

one knows of the bindu (the dot, the form of the soul); they know only of the deities. So the deities are glorified in front of the devotees (through visions). Baba takes everyone to the land of liberation so that you children can enjoy the kingdom of peace and happiness. Achha.

To such heir souls who claim self-sovereignty, who are constantly stable and unshakeable, who stay in spiritual intoxication, that is, constant, eternal intoxication, who are worthy to claim the double kingdom, love, remembrances and namaste to such jewels who are merged in BapDada's eyes.

To the group from Australia

Why does Baba have special love for the Australian children? What is their speciality? Their speciality is that they have courage and with this courage they become instrumental in opening centres all around. And their method is also very good. Baba is especially pleased to see the courage of such children. London also has its own speciality. London receives special sustenance through many experienced instrument jewels. Australia does not get a chance to take such sustenance and they are standing on their own two feet. They are busy in service and spreading service, and they are succeeding. Everyone is fond of doing service and they stay in remembrance. They take an interest in remembrance and are progressing and will continue to progress. The majority of them are free from obstacles. Some good children have gone, but they remember Baba. This is why you should always have good wishes for them and bring them closer to BapDada again. Do you have such enthusiasm? Some fruits will fall from the tree—that is not a new thing. But make yourself strong and others as well, so that everyone can become the embodiment of success. The group that has come here is strong, isn't it? Maya won't catch you? If you still have any weakness then finish it off here and become complete in Madhuban. Take from Madhuban the blessing of being immortal.

Keep this blessing with you constantly and also awaken others through this blessing.

BapDada is proud of having the double-foreigner children. You are also proud of that, aren't you? Do you have this intoxication that we have recognised the Father and that, out of the whole world, we are the special children who have recognised the Father? Always keep this imperishable intoxication and happiness. See. BapDada has photographed everyone so that then He can show you the photograph and remind you that you did come to Baba. You should become knowledgeable about Maya as well. A knowledgeable person cannot be deceived because the soul knows how Maya comes, and in what way it comes. Because of having knowledge there is safety. When you separate yourself from Baba you become alone. Only then does Maya come. If you keep yourself constantly combined then Maya cannot come. The speciality of Australia is that the responsible ones are Pandavs by majority, whereas usually it is the Shaktis who are in the majority. Here, it is the wonder of Pandavs. They always keep company with the Lord of the Pandavs. They have a good quality of courage and BapDada congratulates them on having courage. Now keep the blessing of being eternal with you at all times. Achha.

To the group from Brazil

BapDada knows that these loving souls are merged in the Ocean of Love. Though, physically, they live far away, the children who have love for Baba are always in front of Him. It is the love of the children that enables them to conquer all obstacles and helps them to remain very close to baba. This is why BapDada congratulates such children. BapDada knows that they have transformed their labour into love, and that has brought them here. This is why BapDada massages them with the hands of His love. Loveable children are always massaged by their parents with great love BapDada is seeing the star of fortune of His children. You are shining stars. No matter what the condition of the country, so long as you are always merged in Baba's love you will remain safe. BapDada's umbrella of protection is always over you. You are such beloved, long-lost and now found children aren't you? (Then the group garlanded Baba with a rosary of letters from other children in Brazil). In return for this garland, BapDada is giving love and remembrances to all those children. Tell them that they have sent their letters and news with great love, and that Baba has accepted them with great love. BapDada will always remain with those who have courage. Baba is counting the beads of this rosary He has received. BapDada knows that though physically, My children are very far away, yet through their minds they are residents of madhuban. Through their minds they are always "Manmanabhav". This is why they are very close and in front of Him. Seeing such children, BapDada is giving love and remembrances to each by name. Continue to progress to become elevated and make others elevated. BapDada is giving this blessing to all His Children. Let everyone accept love and remembrance individually, by name.

Become like a Tower, stable and unshakeable.

Today, the Baba of Madhuban has come to meet His children in Madhuban. Today, from the early morning hours of nectar, BapDada was receiving songs of love of the loving children: the songs of the celebration of the meeting of the equal children: the sounds filled with enthusiasm of souls in contact in whom hope has risen: the sweet complaints filled with love of the children in bondage: and the flowers of love from the children.

The elevated promises of powerful thoughts, from children of this land and abroad, also, came to BapDada. All were very close to Baba, and now BapDada is replying to the thoughts of love of all the children, and the powerful thoughts of the children. Let there be blessings of constant love for BapDada; let there be blessings of being constantly equal and powerful. Let there be blessings of being close constantly. Through hope and enthusiasm let there be blessings of becoming free souls, liberated from all bondages through the fire of love.

The days for the children to be liberated from all bondages have almost come. The sound of true love from the hearts of the children will definitely awaken the Kumbhakarna souls. Those who now impose bondage will themselves be tied into the bondage of God's love. In particular, BapDada is giving strength to the hearts of the children in bondage, that the auspicious days are about to come.

On this day especially, pearls of love also reached BapDada. It is these pearls of love that make the soul become an elevated diamond. Today is the day for power, today is the day for receiving the blessing of 'tattvam' (you also are this), for the equal children. Today is the day that BapDada hands over the will of all powers to the Shakti army. He gives will power, He gives the power of the will. Today is the day that Baba becomes the backbone, and keeps the children on the field in front of the world, so that Baba is unknown and the children are well known. Today is the day of Brahma Baba becoming karmateet. Today is the day when the task of world benefit begins with intense speed, and the task of travelling across the world begins. Today is the day for BapDada to be revealed through the mirror of the children. Today is the day for the children of the world to receive the introduction of the Father of the world.

All the children can make their stage become the tower of knowledge, and the tower of power; that is, become like a tower, stable and unshakeable. Baba's memorial, which gives inspiration to every child, is the tower of peace. The physical tower of peace has been built, but all you children who stay in Baba's remembrance are the living towers, the memorial for Baba. BapDada goes on a tour to see the children who are the living towers. Just as on this day you stand in front of the tower of peace especially, BapDada also stand in front of the children who are like the towers, who stay in remembrance. Just as you go into Baba's room on this day especially, BapDada enters the heart, the room, of every child and speaks to them of the things of their hearts. Where else do you go? You also go to the hut. The hut is the memorial of the lovers and the One who gives the comfort of love. The children who are the lovers celebrate especially the meeting with Baba, the One who gives comfort to the heart, the One who steals all hearts.

BapDada also listens to the various sounds of music which emerge from the children who are the lovers. Some are playing the music of love, whilst for some it is the music of power, for some that of bliss, and for some that of affection. A variety of sounds are heard. Did you hear what it is that BapDada has done today? BapDada also goes on a tour with all of you.

Have you understood the special importance of this day? It is not just the day of remembrance, it is a day of remembrance which is equivalent to power. It isn't the day of separation or disinterest, but it is the day of the coronation ceremony for the responsibility of service. It is the day for receiving the tilak of the consciousness of power. It is the day for the children to be in front, and for the Father to be behind, the day for his thought to take corporeal form.

Today, especially, Brahma Baba smiles seeing the double-foreign children who have given corporeal form to Baba's thoughts of love and invocation. Baba is seeing those loving children. Through the thoughts of love children have come personally in front of Baba. Brahma Baba is seeing especially the children who are the visible fruit of his invocation. For those elevated fruits who are filled with the sweetness of all powers, Baba congratulates them especially and gives them blessings: may you constantly move forward by applying this easy method, may there be constant progress. Do you understand?

At every step, just as children sing the song of Baba's wonder BapDada sings the same song: that of the children's wonder. Those who live in far away lands, those who have gone into far off religions, have come so close. Those who live close by in Abu have gone far away. Those who live by the shore of the Ocean remain thirsty, but the double-foreign children have become the rivers of knowledge who can remove the thirst of others, and so it is the children's wonder. Therefore seeing such fortunate children BapDada is constantly happy. Achha.

To those who with a constant elevated thought, become equal: to those who, by receiving the will of all powers, maintain will power: to the lovers who constantly sing songs in front of the Comforter of hearts: to those who constantly remain steady and unshakeable, like a tower, to those who apply the easy method and move forward, and inspire others to do the same: to those who constantly celebrate the sweet meeting: to all the varieties of children of this land and abroad, together with showering flowers of love, BapDada's love, remembrance and namaste.

Quality of Contentment is the basis of all Achievements.

Today, BapDada is seeing the personality of purity of all His children: the royalty of becoming the embodiment of all achievements and the reality of becoming the embodiment of remembrance of spirituality. All children are shining with the personality of purity and they are wearing a crown of light. On one side Baba is watching His children, who have achieved everything, and on the other side, He is watching the souls who haven't achieved anything. Though they have short-lived attainments, there is not the experience of attainment. They are not content. There is always a desire to gain one thing or another. They always have a deep desire for this or that. They hanker after desires. They are wandering about like thirsty souls trying to achieve something or other on the basis of the body e.g. mental and physical health, wealth, etc. from human beings or from society.

Efforts are being made with three particular things in mind.

1. There is a desire to attain power, power of the mind, of the body, of wealth, of position and of wisdom.
2. Others have desires of devotion, the desire to have experiences of true bhakti, for a moment. Some devotees do have this desire.
3. Having been through the experience of suffering from the Copper Age onwards, and seeing peacelessness and sorrow in this world, and seeing the limited achievements as illusory, some want liberation from this sorrowful world of bondage.

The devotees want devotion, others want power and some want liberation: who will give the experience of peace and happiness to such discontented souls? You are the jewels of contentment who can give them the experience of purity, peace and happiness and a little knowledge as well. You are the children of the merciful Father. As Father has mercy on His children with the thought, "They are children of the Donor and they are asking for such little, temporary achievements", in the same way do you have the feeling of mercy and compassion for such stumbling souls? For your brothers who are wandering about in search of the fulfilment of these short-lived desires, have a vision of mercy and compassion. Be great donors and bestowers of blessings. Become shining jewels of contentment to all.

Nowadays, devotees worship the Mother of Contentment because it is this quality of contentment which is the basis of all achievements. Where there is contentment there is fulfillment, (i.e. there is no trace of anything lacking). On the basis of contentment, there is even the experience of having plenty of the perishable wealth. If there is contentment then even two rupees are like having two million rupees. If someone is a millionaire but has no contentment, then even millions are not millions. They are beggars of their own desires. Desires means restlessness. Desires would never allow you to become a good person, because, if a limited desire is fulfilled, upon its fulfillment it gives birth to many other desires. This is why they are trapped in the cobweb of desires. They want to be free but cannot be free. So make such trapped brothers of yours free from all desires. Make them ignorant of desires for perishable things. They are restless because they are far from their original glory or position. They are not aware that they are children of God, the children of the Donor, i.e. that all achievements are their birthrights. Because they can't remember this they are restless. So remind such souls of their elevated positions. Do you understand what you should do?

All double-foreigner children are going to their respective places. What will they do there? Fill the aprons of all souls with peace and happiness. Become donors and bestowers of blessings. Are you going with this thought? Seeing the courage and the love of the children, BapDada gives multifold love to his loving children in return. The children who live in far countries have recognised the Father and, on the basis of that recognition, they have come closer and are able to achieve everything. And many souls who live in this country but haven't recognised the Father are very far from achievements. This is why BapDada says: continue to progress with great enthusiasm and courage, with the consciousness of all achievements and with contentment. The Bestower of all Achievements, the Fortune-Maker Father, Baba, is always with you.

Achha. To the merciful children of the Merciful Father, who give contentment to others through the treasure of contentment, to children who are the jewels of contentment, who are the embodiments of all achievements and through their good wishes and pure thoughts also make others into the embodiments of all achievements, and others free from all perishable desires, love and remembrance, and namaste to such mighty children.
