

Today, when I reached the subtle region, I saw that BapDada was very busy giving all the children everywhere very sweet drishti and filling them with power filled with a lot of love and force. From a distance, I was receiving as if from very close, love and power and came in front of Baba. BapDada said: Come, my double-light, powerful lighthouse child, come. However, today, as soon as I merged myself in Baba's arms, in a second I experienced myself to be a completely incorporeal point of light, as though I were merged in the Ocean. For some time, I was not even aware of myself. After a while, Baba rubbed His hand on my forehead and said: Come, child! Come, child! So, gradually, I became aware of myself and I was pleased to find myself in front of BapDada. BapDada gave very loving drishti and said: Child, what news have you brought today? I replied: Baba, today, I have brought special remembrance of the five arms of Madhuban (Pandava Bhawan, Gyan Sarovar, Hospital, Shantivan and the Abu residents up and down the mountain) and the double foreigners. At this time, Dadiji has a lot of enthusiasm for celebrating Shiv Ratri with a lot of splendour. All she wants is for the sound of Shiv Baba's birthday to echo in every corner so that it becomes instrumental to reveal BapDada. So BapDada smiled and said: BapDada has seen that everyone everywhere accepts Dadiji's thoughts with a lot of zeal and enthusiasm. This is giving regard to the Father's thoughts, because it is BapDada who has made the Dadis instruments in the sakar form. Baba is happy that all the children have so much love for BapDada that everyone wants to reveal BapDada. Everywhere, they are all making programmes with a lot of love. Children know that to reveal the importance of Shiv Ratri means to spread the sound of the Father's revelation. This is why BapDada is giving all the children congratulations from the heart in advance. The place that claims number one in giving the message whilst being tireless and serving in a double way through the mind and through words will receive a special souvenir gift. Abroad as well, child Janak is giving everyone great enthusiasm. The sound of the zeal and enthusiasm in everyone's heart is reaching the Father. You have been running programmes, giving lectures and holding seminars and exhibitions, but now, according to the time, BapDada wants you, together with serving through words, to become equal to the Father and with the love from your heart, enable the message to reach people's heart. Become master bestowers and give a drop of spiritual experience, give them prasad. Quench the thirst of even one drop of the thirsty souls. After that, for some time, although BapDada was in front of me, He went into complete sweet silence and was spreading the vibrations of sweet silence in all directions.

After that, Baba said: What other news have you brought? I replied: Baba, all the children from this land and abroad have given the result of purity with a lot of love. BapDada smiled and said: Children have written with courage, but now it is essential to complete that result. For this Shiv Ratri, BapDada has one other pure thought, that just as children have had a thought for purity, in the same way, on Shiv Ratri, to remove the second great obstacle to purity and that is anger, which causes upheaval in the self and others. So the Father especially wants you to surrender this form of fire and thereby make you into cool deities. In bhakti, together with offering milk, they also offer the bitter uck flowers, so BapDada also wants you to surrender anger, which is a bitter mind and bitter words. And the seed of that – arrogance – is hidden inside. Arrogance is not just arrogance of the body, but the gyani children have arrogance in the form of bossiness, of wrong authority. Whether it is authority of some speciality, authority of the speciality of performing a particular task, authority of the speciality of their intellect, authority of the speciality of their decision-making, authority of the speciality of being in-charge, this subtle arrogance reveals itself in the form of bossiness or anger. So BapDada's pure hopes are that you know all of this to be Prabhu-prasad and will surrender these bitter uck flowers to Baba on Shiv Ratri in the form of determined thoughts from the heart for your own self-transformation. So, by finishing the fire of anger, yoga will easily take on the form of fire and the form of revelation will come in front of you.

After that BapDada took Dadiji in His lap and rubbed His hand on her head and back and merged her with Him with a lot of love. Dadiji also became merged in that love. After that, BapDada gave all the children blessings from His heart and said: May every child be a king child and be successful. May you be successful. May you be successful. It felt as though BapDada is quickly making all of us children full of all treasures with the blessing of complete purity. Giving very sweet drishti in all directions, Baba sent me to the corporeal world. Om shanti
