

Essence: Sweet children, the most divine virtue of all is to remain silent. Do not make any unnecessary noise and speak sweetly. You children are now to go from this 'talkie' world into the 'movie' world and then from this to the world of silence. Therefore, do not make any unnecessary noise.

Question: When you souls imbibe which main aspect of dharna will all the divine virtues automatically enter you?

Answer: The main aspect of dharna is purity. Deities are pure. This is why they have divine virtues. No one in this world can have divine virtues. How could there be divine virtues in the kingdom of Ravan? You royal children are now imbibing divine virtues.

Song: No one is as unique as the Innocent Lord.

Om shanti. You children now understand that there is only the One who reforms that which has been spoiled. People go to many others on the path of bhakti. They go on so many pilgrimages etc. There is only One who reforms that which has been spoiled, only One who purifies the impure. There is also only the One Bestower of Salvation, the Guide, and the Liberator. This is the praise of Him. However, because there are innumerable human beings, many religions and sects and isms and scriptures, people seek God on many paths. They go to satsangs for peace and happiness. Those who do not go to these satsangs, remain intoxicated with Maya. You children know that it is now the end of the iron age. People do not know when the golden age will come or what age it is now. Any of you children can explain this. There is definitely happiness in the new world and sorrow in the old world. There are many people and many religions in this old world. You can explain to anyone that the golden age existed in the past and that this is now the iron age. There was only the one original eternal deity religion in the golden age. No other religions existed there. Baba has already told you many times, and He is telling you again: Show the contrast between the old world and the new world to anyone who comes. It doesn't matter what they say. Some say that the duration of each cycle is ten thousand years and others say that it is thirty thousand years. There are innumerable opinions. They now have the ideas of the scripture. There are many scriptures and many ideas; they are the ideas of human beings. The scriptures are written by ordinary human beings. Deities do not write them. In the golden age there is the deity religion. Therefore, they are not called human beings. Tell all of this to your friends and relatives you meet. These things have to be thought about. In the golden age there are very few people in the new world, whereas the population of the old world has grown so much. In the golden age there is only the one deity religion, and there are very few human beings. Only the deities have divine virtues; ordinary human beings do not have them. This is why human beings give salutations to the deities, why they sing songs of praise to deities. They know that the deities reside in heaven, and that they themselves are living in hell, in this iron age. Human beings of today cannot have divine virtues. If someone says that so-and-so is very good and has divine virtues, tell him: No; only deities have divine virtues. This is because only they are pure. Here, because no one is pure, no one can have divine virtues. This is Ravan's devilish kingdom. The deities with divine virtues belong to the new tree. Then the tree becomes old. No one with divine virtues can exist in Ravan's kingdom. In the golden age there is the family path of the original eternal deity religion. Those on the family path are praised. In the golden age we were pure deities. The path of renunciation did not exist there. You receive so many points. However, all these points cannot stay in anyone's intellect. You fail because you forget the points. You do not imbibe divine virtues. This one divine virtue is very good: not to talk a lot to anyone unnecessarily and to speak sweetly and less because you children now have to go from this 'talkie' world into the 'movie' world and then into the world of silence. Therefore, stop talking too much! Someone who speaks very little and very softly is understood to be from a royal family. Let there constantly be jewels emerging from your mouth. No matter to whom you are speaking, even if he is a sannyasi, explain to him the contrast between the old world and the new world. In the golden age there were deities with divine virtues. That was the household path. The religion of you sannyasis is totally separate. Nevertheless, you should at least understand that the new world was satopradhan, and that it is now tamopradhan. When souls become tamopradhan, they receive a tamopradhan body. This is now the impure world. Everyone is called impure. That is the pursatopradhan world. That new world then becomes old. At present, all humans are atheists. This is why there is so much chaos. Because they do not know their Lord, they continue to fight and battle. Those who know the Creator and creation are called theists. Those who belong to the religion of renunciation do not know the new world. Therefore, they do not even go there. Baba has explained that all souls are at present tamopradhan. Who could now make all souls satopradhan? Only the Father can do this. There are very few people in the satopradhan world. At that time, all the rest are in the land of liberation. That is the element of brahm where souls reside. It is called Brahmmand. Souls are imperishable. This is the eternal drama in which all souls have a role to perform. No one can tell you when this play began. This drama is eternal. Baba has come simply to change the old world into a new one. It isn't that Baba creates a new world. People only say this to Him when they are impure. No one in the golden age prays, because that world is pure. Ravan makes you impure and then the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, comes and makes you pure. The day of Brahma and the night of Brahma are said to be half and half. The day dawns through knowledge. There is no ignorance there. The path of bhakti is called the path of the darkness of ignorance. Whilst taking rebirth the deities, enter darkness. It is shown in the picture of the ladder how people go through the stages of sato, rajo and tamo. Everyone is now in the state of total decay. Baba comes in order to transfer, to change, human beings into deities. When the deities exist, no human beings with devilish traits exist. Now, who would make those with devilish traits into those with divine virtues? There are now many religions and many people. They continue to battle and fight. In the golden age there is only the one religion. There is no question of sorrow there. Many tall stories are written in the scriptures. People have been studying them for birth after birth. Baba says: All of those scriptures belong to the path of bhakti. No one can meet Me through them. I, Myself, have to come and grant salvation to all. No one can return home just like that. Sit them down and patiently explain to them. There shouldn't be any arguing. Those people have their own ego. Sages and holymen have their followers with them. They would instantly say that he has had the magic of the Brahma Kumaris cast on him. A sensible person would say that these matters are worth thinking about. All types of people come to the exhibitions and fairs. When one of them comes to your exhibition, patiently explain to him just like Baba explains to you with so much patience! Do not speak too loudly. Many people gather together at exhibitions. Therefore, tell them: Allow yourself some time and come on your own and understand. I will tell you the secrets of the Creator and creation. Only Baba, the Creator, is able to explain to you the beginning, the middle and the end of creation. Everyone else simply says, "neti, neti" (neither this nor that). Not a single person can return yet. Once salvation has been received through knowledge, there is no further need of knowledge. No one but the Father can explain this knowledge to you. When a mature person explains, people think that he is experienced, that he must have gone to satsangs etc. When a child explains, they think: What does this one know? Therefore, such people can be influenced by you mature ones. Baba only comes in this one age to explain this knowledge to you. He makes you satopradhan from tamopradhan. If you mothers sit with others and explain to people they can become happy. Tell them: Baba, the Ocean of Knowledge, has given the urn of nectar to us mothers. We then explain to others. Continue to speak with a lot of humility. Only Shiva is the Ocean of Knowledge and He gives that knowledge to us. He says: I open the gates of liberation and liberation in life through you mothers. No one else can open them. We are all studying with the Supreme Soul. It is not a human being teaching us. Only the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, is the Ocean of Knowledge. All of you are oceans of bhakti. You are authorities of bhakti, not knowledge. Only the One has the authority of knowledge. People sing songs of praise of the One alone. He is the Highest on High. We only believe in Him. It is because He teaches us through the body of Brahma that the Brahma Kumars and Kumaris are remembered. Sit with them and explain very sweetly in this way. No matter how educated someone is, he will still ask questions. First of all, make them have faith in the Father: Tell them first of all, understand whether the Father is the Creator or not. Only Shiv Baba is the Creator of all. He is the Ocean of Knowledge. He is the Father, Teacher and Guru. The intellect should have the faith that only the Father, the Creator, gives us the knowledge of the beginning, the middle and the end of creation. Only He explains to us. He definitely only explains to us that which is right. No one can then raise any questions. Baba only comes at the confluence age. He simply says: Remember Me and your sins will be burnt away. My task is to purify the impure. The world is now tamopradhan. No one can receive liberation in life until the Purifier Father comes. They all go to bathe in the Ganges. Therefore, they must all be impure. I do not tell you to bathe in the Ganges. I say: remember Me alone constantly! I am the Beloved of all you lovers. Everyone remembers the one Beloved. Only the one Father is the Creator of creation. He says: Become soul conscious and remember Me and your sins will be absolved in this fire of yoga. It is only at this time, when the old world has to be transformed, that Baba teaches this yoga. Destruction is standing ahead. We are now becoming deities. Baba illustrates everything so easily! Some of you who listen directly to the Father are not stable when you listen. Your intellect keeps running in other directions. The same thing happens in bhakti. The whole day is wasted. Their intellect also wanders here and there during the time they had kept aside for bhakti. The same thing probably happens to everyone because of Maya. Some children go into trance whilst sitting in front of the Father. That time too is wasted. No income is accumulated by doing that. Baba says: Stay in remembrance and your sins will be absolved. When you go into trance you don't have remembrance of Baba in your intellect. There is a lot of confusion in these matters. Do not even close your eyes. Sit in remembrance. Do not be afraid to leave your eyes open!. Keep your eyes open and keep the remembrance of the Beloved in your intellect. When you close your eyes, it means you have become blind. That is not the system here. Baba says: Sit in remembrance! He does not tell you to close your eyes. If you close your eyes and let your shoulders droop, how would Baba be able to see you? Never close your eyes! If you close your eyes, there must be something wrong. You must be remembering someone else. Baba says: If you remember your friends and relatives, you can't be a true lover. Only when you become a true lover can you claim a high status. All the effort lies in this remembrance. It is due to body consciousness that you forget the Father and stumble. Become very sweet! The atmosphere should also be very sweet; there should be no noise. Anyone who comes should be able to hear how sweetly you talk to him. There should be a lot of silence; you mustn't fight or battle. Otherwise, it would be as though you defame all three: the Father, Teacher and Guru. Then you would claim a low status. You children have now received understanding. Baba says: I am teaching you to enable you to claim a high status. You must study and also teach others. You can understand for yourself that since you are not giving knowledge to anyone, what status you would claim. What would you become if you don't create subjects? If you don't have yoga and there is no gyan, you would definitely have to bow to those who have studied. Check yourself! If you fail now and claim a low status, you would claim a low status for cycle after cycle. Baba's duty is to explain to you. If you do not understand, you destroy your own status. Baba also continues to tell you how you should explain to others. It is better to speak less and to speak softly. Baba praises those who do service. You have to do very good service. Then you will be able to sit in Baba's heart. You can sit in His heart by doing service. You also definitely need the pilgrimage of remembrance. Only then will you become satopradhan. If a lot of punishment is experienced, your status is reduced. If your sins are not absolved, a lot of punishment has to be experienced and your status is reduced. That is called a loss. This too is a business. Do not incur a loss! Imbibe divine virtues! Become elevated! Baba tells you many things to help you progress. Those who do something receive the reward of that. You have to become the residents of the land of angels. Therefore, imbibe virtues accordingly. Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for Dharna:

1. When speaking to anyone, speak with humility and patience. Your words and behaviour should be very sweet. Create an atmosphere of silence. Only when there is no noise will service become successful.
2. Become a true lover and remember the one Beloved. Never sit in remembrance with your eyes closed or your shoulders drooping. Remain soul conscious!

Morning Murli Om Shanti BapDada

Madhuban

Blessing: May you become embodiments of success who co-operate with one another by giving and receiving love from one another.

You have now passed the stage of sharing knowledge with one another. Now, exchange love with one another. Exchange love with anyone sitting in front of you and in contact with you. This is known as being loving to all and being lovely. This knowledge has to be donated to those who are ignorant of this knowledge. However, within the Brahmin family, be a great donor in giving this donation (of love). In your thoughts too, there should be nothing but love for one another. The response of the love you have for everyone, is co-operation, and the result of co-operation is success.

Slogan: In order to serve with your mind, become full of elevated thoughts that are filled with good wishes and pure feelings.
