

Essence: Sweet children, Baba is the one who donates life to you. He gives you such knowledge that through it you receive the donation of life. You should remember with love the Father who gives you such a donation of life.

Question: On what basis does your treasure-store remain full for twenty-one births?

Answer: The knowledge you children receive at the confluence age is the source of your income for twenty-one births. Through this study, your treasure-store and your happiness overflow for twenty-one births. There is nothing you would want to attain there. Baba donates such knowledge to you that you become completely transformed.

Om shanti. God speaks! You saligrams understand that Shiv Baba has come to teach you. Children, you understand that only He knows the beginning, the middle and the end of the world. Nothing seems new to you children, because you now understand everything. Others have forgotten everything. They have replaced the name of the One who taught them with the name of the one who came first in this study. By studying these things, you can prove them to be true. These matters only relate to the scriptures of Bharat and not to the scriptures of other religions. The mistake is in the scriptures of Bharat. No one, other than you can prove these points. Children, you know that this drama is eternal and that it has to keep repeating. You are making effort to reform all human beings. Once you human beings have become reformed, the world too can be reformed. The golden age is the reformed new world, and the iron age is the unreformed old world. Children, you have to understand this knowledge very clearly. You must imbibe it and become worthy to explain it. You need great refinement for this. Baba refines the knowledge, explains it to you children, and reforms you. The Father says: When you have been reformed I have no need to reform you. You were non-aryans (unreformed) and you must now become aryans (reformed), that is, you must become deities. You will become deities only in the golden age. They were all reformed. It was those who then became unreformed again that worshipped them. It does not occur to anyone's intellect to question why we refer to the deities as reformed. In fact, the human beings who became aryans and reformed, are the same human beings who then become unreformed. The aryans become the non-aryans. However, the Arya Samajis are just a sect. You can understand all of this clearly from the picture of the tree. This picture is the tree of the human world and it is five thousand years old. It is called the kalpa tree. However, people won't understand anything if you just say "kalpa tree." You have to explain to them using this picture of the tree. The scholars just say that the kalpa lasts for hundreds of thousands of years. The Father says: It only lasts for five thousand years. Some of them give it a certain length of time and others give it another length of time. No one is able to explain it fully. They debate the scriptures so much with one another. You have a heart-to-heart conversation. The seminars you have are called spiritual conversations. You have them in order to understand the answers to questions. You speak on topics taken from the things that Baba explains to you. You should also go and listen to the things that other people say and then come back and tell the others the ways in which they have their discussions and debates. The first thing you must explain is who the God of the Gita is. Because people have forgotten God, the Father, their account has gone completely into debit. You children have love for the Father alone! You only remember Baba and no one else. Baba is the One who gives you your donation of life. He donates such knowledge to you that it completely transforms you. Therefore, you should continue to have love for the Father. All of these things that Baba is telling us are new. We used to remember Krishna so much and he gave us nothing at all! Some of us remembered Narayan. Did we gain anything by remembering him? We remained just as poor as we were. The deities were so solvent! Everything has now become artificial. Everything that was valueless before has now become so expensive! There, there was no question of pricing food etc. Everyone had his own property and nothing was unattainable. No one wanted for anything. Baba says: I fill your treasure-stores. I give you such knowledge that your treasure-stores remain filled. You know that this knowledge is your source of income. This knowledge is everything. It is by studying this knowledge that you become so elevated! This study is like a treasure-store. The happiness you attain from studying the things that those teach you is only temporary. Through this study, you attain happiness for twenty-one births. Therefore children, you should be experiencing a great deal of happiness. It does take time to understand all of these things. No one understands it all straightaway. Only a handful emerge out of multimillions. For half a kalpa, human beings have been making one another fall. Only this one Father picks you up and elevates you. They have replaced the name of the One who gives these unlimited teachings with the name of the one who studies them and attains the reward. No one else in the world knows of these things. They just say, "God speaks." They say that He taught and then went away. No scripture will remain of this. In the golden age there are no scriptures. All the scriptures belong to the path of bhakti. The tree is so large. If these branches and twigs of bhakti did not exist it couldn't be called a tree. After the One who teaches these things has taught you, He vanishes. You students who now study them become the masters of the world. These are such new things and yet not a single thing sinks into anyone's intellect. You students are all numberwise. Some of you pass and some of you fail this great unlimited examination. You understand that if you study well now you will study well cycle after cycle. It is those who study well who claim a high status. The status that each one claims is numberwise. The whole class is transferred. You go and are seated numberwise. This knowledge is in the soul. Good or bad sanskaras are also in the soul. The body is just made of dust. The soul cannot be immune to the effect of action. Only you understand who becomes one hundred per cent satopradhan and who becomes one hundred per cent tamopradhan. First of all the poor have to be uplifted. They will come first. Some of the good and close followers of the gurus will also come. Only then will the intellect of the gurus open and be able to understand that their own leaves are emerging. Those who belong here will emerge and come here. The Father comes here and starts the tree anew. All of those who have been converted into other religions will return. They will all return to their own Bharat. They used to reside in Bharat. Those who belong to your branch will all return. As you go further you will begin to understand everything. Now, everywhere abroad, foreigners are being deported. This is because the native people think that they have become very poor whilst all the foreigners have become wealthy. At the end, everyone has to return to his own section; all will return to their own homes. When someone of Bharat died abroad, they used to bring him back to Bharat because Bharat was a first-class, pure land. The new world existed in Bharat. This world cannot be called viceless now. This world is vicious which is why people pray to the Purifier to come and purify them. Although it is the same world, there is no one pure in the world at this time. Pure souls are in the supreme region, in the brahm element. Everyone has to become pure and then return there. Then they will come down here numberwise to play their part. The foundation of the trunk of the original eternal deity religion is now being laid. Then three main tubes (branches) will emerge from this trunk. This is the deity religion trunk; this is not a tube (branch). First, there is the trunk, the foundation and then three tubes (branches) emerge. There are four main religions. The best religion of all is the Brahmin religion. There is a great deal of praise of this. You become as valuable as diamonds here. It is here that the Father teaches you, therefore, you are so great! You Brahmins are far more knowledgeable than the deities. It is a wonder! We take all the knowledge when we go. However, when we are there we will have forgotten it all. You now realize what you used to study before, and what you are studying now. There is a difference in what the people who take the I.C.S. exam study and what they study afterwards. After you have progressed you will hear new points. You will not be told these now. According to the drama, they have to be revealed later on. The intellect understands that when the time for studying knowledge is to end then we will imbibe all of Baba's knowledge. Then Baba's part will have ended and we will play our part in heaven. Your intellect must imbibe this very well. Just continue to churn these things and remember the Father. If you do not have remembrance you claim a low status. By continuing to remember the Father your consciousness of the body will be removed. Sannyasis practise maintaining a stage of silence. They also leave their body whilst practising this. However, their path is a separate one to ours. And so, they have to take another birth, but their followers believe that they have merged with the brahm element and cannot come back. The Father explains: No one can return home yet. It is at the end when all the actors have arrived on the stage, that everyone can then return home. Those plays are limited and perishable, whereas this drama is unlimited and eternal. You should explain very clearly that this drama moves as slowly as a louse. Those people write short plays and make false films. There are only a few good things in them, such as how they showed the incarnation of Vishnu. However, Vishnu does not come from up above. It is Lakshmi and Narayan who come from up above to play their part. Those subtle deities don't come down here from up above. Children, you are now being taught these things by the Father. This is why you are now able to understand all these things. Previously, you too had a degraded intellect. Because the Father now explains, it is as though your brain has opened up. Up to now, whatever you heard from others was of no use to you. In fact, you fell even further down. This is why you make everyone write this down. It is only when they put it into writing and give it to you that you can consider that something has sunk into their intellect. By making them fill in the form when they arrive, you are able to know whether they belong to your clan or not. The main thing is to know the Father. They should understand that definitely the Father teaches us every kalpa. Ask them for how long they have been pure? People do not often reform themselves that quickly! Maya repeatedly grabs them. When she sees that you are weak she swallows you whole. Maya has even swallowed some maharathis. The examples in the scriptures apply to the present time. In the Dilwara temple, the maharathis, the cavalry, and the infantry are shown. Those things you now see are your memorials. When you become this all your worshipping will be blown away. You don't need to bow your head to anyone. You will ask them: Where have they gone? Tell us their biography. Because Baba has enlightened you children you are able to ask such questions. Therefore, remain in this intoxication. Only eight pass with honour. This examination is very great. Each of you souls should examine yourself to see whether you have become pure. Only when you have yoga can your battery be recharged. By having yoga with the Father you can become satopradhan. No tamopradhan soul can return home. This too is in the drama. There is nothing there to cause sorrow. Even the cows there are beautiful. People paint pictures of Krishna with such beautiful cows! The furniture of great men is also beautiful. The milk that the cows give is so good. This is why it is said that rivers of milk flow there. None of that exists here now. It is also said that the cows of Brahma were stolen. It was Baba who stole you and took you back home. Because you have now become knowledgeable you consider this world to be degraded. All of this rubbish is going to be sacrificed in the fire. Once all the rubbish has been removed, everything will be clean. You are now about to go to your kingdom called heaven. Just on hearing this one feels happy. Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father. BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for Dharna:

1. Before you can reform this unreformed old world, you have to reform yourself. By having remembrance of Baba you can refine your intellect.
2. Have heart-to-heart conversations with each other, but do not debate or quarrel over anything. Donate this knowledge to everyone and fill their treasure-store.

Blessing: May you be a special soul and keep your mind and intellect safe from any negative influence by remaining stable in the stage of a point. Normally, you do everything according to the season. When it is the rainy season, you pay attention to keep an umbrella and a raincoat etc. to hand. When it is cold, you keep warm clothes with you. In the same way, at this time Maya is performing the special task of creating negative feelings and motives in your mind and intellect. Therefore, adopt special means of safety. The easy way to do this is to stabilise yourself in the stage of a point. To apply a full-stop instead of an exclamation or question mark means to become a special soul.

Slogan: Limited sanskaras cannot emerge even in the dreams of those who have an unlimited heart.
