

BapDada to the Groups :

Do you constantly remember that we are the special souls of the whole world? Special souls cannot be ordinary even for a second, even in one thought, or even in one word. Constantly remember this and it will make you very powerful. You are powerful souls, special souls. Let there be this intoxication and happiness. Powerful means that whatever is wasteful has been finished. Just as the light of the sun removes the darkness and the dirt, in the same way powerful thoughts finish whatever is wasteful. The account of wasteful finishes then the account of elevated thoughts, elevated actions, elevated words, relationships and contacts constantly increases. Is there this experience that we are powerful souls? Remember this and the account of wasteful finishes. When there is loss of this awareness, then wasteful things begin.

The consciousness automatically creates the stage, therefore, become the embodiment of remembrance, of consciousness. Never forget your own form. Your form is to be the embodiment of remembrance, that is the embodiment of power. Just practise this, and have love for this. A real life is to be constantly lost in this love. Never allow hope and enthusiasm to decrease, under any circumstances, or in any atmosphere. Constantly keep moving forward because Sangam Yuga is the time to obtain greater and greater hope and enthusiasm. If there isn't the experience of hope and enthusiasm at the confluence, then it is never possible again throughout the whole of the Kalpa. If not now then never. The life of a Brahmin is the life of hope and enthusiasm to share with everyone that which you have received. The sign of happiness is to have constant hope and enthusiasm. The one who has hope and enthusiasm will always remain happy. There is the enthusiasm that I have found what I was searching for, what I had wanted.

The soul who remains constantly stable and unshakeable is an elevated soul, like Angad. Remain in this happiness and intoxication. The one who remains constantly lost in the sweetness of One, and stabilizes his stage, is the one who remains steady and unshakeable. Where there is one then there cannot be conflict. Where there are two, then there is division; but where there is one, then the soul is constantly detached and loving. So, do not let the intellect go to a second, but let it be just with the One. Since everything is attained from one, why is it necessary to go in any other direction? You have found such an easy path. "One", is the destination. All attainment is from one, and so, what more do you need? You have found all that you needed, and all that you desired has been fulfilled. Everything has been found by finding the father. Keep dancing with this happiness and sing songs of happiness. If there is division and confusion there is no attainment. Let there be the experience of a whole world within one.

Constantly have the awareness of being a hero player and perform action in this consciousness. If there is the awareness of being the hero player there is such great happiness. The others' is only the limited part but yours is the unlimited part. With whom are you playing a part? With whom are you co-operating? In whose service are you the instrument? Let there be this awareness, and you will be constantly cheerful, constantly complete, constantly double light. At every step there will be progress. What were you before, and now, what have you become? How wonderful am I, and, how wonderful is my fortune. Constantly sing this song and teach this song to others. Now you are drawing the long line of fortune for five thousand years and so dance with happiness.

The Breath of Brahmin Life is the Murlidhar

TODAY, Murlidhar Father, (the one who plays the flute of knowledge) is looking at His children who have love for the murlidhar. He is noticing how much love they have for the Murlidhar

Father as well as love for His murli. How they become intoxicated on hearing the murli. They even forget about their body, become soul conscious and listen to their bodiless Father. They are not even slightly conscious of other bodily beings. In this way they get intoxicated and dance in joy. They consider themselves to be multimillion times fortunate by feeling they are in front of the Bestower of Fortune and get spiritually intoxicated. This spiritual intoxication which they get from the Murlidhar Father increases on hearing the murli and in this way they experience as if they are beyond the consciousness of the body, that is, flying above the earth. With the help of music of murli, that is the depth of murli, they keep on getting many different experiences in the company of Murlidhar Father. Sometimes they go to the soul world and sometimes they go to the subtle regions, sometimes they go to their own kingdom. Sometimes they become a Lighthouse andighthouse and radiate rays of peace and happiness to the unhappy and peaceless souls of the world. They travel in all the three worlds every day but with whom? With the Murlidhar Father. As they keep on listening to the murli they swing on the swing of supersensuous joy. As they get the imperishable blessings from the Murlidhar Father in the form of music of murli, that music turns into medicine which keeps their body and mind healthy. They are intoxicated and carefree Kings or become Kings of Begampur (the land without sorrow). They turn into heirs of self rule. So BapDada was looking at such children who have great love for the murli and listen to it in the right way. Just from one murli itself, some become the kings and some become the subjects. Why? Because success comes only by knowing the right method. As much as they listen to the murli in the right way, that much they become the embodiment of success. One are those who hear the murli the right way, that is the ones who absorb the murli in themselves. The others are those who hear the murli as part of their routine and absorb the murli to some extent and narrate to others to some extent also. There should be no mention of the third type.

Those who hear the murli in its right form and absorb it completely become the embodiments of it. Their each action is the practical form of the murli. Now ask yourself, what number do I possess whether it is the first or the second. The regard for Murlidhar Father means regard for each and every word of the murli. Each version of the murli is the basis for the income of 2500 years, it is the basis for multimillionfold income. So on the basis of that, if even one murli is missed it means the income of multimillions is missed. Each version creates a mine of treasures. So those who hear each version of the murli in the right way and know the depth of account of achievement from it will attain the highest status. Just as the depth of karma philosophy is deep, in the same way the result of hearing the murli accurately and absorbing it is the highest. The breath of Brahmin life is the murli. Just as no breath means no life. So, aren't you such experienced souls? Every day check yourself—whether you heard the murli in the right way keeping its importance. If this method is applied at Amrit Vela in every action then throughout the day you can easily become the embodiment of success. Sumja?

Many new ones have come, is it not? This is why you are being told the method how you can go last so fast. With this you will go very fast. You can make up the time by galloping with this method. BapDada tells you the method, so that no child's complaints remain, why did you call me only at the end? You can go ahead. Go ahead and with the highest method attain the highest number. Hope no complaint will still remain. You are being told the refined way. You have come when everything is nearly ready. You have come when the butter is ready to be eaten so you are saved from at least one effort beforehand, but now you have to eat and digest. It's easy, is it not? Achha!

To those who attain all the achievements by doing things in the right way, those who forget all about their body when they hear the murli from Murlidhar, those who swing in the swing of joy, those who become spiritually intoxicated yogis, those who keep the regard for the Murlidhar and the murli. To such Master Murlidhar children who become the embodiment of the murli and the murlidhar, the corporeal as well as the angelic form BapDada's yaad, pyar and namaste with all the love and affection.

BapDada to Dadi Janki :

Where do you remain the whole day? Do you remember BapDada's title? Though you are here physically but where are you the whole day? You are travelling aren't you? Where-ever Baba goes you are also with Him is it not? Are you the Chakravarti king, that is World Sovereign taking a round of the world at present or will you become one in the future only? In the future you will be the one but even now you are one isn't it? Within how much time do you travel the whole world? How much time to complete it? How many times you travel in the whole world? In how much time is the Lighthouse able to spread its light all over? So how long do you, the Lighthouse, take to travel around the world? Such a world sovereign you are, aren't you? Those who say yes please, for them it is yes sir. So Baba comes and obeys you because you obey Baba. You say O.K., O.K. for everything is it not? This is why Baba replies O.K. to every thought of yours. Achha.

BapDada to Mohini Bahen (New York) :

You experience unique experiences of that unique Father is it not? These unique experiences will glorify the unique Father. The whole Bhagwat can be made of all the experiences. If each one starts writing his experiences it can form a whole book is it not? The book of experiences (Bhagwat) is being automatically prepared. You don't have to write about it but it is being made by itself.

Powers of Concentration 12th Dec. 1983

Today, all have one pure thought and that is to celebrate a meeting isn't it? To be just in one thought at one time, this power of concentration is the highest. This one thought of concentration in the whole group together can do whatever it likes. Wherever there is the power of concentration there all other powers accompany it, this is why the power of concentration of even one elevated soul can do wonders. Where the concentration of many elevated souls in a group is there, what can it not do? Concentration power will automatically lead to clarity of mind and elevated stage. For any new invention concentration power is necessary. Whether it may be an invention of this lokik world or it may be a Spiritual invention. Concentration means to be focusing the self on just one thought or to absorb the self in just one deep thought. Concentration makes one easily relieved from wandering to different paths. As much time one is fixed in this stage of concentration that much time he has easily forgotten the body and the physical world. Why? Because for that period of time, that very thought is his world, or in whatever he is absorbed in. So are you experienced in such a stage of power of concentration?

With the power of concentration you can convey any message to the soul that you want to convey. You can invoke any soul with its help and you can also receive the voice of any soul. Even from a distance you can help any soul Hope you know such type of concentration power. Do you? There must be no one except Father in the thoughts. In One Father alone there should be the experience of all achievements of the world. There should be just one and only one. To attain the stage of concentration through efforts is a different thing but to become the embodiment of concentration that stage is the powerful stage which will give the above results. If that elevated stage is achieved even for one second it makes one experience the stage of Bapsaman (being like Father.) Now make an experiment of such spiritual power. For this, the means of a place of solitude is necessary. With the help of practice, at the end when there will be disturbance and commotion all around you, you will go into the depth of one and experience solitude, but such a practice is needed for a very long time. Then only if there is commotion of all types all around you, you will be able to experience yourselves in a place of solitude. At the present time it is very essential that one becomes an embodiment of the experience through such incognito powers. Now you consider yourselves to be very busy but still you are very free even now. In the future you will become more and more busy. This is why now is the time for different forms of practice and effort for the self. Therefore, in every action use as much time that you get for the upliftment of the self.

Day by day, according to the situation you will get many emergency cases to handle. At present you are giving away medicine casually but very soon you will have to give more and more time and energy for emergency cases. You'll have to handle more cases in a short time. As it is you challenge don't you that this is the world hospital where one can become eternally healthy so where else can the diseased ones go? There will be a line of emergency cases in front of you. At that time what will you do? Won't you give them the blessing to be immortal? With the help of the oxygen of the practice you have done for the self you will have to give them the breath of courage. There will be more hopeless cases coming in front of you in the form of depressed or even disheartened souls from everywhere. To give courage to the hopeless souls is like filling breath in them. For that you will have to give oxygen instantly won't you? Therefore on the basis of practice for the self you will be able to make such souls powerful also. This is why don't say that you have no time because it is now that really you have some free time. Later on you will not even have this much. Just as you tell the people don't wait for free time because you will never get it instead you will have to spare some time. This is what you say don't you? This is why for practice for the self it is not that if you get time you will do it but you will have to take out time for it. Right from the beginning of this task of establishment a special process has been used. Which was that? Which special process has been used? The practice of drops making the ocean. (i.e. Millionaires did not contribute here but the poor.) This is the process isn't it? In the same way where time is concerned this is the process. Whatever time you get, practise and you will become the ocean, that is, the embodiment of the complete practice. If you get even one second free time, accumulate that in the task of practice. By accumulating all such seconds too, it will become so vast won't it? You cannot spare even five minutes otherwise but if you gather the seconds from here and there it will amount to a half an hour. You can practise it also whilst performing actions. For example just as a Chatrak bird (a bird that gathers drops of dew) the seconds from here and there will turn into an hour. Gather each second for that practice and ultimately you will become an embodiment of that practice. Did you hear? Do not be careless in practice for the self. Why? Because at the end the powers in particular will be very essential. You will get marks on the basis of those practical tests. This is why if you want to get a first division, increase the practice for the self. The power of concentration is needed for that as well, therefore practise it. Let there be commotion all around you and you remain in the stage of concentration. To be able to concentrate in a place of silence or when it is an atmosphere of ease, it is very easy but you must go into the depth of One even in the midst of tension all around you. This is the great effort to be done by the Maharathis, that is, the brave ones. For the new children there is a very easy method. Even if you remember one thing and tell only that to all, so it is not at all difficult to remember one thing and tell others is it? Many things will be forgotten but just one thing will not, will it? Be in remembrance of One, keep on praising One, keep on singing the songs of only One and keep giving the introduction of only One. This is easy isn't it? Or is it difficult? Easy isn't it? Achha. Wherever there is just One to remember then automatically the stage becomes stable doesn't it? This is what you want isn't it? Therefore just remember one word. Sing praise of One, remember One, so it is just one word to remember isn't it? So easy it is. For the
