

responsible person present who can give him time, because the world is very dirty and people have dirty thoughts as well. This is why you must pay attention to this point. You need a very clear intellect in this. If you have a clear intellect you can catch the vibrations of what aim a person has got.

Dealing with those who try to give fear.

Question: Nowadays thieves come in also, so what should be done at that time?

Answer: At that time, again, you need the power of yoga. For example someone comes with the thought to scare you. You have to have the power of yoga. If you start to speak it will cause damage. This is why you should give him the power of peace. To speak means to add fuel to the fire. Stay in the stage that you don't care. Be an observer, but inside you should have the power of peace and, when you have the power of inner peace, he won't do anything. He will also understand that, "There, they don't care"; otherwise when they come to scare you and you fluctuate, you will also cause fluctuation in them. It is your fear that encourages them. This is why you must never be afraid. At that time be in the powerful stage of an observer. To use that power of being an observer you need to practise. The practice of being an observer is used at that time.

Right use of blessings

Question: What is the meaning of misuse of Baba's blessings?

Answer: Sometimes Baba gives titles to His children. For instance, He says: you are a very serviceable child, you are Baba's special child, a unique child. When He gives such title and they misuse these titles, what do they think? That they have already become so: "I am in this stage", and in this way, considering this, they forget to make future effort. This is called misuse of the blessings, because BapDada gives blessings and instead of using it for service, they use it for the self. To make efforts according to their blessings, and to use them for service is the right use of blessings. To become careless is misuse of blessings.

Who is the Antichrist?

Question: In the bible, it is mentioned that there will be Antichrist. What does this mean?

Answer: Antichrist means those who decrease the influence of his teachings, his religion. For example, even within the Christian religion they are decreasing the value of the religion as well. They do not realise the power of their own religion and so they give power to other religions, or they do not give importance to the teachings. They are called Anti-Christ. For instance, by priests' leading a family life they do not give importance to purity, to celibacy, and they also encourage others to lead a family life, so this is just like they have become Antichrist. Achha !

BapDada's Birthday Greetings

Special birthday greetings for the alokik Brahmin life. In return for the remembrance and greetings, BapDada is, with the garland of hands, greeting each one. All the souls of the world are celebrating this alokik birthday in the form of a commensuration because along with the Father, the children in this Brahmin life have given to all souls of the world, the co-operation of so much peace, happiness, bliss and power. Because of this co-operation from you, they still continue to celebrate the birthday of Shiva and the saligrams with great love.

So to such saligram children both Shiv Baba and Brahma Baba give special greetings. Always gain 'expansion' and continue 'to receive' success through the correct method. Achha. Good morning to all.

(And so with those sweet words, BapDada took leave at 12.30 a.m. The next day, Bhog was offered along with the promise from each one that we should take up the determined thought, not to allow the mind to accept the food of wasteful thoughts in 1984.

Baba responded with some important points to remember. Always remain pure and clean in attitude and thoughts. In any type of upheaval, whether it be the mischief of physical sense organs or whatever situation, remain stable and never have the thoughts of leaving Baba. Go beyond all thoughts. Baba gave three blessings: Be ever eternal, be like Baba, and be the bestower of blessings. In this way Baba decorated each one of us with blessings, and the whole day was spent in a festive mood.)

Om Shanti.

First, the personality of purity. Second, the royalty or reality, thirdly, the closeness of relationships. He saw these three things in every picture. The personality of purity was visible in the form of sparkling light all around the picture. The reality of royalty was visible in the form of a sparkling, cheerful, clean face. The closeness of relationships was visible in the form of a sparkling star with rays of light spreading all around. Some rays of light were radiating very far some were not radiating that far. Those souls who were close to the Father i.e. BapSaman, had rays radiating into the unlimited. They are BapSaman in both light and might. Through these three specialities, BapDada saw the picture of the divine activity of each child. Together with that, from the beginning to the end, that is to say until now, have you remained constantly elevated in all three respects? Or, has it been sometimes one thing and sometimes another? The result was being looked at in each one's picture.

In the same way as you check the physical body through the pulse seeing whether the speed is correct, or whether it is fluctuating, whether it is fast or whether it is slow. By that, the state of health can be known. In the same way, in the picture of each one, the light that travels through the heart from below to up above was seen. Within that, the speed was seen, as to whether the light was travelling at a constant rate, or whether from time to time it was surging. Together with that, from time to time was the colour of the light changing, or did it remain constant? Thirdly, in its progress, was the light blocked anywhere or was it flowing unrestrictedly? With this method the picture of each one's character was being observed. You can also look at your own picture, can't you? Check these three specialities, your personality, your royalty and your closeness in three ways to determine how your picture would be. What must the speed of my light be like?

Anyway, all are numberwise, but in the three specialities and in the three types of movement of your light, check to see whether from the beginning until now you have been constant. Such a picture was of the minority, not of the majority. So, the three speeds of the light and the three specialities make six things to look at. Of the six things, the majority were showing four or five, and a few were showing three.

The shape of the light of the personality of purity in some was simply like a crown surrounding the face. And for some, it surrounded half the body, just as they take photographs of the top half of the body. There were others whose entire body was surrounded by light, that is those who have remained pure in mind, word and deed from the beginning until now, and have not either for themselves or for anyone else allowed, in the form of waste, any impure thought to occur. That is also one who has never inculcated the impure thoughts of anyone's weakness or defect. Have they been Vaishnav (vegetarian) since their birth, in this respect of thoughts being the food for the intellect. Since your birth you have been a Vaishnav, that means through your intellect or through your mind, you have not absorbed any impure, waste thought or defect. This is what is meant by a true Vaishnav or vegetarian, or Bal Brahmachary (virgin). So, in the picture of each one, through the shape of the light, the lines of the personality of purity were seen. It was clearly visible who had purity in all three aspects, the mind, speech and actions. Action includes relationships, connections and everything else. The shape of the light around their picture shone brightly from their forehead all the way to their feet. Do you understand? Are you observing your own picture in the mirror of this knowledge? You must look very closely and see what it is that BapDada saw in my picture. O.K.

There is a long list of souls to meet. In the subtle regions you won't have to come turn by turn, and there is no question of time. Whenever you wish, for however long you wish, and however many wish to meet, it can be done, because it is beyond the limited world. In this physical world there are all kinds of limitations. This is why you have to bind the free One in bondage. Achha.

The teachers are satisfied, aren't they? Each one of you got your full share, didn't you? You, who have been made the instruments, are special souls. BapDada also has special regard for special souls. Anyway, you are my service companions, aren't you? Anyway, all are my companions, but when the instrument understands his or herself to be an instrument then there is success in service. There are some children who are moving ahead with great speed, courage and enthusiasm, but even so, those special souls who have been placed as instruments must be given regard because that means to give regard to the Father. And the return of that regard is to receive the feeling of love in your heart through the Father. Do you understand? In fact, you are not really giving regard to your teacher, but you are taking the return of love in your heart from the Father. Achha?

To the worthy souls who are always deserving of the love in the heart that comes from the Father who is the Comforter of the Heart, to those who are always experiencing themselves as having the personality of purity and the reality of royalty, children who are close and equal, BapDada's love and remembrance and namaste.

28th February, 1984

(Audyakt BapDada Himself, hoisted the flag on the auspicious occasion of 48th Shiva Jayanti which was celebrated in Om Shanti Bhavan. Then He spoke this sweet message for the children.)

Birthday of Brahmins

The children's flag is always high. If the children were not there, what could Baba do? You say that Baba's flag is always high— The song was playing which says, "How great is Shiv Baba's flag!") but Baba says that the children's flag is high. Baba is watching the flag of victory hoisted on everyone's forehead. Not only is this physical flag hoisted, but also the flag of victory is hoisted in everyone's eyes and forehead. It is an eternal flag of victory.

Congratulations on the birthday of alokik Brahmin life and on the birthday of the Brahmins who are co-operative companions following every step of BapDada. In return for the children's love, BapDada is congratulating and garlanding them with His love. This alokik birthday is celebrated by all souls in the world because this is the birthday both of Brahmin life and of the Father Himself. It is the birthday of the Brahmins who have co-operated happily, peacefully and powerfully with the Father. The result of such-cooperation is that not only is Shiv Baba worshipped on this day but also, the souls are worshipped with Him. Shiva Baba and Brahma Baba both congratulate the saligram children. So, congratulations forever.

Continue to progress with the right attitude and become successful forever. Achha. Good morning to all.

The Secrets of Devotion

Today, is the day of Bholanath (the Lord of Innocence). It is the day when the Father descends and it is the unique spiritual birthday of the children as well. The Father has come to celebrate this unique birthday. Bholanath Father loves His innocent children. Innocent means those who are always having an easy nature, pure feelings, have cleanliness and honesty both in mind and actions. In other words, actions are performed on an honest basis. Such innocent children attract even the Father. The Lord of Innocence Father loves such innocent children and always chants their rosary. For many births, all of you have counted Baba's rosary and now at the Confluence Age, the Father Himself chants the rosary of you children in return. They are so innocent and they are loved by the Lord of Innocence. The extent that they are the embodiment of knowledge and power, so the level of their innocence. God loves innocence.

Are you aware of your elevated fortune? You have fascinated even God! You have attracted Him and you have made Him your own. Today is the special day of celebration. Both devotees and children celebrate this day. But the devotees are preparing to invoke the Father whereas you are sitting in front of Him. Baba is watching the devotees' games and He is smiling and is pleased to see the children celebrating the meeting with the Father. On one side, there are the souls who are separated from the Father, i.e. the devotees, and on the other side, next to Him are sitting the easy yogi children. Both kinds are loved by the Father because they love Him. Devotees are no less.

Tomorrow, adopt your angelic costume and go on tour and watch them with the Father. There will be special curiosity not only of the Father but also of you children in your saligram form. See how you, as well as the Father, are being worshipped by the devotees. Even now, there are some devotees who are doing intense bhakti with great love, feeling and honesty. And because of their bhakti, they do experience temporary reward.

Tomorrow is the special day for the devotees to show their love for God. Do you understand? Are you going to celebrate just Baba's birthday or your own birthday as well? Out of the whole kalpa, it is only on this day that the Father and the children's birthday is combined. Can it happen at any other time, on the same day like this? They made it on the same day, but it could never actually be the same year, because the birth of the Father takes place at a different moment from that of the children. But in this case, the two coincide: the Father's birthday and the children's birthday. You say, "We are celebrating Baba's birthday", and He says: He is celebrating His children's birthday. Isn't it a wonderful birthday! You are celebrating both your own birthday and the Father's birthday! just imagine how much love there is in Bholanath Father's heart for the children! Your birthdays are on the same day and that has attracted Baba to you, hasn't it!

The devotees are intoxicated from devotion and you are dancing in great happiness singing the song, "We have found Him, we have met Him!" (This bhakti song is a memorial to you). All your experiences are remembered in the form of memorials. There are so many secrets hidden in them. For instance, in the pictures which depict the worship of Shiva, there are two main specialities shown—one is the 'dot' and the other the 'drop'. In that form of
