Morning Murli

Om Shanti

BapDada

Madhuban

Essence: Sweet children, you now have to return home. Therefore, become detached from your old body and the old world. In order to recharge your battery remain seated in the furnace of yoga.

Question: Which children, whilst sitting in yoga, receive a current from Baba?

Answer: Those whose intellect doesn't wander outside. Baba gives a current to the children who consider themselves to be souls and remember Him. Baba gives such children sakash (the current of light and might). Children, it is your duty to catch the current that Baba gives you because it is only through this current that the battery of your soul can be recharged; that you gain strength and your sins can be destroyed. This is what is meant by the fire of yoga. You must practice this.

Om shanti. God speaks and says: Now children must also remember the home. Only Baba tells you about the home and the kingdom. Children, you have to understand these things. You understand where the home of souls is. You also understand what the soul is. You also have to clearly understand that Baba has come to teach you. Where does Baba come from? From the Supreme Abode (Paramdham). It wouldn't be said that He comes from the pure world in order to create the pure world. No, Baba says: I have not come from the pure world of the golden age, I have come from the home. You children come down here from that home to play your part. I also come from the home every five thousand years, according to the drama-plan. I reside at home in Paramdham. Baba explains in a very simple way, as though He has just come from a neighbouring town. He says: Just as you have come down to play your part, so, according to the drama, I have also come from there to play My part. I am knowledge-full. According to the drama-plan I know all of these aspects. Cycle after cycle, after you become completely ugly by sitting on the pyre of lust, I tell you these same things. People become totally burnt and ugly in a fire. You have also become burnt and ugly. The power that you had when you were satopradhan completely vanished. The battery of the soul shouldn't be allowed to become completely discharged, otherwise the motor car would come to a standstill. Now the time has come when everyone's battery is discharged. Baba says: I have come now according to the drama, to recharge the battery of those who belong to the original eternal deity religion. Your battery will definitely be recharged but it isn't recharged simply by coming here in the morning. No, your battery must be charged by staying in remembrance as you walk and as you move around. Previously, you souls were pure and satopradhan. You were real gold, real ornaments. You are now tamopradhan. The soul is now to become satopradhan once again and receive a pure body. This is a very easy furnace in which to become pure. This can also be called a yoga furnace. Gold is placed in a furnace. This is the furnace to purify gold, the furnace of remembering Baba. You must definitely become pure. If you don't stay in remembrance you cannot become so pure. You also have to settle your karmic accounts because this is now the time of settlement. Everyone has to return home. If remembrance of the home is stable in the intellect, no one else can enter the intellect. The sannyasis consider the brahm element to be God. They don't consider it to be their home. You are the actors of this unlimited drama, and so you understand this drama very clearly. Baba has explained that the cycle of eighty-four births is now ending. You now have to return home. It is because souls have become impure that they call out to Baba to come and purify them and take them home. Otherwise, you cannot return home. Children, Baba sits here and explains all of these matters to you. Children, you also understand that this is why people refer to Baba as the Father. They also refer to Him as the Teacher. People think that Krishna was the Teacher. You children understand that Krishna himself was a student in the golden age. Krishna never became anyone's teacher. Neither did he study and then become a Teacher; no! Children, you understand the story of Krishna's eighty-four births, from his childhood to maturity. Those who consider Krishna to be God say "Wherever I look, I only see Krishna". The devotees of Rama say "Wherever I look, there is only Rama". The whole thread of devotion is a complete tangle. You now know the famous, ancient yoga and knowledge of Bharat. People don't know anything. It is only Baba, the Ocean of Knowledge who gives this knowledge and He only gives it to you children. Therefore, you are also called oceans of knowledge, but numberwise, according to effort you make. Should you be called an ocean or a river? You are the Ganges of knowledge. People become confused about this also. It is absolutely accurate to say that you are master oceans of knowledge. Baba teaches you children. There is no question of males or females in this. All you souls claim your inheritance, and this is why Baba says: Become soul conscious! Just as I, the Supreme Soul, am the Ocean of Knowledge, in the same way, you are also oceans of knowledge. I am called the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul. My duty is the highest of all. A king and queen also have a very high duty. You have been given a high duty as well. Here, you souls understand that you are studying with the Supreme Soul, and that you must become soul conscious. All of you are brothers. Baba makes so much effort! You souls are now receiving this knowledge. When you go there, your reward will continue for a long time. Everyone there has brotherly love. There should also be very good brotherly love here. It should not be that to some you give regard but not to others. Although those people say that the Hindus and the Muslims are brothers they do not give one another that regard. It is accurate to say that you are all brothers, not brothers and sisters. This is the brotherhood of souls who have come here to play their part. There also, you reside as brothers. You all definitely reside as brothers in that home. These costumes and the consciousness of brother and sister have to be renounced here. Only Baba gives the knowledge of brotherhood. Souls reside at the centre of the forehead. That is the place on which you have to focus your vision. I, the soul, am sitting here on the throne of this body. The immortal soul sits on the throne. Death never comes to the soul. Everyone's throne is in the centre of their forehead. The immortal soul is sitting on this throne. This is a very deep matter and has to be understood. When a soul enters the body of a baby, it sits at the centre of its forehead. Then that small throne grows larger. Here, souls have to experience suffering in the womb. They then repent and promise that they will never become sinful again, but in fact souls become sinful for half the cycle. You souls are now being made pure by Baba. You give everything – your mind, body and wealth to Baba. No one else knows how to give such a large donation. The One who gives and takes donations comes in Bharat. These are the subtle matters and have to be understood. Bharat is the eternal land. All other lands are going to be destroyed. This is predestined in the drama. It is only in your intellect. No one else in the world knows this. It is good to refer to this as knowledge. Knowledge is your source of income. You earn a great deal of income through the knowledge. He gives you the knowledge of how to remember Him and also the knowledge of the world cycle. It is this that requires effort. You souls now have to return home, and this is why you must become detached from the old world and your old body. Whatever you see, and that includes your body, is going to be destroyed. You are now going to be transferred. Only Baba can tell you these matters. The examination you have to take is very big. Baba is teaching you everything. There is no need for any books etc. in this. Just remember Baba! Baba teaches you the cycle of eighty-four births. No one else knows the duration of this drama. They are all in immense darkness. You have now woken up. The people of other religions don't wake up. You try so hard to awaken them, but they don't have the faith that God has come and is teaching you. He must definitely enter someone. Baba now advises you souls what to do, so that people can understand. It is very easy for you, but you are all numberwise. Students at school are numberwise also. They are numberwise as to how much they study. A huge kingdom is being created through this study. You should make so much effort that you become a ruler. Cycle after cycle you will continue to make the effort that you are making at this time. This is called the Godly lottery. In the old world some win a small lottery and others win a large lottery. This lottery is for the kingdom. The lottery that you souls win here is according to what you do. Some of you will become poor, some become wealthy. Children, it's at this time that you win the complete lottery from Baba. Everything depends on the effort you make at this time. The number one effort you make is of remembrance. You must first of all become clean through the power of yoga. You understand that to whatever extent you remember Baba, to that extent you will imbibe knowledge and also will be able to explain to many others and create many subjects. No matter what religion people may belong to, whenever you meet them, you must give them Baba's introduction. As you progress, they will understand that destruction is just ahead. People will develop disinterest at the time of destruction. At that time all you will have to say is "You are a soul". Who says "God the Father?" It is souls that say this. Now, Baba says to the souls: I have become your Guide to take you back to the land of liberation. Souls can never be destroyed, nor is there any question of them attaining eternal liberation. Each soul has to play his own role. All souls are immortal and can never be destroyed. However, before you can return home, your sins have to be destroyed by remembering Baba. Only then can you return home. Ultimately, the great sannyasis will also understand that because everyone has to return home. Everyone's intellect will be stamped with your message. This is why people remember God and say: Oh God! Your game is wonderful! Your directions are wonderful! Therefore, He must definitely have given directions and not keep them to Himself. Salvation is granted through His directions and so He would have to give others directions. And yet they say: Only You know Your ways and means! We have no direction or destination. The question of this doesn't arise. Baba says: You receive salvation by following this elevated direction. You now understand that Baba teaches you everything He knows. You say that you recognise Baba whereas others simply remember and say: "Only You know Your ways and means". You do not say this. All of this knowledge will enter your intellect, but this also does takes some time. As yet no one has become complete! When you do become complete, you will not remain here. No one can return yet. Everyone still has to make effort. At the start, when Baba had intense distaste for the old world he realised that he was to become one with a double-crown. Baba showed me this according to the drama and I instantly became happy about it. Because of that happiness I renounced everything. As well as having a vision of the four-armed image of Vishnu, there was also a vision of destruction. I realised that I was to receive the kingdom, and that destruction would be taking place in just a few days. The intoxication rose very high. It is understood that this is right. The kingdom will be created and many will become part of it. What would I do there on my own if I went alone? All the knowledge of this is now being given. At the start the degree of happiness rose very high. Everyone now has to make effort. You are sitting here in order to make effort. You have to sit in remembrance early in the morning. It is very good to sit in remembrance. You understand that Baba has come. Has Baba come or has Dada come? Only the container of the molasses knows the sweetness of the molasses. Baba continues to look at each child. He gives sakash to each one. This is the fire of yoga. It is in this fire of yoga that your sins can be incinerated. It is as though Baba sits here and gives everyone light. He gives a searchlight to each soul. Baba says: I sit here and give a current to all you souls to fill you all with power. If your intellect is wandering around outside, you won't be able to catch the current. If the intellect of you souls continues to wander around somewhere or another, what would you receive? It is said that you will receive according to whatever you give. If you give love, you will accordingly receive love in return. If your intellect is wandering around outside, your battery cannot be recharged. Baba comes to recharge your battery. His duty is to serve you. Children, only you would know whether you accept this service or not. Baba tells you what thoughts you should have as you sit here. I am the Supreme Soul. You must have yoga with Me, the Battery, so that I can give you sakash (a current of light and might). I give sakash lovingly to each of you. When you sit here, you have to remember Baba. Baba says: I give sakash to each soul. I sit in front of you and give you light. You do not do this. Those of you who are to catch that light will do so and your battery will be recharged. Day by day, Baba continues to tell you tactics to use. It all depends on how much you study. You are being given very rich nourishment. However, some of you are not able to digest it. This is a huge lottery. This is the lottery that you receive for birth after birth and kalpa after kalpa. You must pay full attention to this. You are receiving a current from Baba. Baba is sitting at the centre of this forehead next to this one. You must consider yourself to be a soul and remember Baba, not Brahma. You sit here to have yoga with that One. Even whilst seeing this one, you must look at that One. It is a question of the soul. Achcha.

To you sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrances and good morning from your Mother, your Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to you spiritual children.

Essence for Dharna:

1. Receive a searchlight from Baba early in the morning in order to cleanse your soul. Stop your intellect from having yoga outside and link it to this one Baba and catch His current.
2. Maintain true brotherly love and give regard to everyone. The soul, the brother, is present on the immortal throne. Talk to others in the consciousness of them being seated at the centre of the forehead.

Blessing: May you be a constantly loving and carefree soul and thereby attain the blessings of the flying stage and have victory guaranteed.

Loving children receive from Baba the blessing of a constantly flying stage. With the flying stage, you can reach BapDada in one second. Then no matter in what form Maya comes to you, she won't even be able to touch you. Maya's shadow cannot come under God's canopy. Your love will transform labour into entertainment. Love enables you to experience your victorious stage to be guaranteed. Loving children remain carefree at every moment.

Slogan: A true gopi is one who forgets the consciousness of oneself and even one's body on hearing the murli of the Murlidhar
