

Beloved BapDada's divine message (via Dadi Gulzar)

Today, I reached Baba carrying love, remembrance and news of our beloved Dadiji. From a distance, BapDada in His very powerful form, was very busy in giving sakaash to souls of the world. BapDada's face was sparkling like the Sun of Knowledge and spreading rays in all directions. Receiving this spiritual sakaash, I too came close to Baba. BapDada said: Come, master ocean of knowledge, child, come! You too give sakaash. I too was experiencing myself in the merciful stage, giving sakaash in the same way as the Father. After some time, Baba said: What news have you brought today? I said: Baba, hearing the sound of the upheaval in the world today, Dadiji, together with everyone, is wondering what further we to have to do. Baba said: Child, let whatever service programmes have been planned continue. There is no need to think about this quickly. Whatever is to happen further, you will receive signals. Children know that the upheaval of time will sometimes be intense and sometimes less intense. However, children have to become complete and bring about the completion of the time of transformation with their power of elevated remembrance and the power of service. You have to be merciful and compassionate towards souls of the world. This is why even today, everyone is praising you and the Father and calling out: Oh Deities, have mercy! Have compassion! This upheaval is to make you children even more unshakeable. Now day by day, the game of being unshakeable and upheaval is going to increase. The tug of war of both sides will bring about transformation. You children also sing the song of "Transformation, transformation", do you not? Whilst seeing this wonderful game as a detached observer and as the Father's companion, continue to move towards your karmateet stage. However, all the scenes you are seeing and news you are hearing are to make you all strong and mature. Continue to move forward and make others move forward seeing the self and the time. Saying this, it was as though BapDada made all Brahmins emerge in His heart and was giving them all very sweet drishti. Whilst taking drishti from Baba, I too reached the corporeal world.
