

Celebrate the ceremony of success with a savings scheme of thoughts, time and words. Ignite the lamp of hope in disheartened souls.

Today is the day of love. All the children from everywhere are merged in the Ocean of Love. This love makes you an easy yogi. Love is something that takes you beyond all other attractions. All of you children have the blessing of love as a blessing from birth. Love has the power to enable transformation to take place. So, today, Baba saw two types of children everywhere. All are the lovely children, but one type is the lovely children and the other type is the children who are absorbed in love (loveleen). The children who are absorbed in love are automatically and easily equal to the Father in their every thought, every breath, every word and every deed. Why? The Father has given the children the blessing of being powerful. Today is called the day of remembrance and power. Why? The father made himself the backbone on this day and revealed the children who are absorbed in love on the stage of the world. In the corporeal form, he revealed the children and he himself then became a companion in the avyakt form.

On this day of remembrance and power, he made the children the masters and gave the master almighty authority children the task to reveal the Almighty Authority Father. And, seeing this, the Father is happy because all the children are engaged in the task of revealing the Father, that is, in the task of benefiting the world and transforming the world according to their capacity and strength. You are using the inheritance of all powers that you have received from the Father for the self and for the souls of the world. BapDada is giving multi-multimillionfold congratulations from the heart to the children who are such master almighty authorities, all-round servers who maintain zeal and enthusiasm equal to that of the Father, who are altruistic servers and unlimited servers. Congratulations. Congratulations. Both this land and abroad – the children of this land are no less and the children from abroad are no less. BapDada sings the praise of such children in His heart and also sings the song, “Wah children! Wah!” All of you are wah, wah (wonderful) children, are you not? You are waving your hands. Very good. BapDada has pure pride. He is proud of His children because throughout the whole cycle there isn't such a father whose every child is a self-sovereign king. All of you are self-sovereign kings, are you not? You are not the subjects, are you? Many children ask Baba when they have a conversation with Baba: Show us an image of what we will become in the future. What does BapDada say? The older children say that Mother Jagadamba used to give all the children an image. So, also give us an image! BapDada says that He has given every child a unique mirror and you can see in that mirror the image of who you are in the future. Do you know this? Do you have that mirror with you? Do you know which mirror? Those sitting in the first row must know it! Do you know? That mirror is the mirror of the self-sovereign stage of the present time. To the extent that you are a self-sovereign at the present time, accordingly, you will claim a right to the kingdom of the world. Now, look at yourself in the mirror to see if you are a constant self-sovereign. Or, is it that sometimes you are dependent and at other times you have a right? That you are sometimes dependent and sometimes have a right, that sometimes your eyes deceive you, sometimes your mind deceives you, sometimes your mouth deceives you and sometimes even your ears deceive you? That you are interested in listening to wasteful things? If any of the physical organs deceive you, if they control you, it proves that you do not have the controlling power or the ruling power that you have received from the Father as a blessing and as an inheritance of all powers. Just think: how could someone who cannot rule the self rule the world? Check in the mirror of your present stage of a self-sovereign. All of you have received the mirror, have you not? If you have received the mirror, raise your hands! There aren't any stains on the mirror, are there? Is the mirror clear?

BapDada has given all the children the respect of being a self-sovereign. All of you children have received from the Father the title of a master almighty authority. Not just a master with powers, but a master with all powers. In their heart-to-heart conversations, some children even say: Baba, You have given all the powers, but, sometimes, these particular powers do not work at the right time. They report that those powers do not emerge at the right time; that they emerge after the time has passed by. What is the reason for that? At the time you invoke a particular power, check whether you are seated on your seat as a master. If someone is not seated on his seat.... No one would obey the orders of someone who doesn't have that seat (position). I am a self-sovereign, I am a master almighty authority, I have a right to the inheritance and blessings from the Father: Be seated on this seat and then issue the order. "What can I do? How can I do this? I cannot do this." If you issue an order having come off your seat, how could anyone obey you? In today's world too, when someone is a Prime Minister and seated on his seat, his orders are obeyed. Would anyone obey him if he had given up his seat? So check: Am I seated on my seat? Do I issue an order as one who has a right? The Father has given every child the authority. You have the Godly authority. You have not received the authority of any soul, or the authority of any great soul; you have God's authority. So, order any power when you are stable in the stage of your authority and your right, and that power will say, "Yes, my lord! Yes, my lord!" In front of all the powers, Maya, the elements, sanskars and nature will all become servants. They will wait for you, the master. "Master, give us an order!"

This is the day of power, is it not? So BapDada is making you children revise what powers you have. He is making you underline it. At a time of need, why do you become powerless? BapDada has seen that the majority of children have a leakage. Because of this leakage, the powers are reduced; the leakage is mainly of two things and they are: thoughts and time are wasted. It isn't bad, but it is wasteful. You don't do anything bad at that time, but you still don't accumulate. You just see that you haven't done anything bad today. However, did you also accumulate something good? You didn't lose anything, but did you earn anything? You didn't cause any sorrow, but to how many did you give happiness? You didn't make anyone peaceless, but how much did you spread vibrations of peace? Having become a messenger of peace, to how many did you give peace through the atmosphere, your mouth and your vibrations? Because you know that you have this short time of the most elevated benevolent age for you to accumulate. If not now, then never – remember this at every moment. "It will happen, I will do it..." If not now, then never. This was the intense effort that Father Brahma made and that was how he reached the destination of number one. So, on this day of power, you remembered the powers that the Father has given you, did you not? Make a savings scheme. A saving of thoughts, a saving of time, a saving of words, words that are not correct, a saving of inaccurate, wasteful words.

BapDada wants to see all the children as self-sovereign kings who are always seated on their seat of authority. Do you like this? You like this form, do you not? Whenever BapDada sees any child on the TV, He wants to see that child in this form. BapDada has a natural TV. He doesn't need to switch it on. He can see everywhere at the same time. He can see every child in every corner. So, is this possible? From tomorrow if Baba were to open His TV, what should He be able to see? You in the angelic dress. The angelic dress is a sparkling dress. It is a sparkling dress of light. Do not wear the dress of the mud of body consciousness. When you have the sparkling dress, you are the stars of success. BapDada wants to see an image of each one of you like this. You like this, do you not? If you wore a dress of mud, you would become like mud, would you not? Just as the Father is bodiless, so Father Brahma is in a sparkling dress; he is an angel. Follow the Father. In a physical way, what do you do when your clothes become covered with mud or stained? You change them, do you not? In the same way, check whether you constantly have a sparkling angelic dress. The Father has the pure pride that every child is a king child. So stay in that form. Live as a king. Then Maya will become your servant and will come to say farewell to you. She will come to say farewell for half the cycle; she will not attack you. BapDada always says: Those who surrender themselves to the Father can never be defeated. If you are defeated, you have not surrendered.

Now, all of you are going to have a meeting. A date is fixed for the meetings, is it not? So this time, BapDada does not want to see a meeting of just making service plans. You may make service plans, but also make plans for the ceremony of success in your meetings. You have had many ceremonies; now fix a date for the ceremony of success. Perhaps you are thinking how everyone can become this. BapDada says that at least 108 jewels should celebrate the ceremony of having become an embodiment of success. They should become examples. Is that possible? Speak! Those in the front row, speak! Is it possible? You don't have the courage to reply. Are you are still thinking whether you will do it or not? Everything can happen with courage. Dadi say, can 108 become embodiments of success? (Yes, they can definitely become that. The ceremony of success can be celebrated.) Look, Dadi has courage. She is maintaining courage on behalf of all of you. Therefore, be co-operative. So, BapDada will want a report of the meeting that takes place. Pandavas, speak! Why are you quiet? Why are you quiet? Why do you not have this courage? You will demonstrate this by doing it practically? Is it like that? It is good. Can you at least maintain courage? Those of you who believe that you will have courage and demonstrate this practically, raise your hands! Will you do it? There won't be any sanskars remaining? There won't be any weaknesses remaining? Achcha, even those from Madhuban are raising their hands! Wah! Congratulations! Congratulations! Achcha, then 108 will be ready easily. If so many have raised their hands, then 108 is not a big thing. What will the double foreigners do? Yes, Dadi Janki is listening. She is keen to say something. We will also look at the rosary from abroad. Is that all right? Raise your hands! Achcha, how many double foreigners are here today? (200). 108 will be ready out of them. Is that right? In this, say, "I first." In this, do not look at others. "I first." Do not say, "I" in other things, but definitely say "I" for this. BapDada is going to give even more work.

Today is the day of power and so you have power. BapDada wants to celebrate a unique Diwali. You have celebrated Diwali many times, but BapDada wants to celebrate a unique Diwali. Should He tell you about it? Should He tell you? Should He? OK. You can see the present times. Day by day, the disheartenment of people everywhere is increasing a lot. So, whether you serve them with your mind, through words or through relationships and connections, BapDada wants to ignite the lamp of hope in disheartened people. The lamp of hope should be ignited in the minds of all human souls everywhere. BapDada wants this Diwali of the lamps of hope. Is it possible? If at least this lamp of hope is ignited in the atmosphere, then world transformation will be almost here. Then the golden morning will have arrived. The hopelessness that nothing can happen, should now finish. Lamps of hope should be ignited. You can do this, can you not? Is this easy or difficult? Is it easy? Those who will do this, raise your hands! You will do it? If you ignite so many lamps there will then be Diwali. Make the vibrations that powerful. OK, you cannot reach them, but become a light-and-might house and spread the vibrations far and wide. Since science can give light far and wide through a lighthouse, then can you not spread those vibrations? Simply have this determined thought: I have to do it. Become busy in that. If you keep your mind busy, you will benefit and souls too will benefit. While walking and moving along, have the awareness that you definitely have to benefit the world. This attitude will spread into the atmosphere because, according to time, everything will happen suddenly. It should not be that your brothers and sisters complain: Why didn't you tell us? Some children think that they will do this at the end, but if you do it at the end, then they would also complain. They would complain that if you had told them earlier they would have done something. Therefore, continue to take light from BapDada in your every thought, and, as a lighthouse, continue to give light. Do not waste your time. When BapDada sees that you are battling a lot, He doesn't like it. A master almighty authority and battling! So become kings, become embodiments of success. Finish the disheartenment and ignite the lamps of hope. Achcha.

Many garlands of remembrance of the children's love have reached BapDada. BapDada is seeing personally in front of Him those who have sent remembrance and, in response to that remembrance, is giving blessings from His heart and love from His heart. Achcha. What shall we do now?

Karnataka was responsible for service. Those from Karnataka have had 5 mega programmes. Achcha. Many have come. You have had good mega programmes. Congratulations! However, how many students were created from each mega programme? Have you got that result? Mega programmes are good to give a message; at least you won't receive complaints. At least one task is completed well. However, after the mega programmes, you do have their addresses, do you not? Whoever's address you have, continue to invite them from time to time. Continue to serve them at your own centre because it is not possible to serve zone-wise. The souls there can come to you locally. Let those souls emerge. The population of Karnataka is large. It is good. You have done service and so the numbers have increased, but now create such a bouquet that they become the "mike and might" and become your companions in giving a message. Prepare such a group. The majority of the bigger zones have had mega programmes, but BapDada hasn't yet received any news of which mike has emerged to become a helper in giving the message. Even now, many souls of the world still remain to receive the message. So, whatever the population of Karnataka is, at every place there should be a list of some kind. There should be this, should there not, so that BapDada can receive those names? He should get that result. Do not bring them to Madhuban. First of all, send a written report of how many have emerged, and of what quality they are, whether abroad or in this land. It is good. Congratulations for having had the programme. Now send such a list. Each centre should send such a list. Is that all right? It is good. Now, perform some wonders in Karnataka. Can every centre become a self-sovereign and be free from obstacles? Is that possible? You have been given three months. However, you mustn't become free from obstacles for just three months, but obstacles should finish for all time. If sanskars emerge in thoughts, then finish them there and then. They should not be put into action or words. So, Karnataka will show such a result. Number one free from obstacles. Will you do this? You will have to do this. Co-operate with one another, help one another and definitely do this because if even two to four do not become free from obstacles, how could you be given the certificate? You would then not be given the certificate that Karnataka is free from obstacles, would you? This is why you have to be co-operative and give courage to one another to definitely do this. Are you ready? Teachers, are you ready? You will have to do this. Look, it is being shown on the TV. All the teachers from Karnataka are raising their hands. Achcha, we will see. Baba is already congratulating you, and we shall see further in the future. Is that all right? Those sitting at the back and those sitting at the front will have to do it. Do not allow your sanskars to emerge. Transform them in your thoughts. It is good. However many there are, that many can do a lot. It is good that you have taken the golden chance of service. So, in a few days, you have accumulated a lot of charity. To serve the yagya means to accumulate in your account of charity. So, you have come having maintained good courage. And, in the future too, continue to maintain courage and move forward.

Medical Wing: Have you created a new plan? (Throughout the year, we will have programmes of how to increase values in health care.) You have made plans; you now have to do it in a practical form. The message can reach them through this too, can it not? You have good courage. All of you who have come haven't just had meetings, you also definitely have to do it practically. And you people have double benefit. You receive double blessings. You receive blessings for their body getting well and you also receive blessings for their mind becoming happy. All of you have enthusiasm. Very good. It is good. In the medical wing, the topic of the heart is moving along very well too. The report from the Bombay Hospital is good. VIPs automatically come by themselves, because previously, they thought that the Brahma Kumaris do not do social work, whereas they now think that the work that the Brahma Kumaris do brings a very good result. There has been this difference in the atmosphere since the Global Hospital opened in Mt. Abu. Even those in Abu are changing. So, it is good. Even if your department is doing the physical work of giving medicine, this service is spreading and people feel that the Brahma Kumaris can do double work. So, you are doing good work. Continue to do it. In every corner, through the medical wing, continue to bring happiness to everyone's mind and ignite the lamps of hope. It is good. Congratulations.

Education Wing: You have created a good method. You get a chance to meet and you also have a conference. It is good. BapDada heard the news that you are gradually being given chances in the educational field and you continue to do that. Now get some very good evidence (proof). Wherever you serve, take a very good and clear example from there so that when people in other countries see that result, they will continue to move it further forward. Education and medicine are both essential. BapDada has said that every wing is doing good service in their wing. You are maintaining courage. You are also being co-operative. However, now make it a little faster because time is coming close. Each wing has its own speciality. Now, at least, there is no longer the complaint that you haven't given the message to their profession. The expansion will now continue. So, the burden of education on the Government will reduce. If the Youth group becomes good, the Government will say that you have become their companions. You are doing well. Congratulations. Move it further forward. Achcha.

Those who have come for the first time, stand up! It is good. It has been seen that, in every meeting, the majority are new ones. So, you have increased service, have you not? You have given the message to this many. Just as you have received the message, in the same way, you must also give the message to double the number. Make them worthy. It is good. In every subject, continue to move forward with a lot more zeal and enthusiasm. It is good. Achcha.

Now keep the aim that while walking and moving around, you mustn't stop serving through your mind, your words or your actions. And you mustn't even stop having remembrance. Remembrance and service are always together. Keep yourself so busy in both remembrance and service. When you remain free, Maya has a chance to come. Remain so busy that Maya doesn't have the courage to come to you even from a distance. Then you will easily be able to fulfil the aim that you have kept of becoming equal to the Father. You won't have to labour. You will remain an embodiment of love. Achcha.

Today, love has brought you flying here. How fast is the plane of love? You have come here flying with love. Continue to fly with love and also make others fly. BapDada is seeing the children from everywhere and how everyone has 100% zeal and enthusiasm in their heart that they will definitely do it. It is not a big thing. It has to happen. However, keep the zeal and enthusiasm of this time, and the determined thoughts, always with you.

To the children who are the light of the eyes, merged in BapDada's eyes, to the elevated souls who have a right to all the Father's property, to all the mahavir and mahavirni children who constantly fly with the wings of zeal and enthusiasm and who make others fly, to the children who are absorbed in love with the deep love that the one Father is their whole world, remain absorbed in love, that is, easily become equal to the Father. So, multi-multimillionfold love and remembrance and namaste to the children who are both lovely and who remain absorbed in love. Achcha.

Those who made the flower arrangements, come to the front!

To Dadiji: Seeing your courage, even BapDada is pleased. The body is finishing the karmic accounts of the body and you are flying with courage. Are you all right? (To the Dadis) All of you are also instruments to give a lot of courage to others. Seeing all of you, everyone has the enthusiasm that they too can do it. So, you have become good instruments. (To Mohiniben) You are an instrument, are you not? (To Ishu Dadi) You are number one in fulfilling the responsibility of your company. (Munni ben) You have as much love for the yagya as you have for the Father. You are looking after everything very well. The yagya is overflowing and it will always remain overflowing. Achcha. (To Nirmala Shanta Dadi – those from Calcutta brought beautiful flowers to decorate everywhere.) You are a master of the gaddi, are you not? You are good. You are moving along as a master of the body. You have learnt how to handle your body. Your face is doing service. That's good. Your group is also good. They have enthusiasm for service. They have a big heart. This becomes the beauty of the yagya. The vibrations spread when someone does something with their heart. There are vibrations even from the flowers. Everyone has vibrations of zeal and enthusiasm. So, you do this very well, and BapDada sees that, every year, you do it the best of all; you do it with enthusiasm. Therefore, congratulations! You also do it in remembrance. You received the response, did you not? You sent remembrance, did you not? Many have sent remembrance. Whoever you meet says: Give my remembrance. They continue to say to the messenger: Give our remembrance. Whoever sent their remembrance, BapDada is giving personal remembrance by name in response. You are good and you will remain good and you will continue to make the best of all (decorations). All those who are sitting are giving their remembrance and they are all receiving remembrance. (Uncle and Auntie from America have also sent their remembrance.) Today, BapDada received love and remembrance from every child from every city. There isn't a single country that hasn't sent their love and remembrance. Achcha.
