

Today, I went to BapDada carrying the love and remembrances of the group of all the instrument souls of the service at the beginning. What did I see when I reached the subtle regions? BapDada was celebrating a meeting with the garland of divine invaluable arms filled with love and saying, "Come, child! Come, child!" I also continued to move forward and became merged in the garland of the divine, lovely and unique spiritual arms. After some time, Baba said: Child, what news have you brought today? I replied: Baba, today I have brought the remembrance of the originals jewels of service, those who took sustenance from father Brahma. As Baba heard this, He smiled very sweetly and said: These children are the special lamps of all the hopes of BapDada. They are the ones who will reveal the elevated hopes. They are the stars of success who will fulfil those hopes. They are the instrument guru-bhais (the brothers who become equal to the guru) who bring BapDada's elevated thoughts into practical form. BapDada welcomes all of these children with a lot of love in His heart and always sings their praise in His heart: Wah, My lovely children, wah! Wah, My world transformer souls, wah!

After that, Baba said: Achcha, child, today, BapDada will show you a scene. Saying this, Baba took me a little further ahead with Him. So what did I see? Many lamps were alight from a distance, and all the lamps were sparkling in the form of crowns. All the children's faces were visible in the flame of each lamp. That was a very beautiful scene. Seeing each lamp, BapDada said: Look, the children are sparkling so much. They are looking so beautiful. BapDada always places the children even higher than Himself. This is why they are shown in the form of a crown. I was also feeling very happy seeing the garland of the alokik lamps. After that, Baba said: BapDada is happy that the children are meeting together and discussing the plans of bringing about transformation in everyone through self-transformation, and will then make some new plans filled with divinity through which all Brahmin souls and the souls of the world easily experience the power of transformation, because this group is the foundation of special service and all responsibility lies with the foundation. So the children have to:

- Together with the Father become the embodiment of all solutions and be co-operative in making everyone else the embodiment of solutions.*
- Maintain the balance between love and law and become worthy to receive and enable others to receive blessings.*
- Be co-operative in giving everyone respect for their responsibility, and thereby making them the embodiment of the awareness of self-respect, and so accumulate in your account of charity.*
- Experience practically and give others the experience also of being the angelic image of support and image of upliftment.*
- With self-transformation and transformation of all, reveal the sparkle of world transformation to the world.*
- Hoist the flag of revealing the Father in front of the world.*
- Become a yogi soul who is the form of the intense fire of yoga and spread the flame of transformation.*

Tell me, you are the worthy souls who give the proof of fulfilling all of the Father's hopes, are you not? These are the elevated thoughts that BapDada has for this group. Saying this, it was as though BapDada made all the children emerge in His heart and was giving them rays of very powerful sakaash, and said: Child, what gift will you take back for this group? What did I see then? Many beautiful chindis (a tilak on a chain worn from the head to the forehead). The rays of the eight powers of eight colours were sparkling in each chindi. A bright golden-red diamond was sparkling in the centre. This looked very beautiful. Baba gave such a beautiful gift of the chindi and said: Give this gift to every specially beloved child of Mine. BapDada is giving the gift of always having on the forehead the awareness of Baba and being the embodiment of all powers. It felt as though each child was coming in front of Baba and BapDada was decorating each child by personally putting the chindi on each one. For some time, it was as though Baba was lost in the love of the children. After that, Baba put a chindi on me too and giving me His powerful loving drishti, sent me back to the corporeal world. Om Shanti.
