umbrella spinning around, and the rays of light that were falling on all souls seemed as though a canopy was forming around each one. I was seeing this scene from a distance, and was very happy as I continued to move forward. As I came closer BapDada made me sit on the dias of light with Him. I also felt as though together with BapDada, I had become a lighthouse and was giving light to all souls. This unique experience was very lovely and powerful. After some time, Baba said: Child, did you see what BapDada is doing?

All the instrument teachers also have to keep their mind busy in doing subtle service with the power of the mind. You have to use your time in a worthwhile way, and then you will easily attain very elevated success in all the types of physical and subtle service. At present, BapDada sees that all His sweet daughters continue to make effort to have yoga and attain success, but they are unable to achieve the results that they want. They make a lot of effort, but in comparison, the success achieved is according to capacity. BapDada feels a lot of love in His heart for those who look after the centres and those who are their companions in this group: Why should the daughters have to make even this much effort? My children who have a right to be a master of the self, who are seated on the heart-throne, with the double power of the mind and words, you can easily achieve success and you have to achieve it. So tell My children, My lovely service companions: Daughters who will fulfil the hopes of the Father's heart, BapDada now wants that each one of you children use your time, thoughts and powers in a worthwhile way and easily attain success. Now, let this special determined thought remain constantly in an emerged form in your heart and on your forehead: I have to become a lighthouse and give sakaash. By bringing about world transformation through self-transformation, I have to become an avyakt angel and go home with Father Brahma. I have to go home. Let there be this deep concern day and night and let this wave spread that transformation has to take place, we have to bring about transformation. Then, you will become free from labouring and in this Brahmin life, experience the sweet stage of liberation-in-life. You will automatically experience unlimited disinterest and you will become free from the many types of attachments and subservience to Maya. Always remember this mantra that disciplines the mind as a blessing.

Seeing the courage of all the young and old children, BapDada has a lot of love that the children have had courage for so long and have become the instrument teachers and service companions. BapDada wants to see them as: The ones who constantly keep on flying, the ones who are the embodiments of success, the ones who are seated on the heart-throne, the ones who don't even step foot in the mud of body consciousness. Tell Me, sweet daughters, you will fulfil this hope of Baba, will you not? You are the deepaks of BapDada's hopes, are you not?

Truly, Baba is feeling a lot of love for the teachers today. Saying this, BapDada remembered all our Dadis and all the teachers and made them emerge there. The scene at that time was like it is when BapDada comes in Madhuban and both Dadis are sitting on either side of BapDada and all the other Dadis are also sitting around them. This is what Baba made emerge in the subtle region. Baba made all of you emerge in the form of a half-moon and BapDada was giving everyone very sweet drishti. Both Dadis placed their heads on Baba's shoulders and became merged in Baba's arms. All the Dadis were also lost in the Ocean of deep Love. BapDada was also lost in the love of all of you. The waves of everyone's love was being merged in the Ocean. For some time, everyone was just absorbed in love.

Then this scene came to an end and Baba said: Child, what gift will you take for all the sweet teachers? I smiled and saw a table with gifts on it appear in front of me. I opened the gift and saw that it had a crown and chindi (a tilak that hangs on a chain from the crown of the head to the centre of the forehead). I saw that it was a very beautiful new type of crown. The different lights of the eight powers were sparkling in the middle of the crown in the form of a half-moon and in the middle of that was sparkling a beautiful golden red diamond, our sweet Baba. Baba said: Give everyone this crown and tell them: Always remember Baba and become the Shakti who has imbibed all the eight powers and let the chindi of pure and positive thoughts and elevated thoughts always be in your mind and on your forehead. Giving this gift of remembrance, BapDada gave everyone lots and lots of remembrance and I came back to the subtle region. Om Shanti.
