

The basis of attaining an elevated status is the Murli.

Today, the Murlidhar Father is looking at His children who love the Murli (flute) to see how much they love the Murlidhar Father and how much they love the Murli. You become so intoxicated about the Murli. You forget all consciousness of your body as you listen to the bodiless Father. You don't have the slightest consciousness of bodily beings. You become so intoxicated in this way and dance in happiness. You consider yourselves to be multimillion times fortunate to be personally in front of the Father, the Bestower of Fortune, and stay in spiritual intoxication. As you become intoxicated with this spiritual intoxication and the intoxication of the Murli of the Murlidhar, you experience yourselves to be flying beyond your body and this earth. With the music of the Murli, that is, with the secrets and music of the Murli, you continue to have many experiences with the Father. Sometimes, you go to the incorporeal world, sometimes, the subtle region and sometimes, to your own kingdom. Sometimes, you become a light-and-might-house and give rays of happiness and peace to the souls of this peaceless and unhappy world. You travel through the three worlds every day. With whom? With the Murlidhar Father. Hearing the Murli you swing in swings of supersensuous joy. As soon as you receive the medicine of imperishable blessings through the music of Murlidhar's Murli, you become healthy in body and mind. Baba was seeing the children who have love for listening to the Murli in this right way. From the same Murli, some become kings, whereas others some become subjects because success is achieved through the method of application; the more you listen to the Murli in the right way, the more you become an embodiment of success.

First are those who listen to the Murli in the right way, that is, those who merge it in themselves. Second are those who listen to the Murli as a discipline and merge some of the Murli in themselves and speak about some of the Murli. Don't even ask about the third type! Those who listen and merge the Murli in themselves in an accurate way become the form of it. Their every action is a form of the Murli. Ask yourself what number you are in - the first number or the second number? To have regard for the Murlidhar Father means to have regard for every version of the Murli. Each version is the basis of earning an income for 2500 years. It is the basis of an income of multimillions. In regard to this, if you miss one blessing, you miss an income of multimillions. One blessing makes you into a mine of treasures. Those who listen to every word of the Murli in the right way and understand the philosophy of the account of success attained through it, attain an elevated status. Just as the philosophy of karma is deep, in the same way, the philosophy of listening to and merging the Murli in yourself in the right way is extremely elevated. Murli is the breath of Brahmin life. If there is no breath there is no life. You souls are experienced in this, are you not? Check yourself every day as to whether you listened to the Murli with that importance and in the right way. This discipline at Amrit Vela easily and automatically makes you into an embodiment of success in your every action throughout the day. Do you understand?

New ones have come, haven't they? Therefore, Baba is telling all of you who have come last the way to go fast. Through this way you will go fast. With this way, you can gallop and make up in terms of any gap of time. BapDada tells you the different methods so that no child has any complaints, such as: Why did we come late? Or, why were we called late? However, you can still move forward. Move forward with the elevated way and claim a high number. There won't be any complaints left, will there? Baba is showing you the refined way. You have come at the time when everything is ready-made. You have come at the time to eat the butter that has been churned. You are already free from that type of labour. Now, simply eat it and digest it. It is easy, is it not? Achcha.

To those who are complete in doing everything in the right way and thereby attain all success; to those who forget the consciousness of the body on hearing Murlidhar's Murli; to those who swing in the swing of happiness; to the intoxicated yogis who remain intoxicated in their spiritual intoxication; to those who have regard for Murlidhar and the Murli; to such master murlidhars; to the children who become the form of the Murli or Murlidhar; to all BapDada's corporeal and angelic children, BapDada's love, remembrance and namaste.

BapDada meeting groups:

1) You are the elevated souls who constantly stay in remembrance of the One, in a constant and stable stage, are you not? Are you always constant 'ek-ras' (taste of One) or do other tastes pull you towards themselves? Other tastes don't pull you towards themselves, do they? All of you have just the One. Everything is merged in the One. Since you have only One, and there isn't anyone else, where else would you go? You don't have any maternal or paternal uncles, do you? What promise have all of you made? This is the promise you have made, is it not - that You are everything? Have the kumaris made a firm promise? You made a firm promise and you were garlanded with a wedding garland. You made a promise and you found the Husband. You found the Husband and also the home. You have found the Husband whose praise is sung by the whole world. You have also found the home where there is nothing lacking. So, have you put on the wedding garland firmly? Such kumaris are said to be sensible. Kumaris are sensible anyway. BapDada is pleased to see the kumaris because you have been saved. You would be happy if someone was saved from falling, would you not? The mothers had already fallen down, and so for them, it would be said that those who had fallen were saved, whereas for kumaris, it would be said that you have been saved from falling. Therefore, you are so lucky! Mothers have their own luck and kumaris have their own luck. You mothers are also lucky because you are the cows of Gopal (Cowherd. One who looks after cows).

2) Are you constantly conquerors of Maya? Those who are conquerors of Maya would definitely have the intoxication of being world benefactors. Do you have such intoxication? Unlimited service means service of the world. Always have the awareness that you are the children of the Master of the world. You have the awareness of what you have become and what you have found. That is all. Simply constantly continue to make progress in this happiness. BapDada is pleased to see those who are making progress.

Constantly remain intoxicated in remembrance of the Father. What does Godly intoxication make you? From being residents of this earth (ash), you become residents of the sky (fash). So, do you constantly reside in the sky or do you sometimes reside on the earth? Since you have become the children of the highest-on-high Father, how could you stay down below? The earth is down below, is it not, whereas the sky is high, so how could you come down? Never allow the foot of your intellect to touch the ground. Just up above! This is known as being a child of the highest-on-high Father. Let there be this intoxication. Constantly remain unshakeable and immovable and full of all treasures. If you fluctuate even a little because of Maya you won't be able to experience all treasures. You have received so many treasures from the Father. So in order to keep all those treasures with you for all time, constantly remain unshakeable and immovable. By remaining unshakeable you will constantly experience happiness. There is also happiness of perishable wealth. Only those who remain unshakeable and immovable will be able to experience this happiness.

All Brahmins have received self-sovereignty. Previously, you were slaves and used to sing: "I am Your slave! I am Your slave!" You have now become self-sovereigns. From slaves, you have become kings. There is so much difference! There is the difference of day and night. Remember the Father and change from a slave to a king. Such a kingdom cannot be attained throughout the whole cycle. With this self sovereignty you receive the kingdom of the world. Therefore, constantly maintain the intoxication that you have a right to self-sovereignty, and your physical senses will automatically follow the elevated path. Always maintain the happiness that you have attained whatever you wanted to attain. Look what you have become from what you were! Look where you were and where you have reached!

Question: What is the easy way to become a conqueror of Maya?

Answer: In order to become a conqueror of Maya, be angry with your defects. When you feel angry, don't become angry with one another, but become angry with your defects and weaknesses and you will easily become a conqueror of Maya.

Question: Why is BapDada especially pleased when He sees the villagers?

Answer: Because the villagers are very innocent. Even the Father is called the Innocent Lord. Just as the Father is the Innocent Lord, so too, the villagers are innocent. Therefore, always have the happiness that you are especially loved by the Innocent Lord.

Blessing: May you be an easy yogi and constantly experience happiness by making all your attainments emerge.

The basis of easy yoga is love, and the basis of love is relationship. It is easy to remember someone in a relationship. All attainments are received through a relationship. Where you have attainment, your mind and intellect go there easily. This is why you have to make all the treasures of powers, knowledge, virtues, happiness, peace, bliss and love and all the different attainments you have attained emerge in your intellect and you will thereby experience happiness and become easy yogis.

Slogan: Those who remain beyond all questions remain fully satisfied.
