

Essence: Sweet children, you must at least give a little of the wealth of knowledge you have to whoever comes to your door. First, ask them to fill in the form and then give them the introduction of the two fathers.

Question: What magic does the Father, the Magician, do?

Answer: Just see the magic of Baba, the Magician! Such an elevated Father says: I have come to serve you children, but I also become your Child. In return for you children sacrificing everything you have to Me, I sacrifice everything I have to you for twenty-one births. This is such a wonderful thing! The Father teaches you this study with such love. He fulfils all your desires, and yet doesn't take any fees etc. from you. This is why He is called the wise Entertainer.

Song: The rain of knowledge showers on those who are with the Beloved....

Om shanti. This song was about the Beloved and the rain; the rain is showered on those who are with the Beloved; what sort of rain? It is called the rain of knowledge. Who brings the rain of knowledge? The Ocean of Knowledge. Whereas those who composed this song and those who sing it know nothing at all, you are the lucky stars of knowledge who have become the children of the Ocean of Knowledge. You are called the stars of knowledge. You are receiving this knowledge from Baba. There is always an aim and objective in studying; it is a path to one attainment or another. Children, you know that you now have to claim your unlimited inheritance from the unlimited Father. He is the parlokik Father. When some new students come to you, they are afraid of filling in the form. However, you should explain something to them, because they have come to you, and so the poor things should at least receive something or another from you. They are very poor, whereas you have the authority (of knowledge) with you. Since some of you pass fully and some less so, you are numberwise. You have the intoxication that you have countless jewels of knowledge. The Ocean of Knowledge doesn't live in a palace, He lives in a hut. He prefers to live in a hut. Whenever any of them refuse to fill in the form, tell them that that's fine, but that they must write their name so that the senior sister would know who came. "You have come to learn something, so at least write down your name." If they write the name of their physical father, explain to them about the two fathers: One is a physical father and the other is the parlokik (spiritual) Father, the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul. Achcha, tell them: Since you speak of the Father, at least write down His name. The Supreme Father, Supreme Soul is the Father of all. Each and every one has a corporeal and a spiritual Father. You have both fathers on the path of bhakti, whereas in the golden and silver ages you do have a physical father, but there is not even the mention of the spiritual Father. You children must understand these things and then explain them to others. These are such easy things that are being explained to you. The One who is called God the Father resides in Parlok (the land beyond). It enters your intellect that truly no one in the golden and silver ages remembers the parlokik Father. Here, everyone remembers Him. So you have to explain to them: Now that you have written down the name of your physical father, you must now write down the name of your parlokik Father. All living souls remember the parlokik Supreme Father. He is only One. Just as souls are incorporeal, in the same way, He is also incorporeal. He has neither a subtle nor a physical body. He cannot be omnipresent. A physical father could never be omnipresent. Would you receive your inheritance from him if he were omnipresent as they say? So then why do you say that the parlokik Father is omnipresent? Since everyone remembers the spiritual Father so much, they must have received an inheritance from Him. The creation wants an inheritance from its Creator. When you explain such new things, they will understand instantly. You can tell them from your own experience that here, you are told different methods to claim your inheritance from that Father: That Father is the Creator of heaven. You know that the people of Bharat used to have liberation-in-life. They are all now in a life-of-bondage. Only the Father can liberate everyone from their sorrow. This picture with the Trimurti (at the top) and Lakshmi and Narayan (below the Trimurti) is very good. Everyone should have one of these. You should explain: It is true that Lakshmi and Narayan were the original eternal deities of Bharat. They were the masters of the golden age. It is definitely only the parlokik Father, the Creator of heaven, who can give you your inheritance of heaven. If someone doesn't want to fill in the form, then it is easy to have him write this: There are two fathers and you can receive an inheritance from both of them. There is no mention of the life-story of Lakshmi and Narayan or their children, whereas for Krishna, people have portrayed him being carried away in a basket. Achcha, from whom did Lakshmi and Narayan receive their kingdom? It is true that there used to be the original eternal deity kingdom of which Lakshmi and Narayan were the first rulers. Who gave them their inheritance of heaven? Prajapita Brahma is sitting here, and the picture of your inheritance, of Lakshmi and Narayan, is in front of you. Then take them to the picture of the tree and tell them: Here they are doing the intense meditation of Raja Yoga. After this, they become Lakshmi and Narayan. These are such easy things to explain! It will be very easy to explain to the devotees of Lakshmi and Narayan. When people come inside, something or other of the teachings must be given to them. Those prostitutes and native women also have to be uplifted by you but, as yet, you have not acquired sufficient power. Baba has also told you to buzz around your husband with this knowledge. A wife can even ask her husband to tell her his physical father's name. "Achcha, now tell me the name of your parlokik Father whom you have been remembering for birth after birth." You must have received a great deal from Him. Nothing at all is received by remembering Lakshmi and Narayan. The Father comes and serves you so much! Without your asking Him, He teaches you. He says: I come and take you to heaven where all your desires are fulfilled. There is also a picture of Nar-Narayan (Narayan, the human being). It is Lakshmi whom they worship because they think that they can receive wealth from Lakshmi. All of these things belong to the path of devotion. Where would Lakshmi, his wife, get wealth from? She must definitely receive it from her husband. The brahmin priests know none of these things. You children have to explain to them. You now understand what you too used to do before. Previously, you too understood nothing at all, but now know everything very clearly! At the time of Krishna's birthday, people offer him milk in the early morning and rock him in a cradle. Then, in the evening, they offer him puris and rice pudding etc. Why? Does he grow up so quickly in such a short time that he is able to eat puri and rice pudding etc? This too has to be understood. You know that it is Radhe and Krishna who later become Lakshmi and Narayan. Shiv Baba enables them to claim that status. Shiva is never offered rice pudding and puris etc. Only milk is ever offered to Him. Now, Shiv Baba is incorporeal; He has no name or form, so what is the purpose of offering Him milk etc? He is never fed anything because He is incorporeal, whereas Krishna has a mouth with which to eat roti etc. Nothing at all is offered to Shiva. Shankar, not Shiva, is offered food, because Shankar has a subtle form. Both cannot be one. Baba now gives you so much knowledge! These are such incognito things! You gopis belong to Shiv Baba. Shiva is also referred to as the Child. Shiv Baba asks you: Why have you made Shiva your Child? Because an inheritance is given to one's child. Only when you have first sacrificed everything to Shiv Baba will He sacrifice everything to you. It is also true that Baba sacrifices everything to the children, but says: You must sacrifice everything first, for only then will I sacrifice everything to you. To sacrifice yourself means to make Him your Child and sustain Him. These are such wonderful things! You mothers, and men too make Shiva your Child. Shiv Baba is referred to as the Magician; Lakshmi and Narayan are not magicians. These things are very subtle and only a few can understand them. You are given an awareness of this through the divine intellect. You children are experienced in this. Baba too had visions, whereas Mama saw no visions, and yet Mama made the fastest progress of all. Not everyone will have visions. Although many did have such visions, they are not here today. Nothing has a connection with visions. You need to imbibe these sweet things in order to help others imbibe them. Baba is the Magician, the clever Entertainer who entertains you. Magicians are very clever; they can produce tangerines from nowhere; they can cut off a head and then reconnect it. Before, they used to show a great deal of such magic. Now the children have uncovered their secrets. The praise "Your activity is infinite, and Your ways and means are unique" is only sung of the Father. Baba gives so much shrimat. By giving you shrimat He is making you into elevated deities. Only incorporeal Shiv Baba should be called doubly-elevated. Who made Lakshmi and Narayan so elevated? That One must certainly be more elevated than the elevated ones. It is from Baba that we learn how to make human beings into deities. All of you Sitas were very unhappy in the cottage of sorrow in Ravan's jail. There is never any sorrow in the kingdom of Rama. So surely it is the One from whom you receive your inheritance who should be remembered. You do accept that you are a soul. Ask anyone: What is your physical father's name? What is your parlokik Father's name? A father cannot be omnipresent; a father implies an inheritance, and an unlimited inheritance would be received from the unlimited Father. That was snatched away from you by Ravan. This is why it is said that to conquer Maya is to conquer the world. You must gain victory over Maya. The mind is a wild horse, and it tries to throw you off. Baba has now unlocked your intellect, and so you can understand what is right and what is wrong. You can explain that this world is about to change. The huge Mahabharat War in which everyone will be destroyed is definitely going to take place. The Yadavas destroy their own Yadava clan with their missiles. The Pandava clan are to gain victory. However, that scripture says that the five Pandavas were saved but then melted away in the mountains. What happened after that? Nothing at all! Since Raja Yoga was taught, some must have survived. There could not have been complete annihilation. All of you understand these things. Krishna has been shown arriving on a leaf in the ocean but, in fact, that represents Shri Krishna arriving in the palace of the womb. When the womb is like a jail, there is sorrow. The ocean symbolizes a palace-like womb where Krishna stays in great comfort. Birth after birth, you have been listening to the knowledge of the Gita and the Bhagawad and stumbling along the path of devotion. It now takes a second for Baba to make you into the masters of heaven. This is called destiny; but of what? This is said to be the destiny of the drama. This drama is preordained and predestined, but they always refer to it just as destiny because no one understands anything at all. So when someone comes, the first thing to explain is about the two fathers. The spiritual Father is the Creator of heaven, and He gave you your inheritance of heaven. Five thousand years ago heaven was created, but it is now hell. You can now, once again, claim your inheritance of heaven. We are now claiming our inheritance from our unlimited Father. Just as Abraham and Buddha etc. have their own birthplace, so this Bharat is the birthplace of God. Children, you know that Baba has come to give you your inheritance, so you should have a merciful heart. It is easy to explain this to anyone. You must help them to recognise their parlokik Father. The parlokik Father only comes in this age, and it is by remembering Him alone that we are claiming our inheritance of heaven. It is very easy to imbibe these things and then explain them clearly to others. Distribute donations in this way. The parlokik Father gives the kingdom of heaven. He gave it to Lakshmi and Narayan. Who is Father of Lakshmi and Narayan of the sun dynasty? We are explaining to you how the Father who created heaven is now giving them back the kingdom of heaven. Otherwise, what would you do with blessings? Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, to the lucky stars of knowledge, numberwise according to the effort you make, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for Dharna:

1. Use the power of your intellect to understand what is right and what is wrong. Control your horse, your stormy mind, and conquer Maya and thus become the conquerors of the world. Do not be defeated.
2. Make Shiva your Child and sustain Him. Make Him your Heir and sacrifice yourself and everything you have to Him completely.

Blessing: May you be an easy yogi who travels through the three worlds within a second with the vehicle of your intellect.

BapDada invites you to come to the subtle region within a second by switching on your mind. Come and have a picnic and play games under the warm rays of the sun and the cool beams of the moon. All you need to for this is to fill your vehicle of the intellect with doubly-refined fuel. Double-refined fuel means first to have the intoxication of being an incorporeal soul who is a child of God and, secondly, to have the intoxication of being a corporeal being who has all relationships with the Father. This intoxication and happiness will make you into an easy yogi and able to travel to the three worlds.

Slogan: Knowing how to perform elevated action is the pen with which you can draw your line of an elevated fortune.
