

- Essence: Sweet children, Baba is the Bestower, therefore, you do not need to ask Him for anything. There is a saying: It is better to die than ask for anything.
- Question: What should you constantly remain aware of so that you never worry or become concerned about anything?
- Answer: Whatever has happened, whether good or bad, is fixed in the drama. When the cycle has made a full rotation it will repeat again. Whatever efforts you make, you receive a status accordingly. By remaining aware of this you will never worry or be concerned about anything. Baba's direction is: Children, do not remember the past. Do not listen to or speak wrong things. You should neither repeat nor even think of anything that has passed.

Om shanti. The spiritual Father sits here and explains to you spiritual children. The spiritual Father is called the Bestower. He gives everything to the children automatically. He comes to make you into the masters of the world. Children, He explains to you how to become this, and continues to give you directions. After all, He is the Bestower, and so He continues to give automatically. It is better to die than ask for anything. You do not have to ask for anything. Some children continue to ask for power, blessings or for mercy etc. When you were on the path of bhakti, you kept asking Him for things and continued to beat your heads all the time, as you gradually climbed down the ladder. There is now no need to ask Him for anything. Baba says: Follow My directions. One of these directions is: Never remember the past. Whatever happened in the drama is now the past. Don't think about it, don't even repeat it! Baba simply says: Constantly remember Me alone. Children, Baba gives you directions; He gives you shrimat, and it is your duty to follow it. Shrimat is the most elevated direction of all. No matter how many questions and answers you have, Baba will simply explain in a few words, that's all! I am the Purifier. Remember Me and your sins will be destroyed. Are any of you ever given directions to remember someone else? You simply have to remember the Father; you do not have to shout or cry out in distress. Simply keep the memory of the unlimited Father with you. What other direction does He give you? Remember the cycle of eighty-four births in order to become deities. You have been praising the deities for half a kalpa. (There was the sound of a baby crying.) Every centre should be given the direction that no one is to bring a baby here. They should make some other arrangements for them. Those who wish to claim their inheritance from the Father should make all the necessary arrangements themselves. This university belongs to the spiritual Father. There is no need to bring little children here. The duty of you teachers is to bring serviceable and worthy children here to be refreshed. Whether you bring an important person or an ordinary person here, this is still a university. Those who bring little children here don't realise that this is a university. The main thing to understand is that this is a university. The students here have to be very good and sensible. Those who are not yet firm students will cause disturbances. Their intellect will wander here and there because they don't have remembrance of the Father. Not only will they be unable to stay in remembrance, but they will also cause harm to others. If you bring your babies here, it is your loss! Some people do not realise that this is God the Father's University where you come to change from ordinary human beings into deities. Baba says: you may live at home with your children and look after them. You don't need to stay a week here; even three or four days are enough. This knowledge is very easy. You have to recognise the Father. By recognising the unlimited Father you will receive an unlimited inheritance. What inheritance? The unlimited sovereignty of the world. Don't think that there's no result after service is done at the exhibitions and the museums. Countless subjects are created through these. The three clans: the Brahmin, the sun dynasty and the moon dynasty are all being created here. Therefore, this is a very big university. The unlimited Father is teaching you. Your intellects have to become completely filled with knowledge. However, Baba is now in an ordinary body and He teaches you in a simple way. This is why people do not like it and wonder whether this is what God the Father's University is like! Baba says: I am the Lord of the Poor and I only teach the poor. The wealthy do not have the strength to come and study here. They only want to keep their palaces etc. in their intellect. The poor will become rich, and the rich will become poor. This is the law. Are donations ever given to the wealthy? This too is a donation; the donation of the imperishable jewels of knowledge. The wealthy just can't take this donation, it will not sit in their intellects. They simply remain trapped in their limited creations and their wealth etc. For them, it is as though heaven is here now. They say: We do not need another heaven. When an important person dies, they say that he has gone to heaven. They themselves say that he has gone to heaven, so they must definitely be in hell now. However, they have such a stone intellect that they do not even understand what hell is. This university of yours is so large! Baba says: I only come and teach those whose intellects have been locked. When Baba comes, He opens the lock on your intellect. Baba Himself gives you directions on how to open the lock on your intellect. You do not need to ask the Father for anything. You just need to have faith in Him. He is the most beloved Baba whom we used to remember on the path of bhakti. The One whom you remembered has now definitely come. You remember something in order to repeat it. Children, when Baba comes He only explains to you. You children then have to go out and explain to others that the Father has come. What does He tell us? He says: Children, all of you are impure. Only I am able to come and make you pure. All of you souls have become impure, and so you must now remember Me alone, the Purifier Father. Remember Me, the Supreme Soul. There is no need to ask Me for anything in this. You have been asking for half a kalpa on the path of bhakti and yet you received nothing. You must now stop asking. I Myself will give you everything you need. You are given your inheritance by belonging to Baba anyway. The mature children very quickly understand what the Father says. The Father's inheritance is the kingdom of heaven for twenty-one generations. You know that when you are residing in hell you just receive temporary happiness by donating in the name of God and performing charity. People put a little aside for charitable causes. Mostly it's businessmen who do this. And so, those of you who are businessmen will say that they have come to do business with the Father. A father's children do business with him, they take their father's property and then feed the departed soul from that. They give donations and remain busy doing charity, such as building dharamshalas (guest houses for the pilgrims) and temples etc. as memorials to their father. They have his name engraved on them, because they would definitely do something in memory of the one from whom they received their property. So, that too is a business deal. All of those things are worldly matters. Now Baba says: Do not remember the past. Do not listen to any wrong things. If people ask you topsy-turvy questions, tell them: There is no need to go into those matters, you must first of all just remember the Father. The ancient yoga of

Bharat is very well known. To the extent that you remember Baba and imbibe divine virtues, you will accordingly claim a high status. This is a university. Your aim and object is clearly in front of you. You have to make effort to become like them. You must imbibe their divine virtues. You must not make anyone unhappy in any way. It can be recognised that you are the children of the Father who is the Bestower of Happiness and the Remover of Sorrow. This can be seen from the service you do. Many new ones also come here. Some of those who come here for ten to twelve days go faster than those who have been here for twenty-five to thirty years! Children, you have to make others become like yourselves. Unless you become a Brahmin, you cannot become a deity. Brahma is the great-great-grandfather. There is praise of those who were here in the past and they will definitely come again. All the things for which the festivals are celebrated, definitely did take place and they will definitely take place again. It is at this time that all the origins of the festivals take place. Baba continues to explain to you the significance of Raksha Bandhan etc. You are Baba's children, so you must definitely become pure. You called out to Baba, the Purifier to come, and so Baba has come to show you the path. Those who have been claiming their inheritance kalpa after kalpa are the ones who will continue to move along accurately. You are able to watch this as observers. BapDada also watches as an observer to see to what extent a particular one will claim a high status, and what the character of that one is like. This Teacher knows everything. He knows how many you have made like yourself and for how long you stay in remembrance. First of all, it should remain in your intellect that this is God the Father's University. A university is normally built to give knowledge. There are limited universities for ordinary humans; this one is unlimited. Only Baba is able to end degradation and bring about salvation. Only Baba can change hell into heaven. Baba keeps His vision on all the souls. He has to benefit each and everyone; they all have to be taken back home. Baba doesn't just remember you. He also remembers all the souls of the entire world. There, only children are taught. You also understand that everyone will return home numberwise, just as they came down here numberwise. All souls arrive here numberwise. It has been explained to you that you all return numberwise. Whatever happened a cycle ago is what will happen again. This too is explained to you. You will then go to the new world. You are those who go to the new world numberwise; so you are the ones to whom all of this knowledge is being explained. By knowing Baba, you understand your own religion as well as the whole tree of all the religions. There is no need to ask for anything in this. You don't even need to ask for blessings. Some write: Baba, have mercy on us! Forgive us! Baba will do no such thing! Baba has come to show you the path. My part in the drama is just to purify everyone. I play My part the way I have done so kalpa after kalpa. Whatever has happened, whether good or bad, was all in the drama. There is no need to worry about anything. You have to continue to make progress. This drama is unlimited. When the cycle has made a complete rotation it will repeat again. The status that each of you claims will be according to the efforts you have made. There is no need to ask for anything. You have been asking a lot on the path of bhakti. You used up all your money. All of that is fixed in the drama. Baba simply explains it to you. For half a kalpa you have been worshipping and studying the scriptures and incurring so much expense. Now, you no longer need to spend money. Baba is the Bestower. The Bestower does not need anything. He comes in order to bestow. Don't think that you have given anything to Shiv Baba. You should rather think that you have received so much from Shiv Baba. You come here to take. Students go to a teacher in order to take knowledge. What you took from your physical father, teacher and satguru put you into loss. Children you now have to follow shrimat; only then will you be able to claim a high status. Shiv Baba is doubly elevated. He is Shri, Shri. You become singly Shri. The word 'Shri' is used for Shri Lakshmi and Shri Narayan. Shri Lakshmi and Shri Narayan are two separate beings, whereas Vishnu is called Shri Shri because the two of them are combined. However, who creates the two of them? Only the One who is Shri Shri. No one else is Shri, Shri. Nowadays, people have names such as Shri Lakshmi Narayan, Shri Sita Ram. So, children you must imbibe all of this and remain happy. Nowadays, they also hold spiritual conferences, but they don't understand the meaning of the word, "spiritual". No one, except the One, can give spiritual knowledge. Baba is the Father of all the spirits. He is known as the Spiritual One. They even refer to philosophy as something spiritual. You understand that this is a jungle in which everyone continues to make one another unhappy. You understand that your religion is the highest deity religion of non-violence that has been remembered. There, there is no beating. Anger too is violence, even if you only call it semi-violence. Here, you have to become completely non-violent. There should be nothing bad in your thoughts, words or actions. If any of you work in the police force, you should work with tact. As much as possible, you should do everything with love. Baba has his own experience. He gets his work done with love. It requires a great deal of tact to explain to others, with love, how there is a hundred-fold punishment in return for one mistake. Achcha.

- To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for Dharna:

1. You are the children of Baba, the Remover of Sorrow and the Bestower of Happiness. Therefore, do not make anyone unhappy. Keep your aim and object in front of you and imbibe divine virtues. Do the service of making others the same as you.
2. Understand that each one plays a part in the drama and don't worry about anything that's happened in the past. Pay attention that nothing bad happens in your thoughts, words and actions and to being doubly non-violent.

Blessing: May you remain a double-light angel and remain free from the attractions of your old sanskars and the old world.

To be an angel means to remain free from the attractions of the old world. You should not be attracted by the relationship of bodily beings, your own body or any physical object. In the same way, you should remain free from your old sanskars, that is, there should be none of the old attractions of thoughts, attitude or words. When you become free from all of those attractions and from wasting time in wasteful company or atmosphere you will be said to be a double-light angel.

Slogan: One who forgives others is merciful and continues to give blessings to others.
