

Essence: Sweet children, everyone in the iron age is bound by the chains of Ravan. Everyone is in a life of bondage. Now make them liberated in life.

Question: What inheritance is received by all other human souls as well as by you Brahmins?

Answer: Everyone receives the inheritance of liberation-in-life. You children of Brahma become Brahmins and this is why you receive the inheritance of liberation in life for twenty-one births. All others first receive liberation-in-life within their particular religion, which means happiness, and then they receive sorrow. Everyone experiences happiness for the first half of their time and sorrow for the other half. Not everyone can experience the happiness of heaven because for that, one has to become a Brahmin, and study at this school and conquer Maya.

Song: See your face in the mirror of your heart....

Om shanti. Who said, "Look in the mirror of your heart to see how many sins you have committed"? That is, to what extent have you conquered the five vices. Have you become worthy to marry Shri Narayan? The king and queen as well as the subjects become the masters of liberation-in-life (heaven). Therefore, look at yourself in the mirror and ask whether you are able to do as much service as the mother and father. Only you Brahmins understand that this is the iron age and that everyone is in a life of bondage. Not a single person is liberated in life. You also are in a life of bondage, but Baba inspires you to make effort to achieve liberation-in-life. Baba has explained that everyone is in a life of bondage, because this is the iron age. They are bound by the chains of Ravan. The iron age is a life of bondage, whereas the golden age is a life of liberation. In the kingdom of Rama, the king, the queen and the subjects all have liberation in life. In the kingdom of Ravan, the king and queen, and the subjects all have a life of bondage. At present, all are in a life of bondage. They are tamopradhan and experiencing sorrow. Now, everyone has to become satopradhan. The satopradhan stage starts with the golden age. Each soul has to play his own individual part. When a soul first enters his religion from the land of peace, he has a life of liberation. In the golden and silver ages, no one has a life of bondage, because there is no kingdom of Ravan there. It is the kingdom of Ravan in the iron age. Throughout the whole earth, it is the kingdom of those who have a life of bondage. Even the one who was number one in the original eternal deity religion is now in a life of bondage. However, it is at this moment that he is becoming liberated-in-life. Liberation does not mean that everyone will go into the golden and silver ages. No. Liberation-in-life means to be liberated from the sorrow of Ravan. No human being can give liberation or liberation in life to another human being. Only Baba takes everyone into liberation, that is, to the land of nirvana. First, everyone will go to liberation and then to liberation-in-life, numberwise according to their religion. Just because they do not go to the golden age does not mean that they cannot be known as those who are liberated in life. All of those who come at the beginning of their religion are liberated in life. The soul has to be satopradhan at first, and then go through the stages of sato, rajo, and tamo. Everything changes from new to old and old to new. At this time, sages and holy men all have a life of bondage, because this is the iron age. When the Father comes, He is known as Baba. Whether you call Him Mahakal (The Great Death) or something else, His original name is Shiv Baba. You call Him Baba. Baba, God, the Father, the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, explains: I come and give you children liberation as well as liberation-in-life. Those who come in the beginning will definitely go into happiness and will later experience sorrow. After liberation, you go to liberation-in-life; then later, there is a life of bondage. In the beginning, you definitely experience happiness. Baba gives everyone the inheritance of happiness, but some may have happiness for just one birth. They will come and experience happiness for a short while and then die. They only have that much part in the drama. The number of human beings continues to increase. Even now they are continuing to come. However, they are not going to stay here for long because destruction is just ahead. Even new ones who come in the iron age will not experience sorrow to begin with. They will definitely have a good status of some kind. From liberation one must first go to liberation-in-life. After being liberated from the bondage of Maya, you will come down into happiness and later go into sorrow. At this time, everyone has reached a state of decay. Having played the part of happiness and sorrow, everyone will go into liberation and liberation-in-life. You will definitely come, once again, via liberation. The human beings of the whole world will enter the same religion as they did before. King Janak too received liberation-in-life. It doesn't mean that there is no kingdom at this time. In fact, there is a kingdom. They too will definitely come at the end and take knowledge. All of you receive liberation-in-life, but numberwise, according to effort. It can also be said of all those who belong to other religions that they too receive liberation-in-life, numberwise according to effort and according to their religion. All of those of the deity religion who have gone into other religions will return. Everyone has to return home. You first have to become Brahmins. In fact, all are the children of Brahma, but not everyone will become a Brahmin. Those who become Brahmins receive liberation-in-life for twenty-one births. Raja Yoga has to be studied in order to claim the throne of a kingdom. This is a school, and in a school, you have to study. There have to be many rules. Once you have an aim, you can even go abroad and continue this study. Definitely, we are the children of Shiv Baba. You must definitely claim your inheritance from the Father. Some write: Baba, the influence of Ravan harasses me and sometimes there is a slight intoxication of lust or anger. Baba says: You must conquer all of that. This war of yours is for the power of yoga. You try to stay in remembrance, but Maya will break your intellect's yoga. Baba has explained that everyone will receive liberation-in-life, but this doesn't mean that everyone will go to heaven. Everyone wants to be liberated. Those who come to play their part at the end will be liberated for that length of time; they have so much peace; they live in peace for 4500 to 4750 years. Such is their part! You live in both peace and happiness. You people shouldn't want peace like theirs, for they simply sit there. It can't be received by asking for it, for this drama is predestined, and nothing in it can be changed. Many have a deep desire for peace; they receive much more peace than you, but you receive both peace and happiness. Here, there is only temporary happiness and no peace; it is the land of sorrow. There is no peace in a forest. If it were peaceful there, they would stay there. Why do they come to the cities and build so many flats etc.? In the golden age, there is nothing but peace. Those who come at the end may think there is only peacelessness here, but they themselves experience peace. They consider others to be peaceless. These are matters to be understood. Everyone receives liberation-in-life. You rule the kingdom for twenty-one births, the rest come later. They remain up above in peace. Someone who comes at the end of the golden age or in the silver age, also comes from the land of peace. There, there is no sorrow. You will come numberwise; there is an account. People think that science is very powerful. We say that our silence is very powerful. We receive power through having remembrance of Baba. They attempt to go to the moon with the power of science, whereas you go beyond the sun and the moon in a second. There is nothing beyond the subtle region and the incorporeal world. The incorporeal world and the subtle region are very far from the sun and the moon. However, no one can know this; all of these are the details. If it is not in their fortune to be a sun dynasty king or queen, they are not able to understand anything, or able to explain to others. No one can say: I have the knowledge of liberation and liberation-in-life (like the example of King Janak). Everyone has been put in jail. At this time, everyone has been put into jail by Ravan, and Rama comes and liberates everyone. You have been made instruments by the Father to liberate everyone from the clamp of Ravan and to give them liberation in life. Your name, the Shiv Shakti Army, is well known. Towards the end of this drama, your name will become very elevated. Since Baba came, the status of the mothers has been uplifted greatly. In earlier times, mothers had a high status abroad. There, if a girl is born to someone, they become very happy, whereas here, if a girl is born, they turn the bed upside-down, and they do not even celebrate her birthday. They say that Kannaiya (a title for Krishna) belongs to the kumaris. In fact, you are all kanyas (kumaris). This is your new birth. Everyone is numberwise in the study. Souls are not larger or smaller in size; bodies become large or small. Some understand quickly, but because it is not in everyone's fortune, others are not able to understand. Both liberation in life and a life of bondage refer to this corporeal world. You are liberated in life in the golden age, and you receive a life of bondage from the copper age onwards. Everyone has now forgotten the times of happiness and are experiencing sorrow. There is no one who can say: We experienced happiness for twenty-one births. Because it is now the kingdom of Ravan, everyone has become like dirty clothes. There, there is no Ravan, so how could they be called dirty clothes? "Yogbal" (power of yoga) and "bhogbal" (power of the vices) are also mentioned. There, children take birth through the power of yoga. You children know the customs and systems; there is no question of anyone else knowing. Americans know about their own customs and systems, and we now know about our customs and systems. We are those who reside in the golden age and there, all our customs and systems will be new. We will follow those as we did a cycle ago. Whatever happened before is now to happen again. Some children go into trance and see the customs and systems, but you also have to make effort to claim a high status. Those who saw those customs and systems (in trance) are no longer here, and so there was no benefit through that. Therefore, everything depends on the study of yoga and knowledge. Yoga means to remember the Father, and knowledge means to spin the discus. This is easy. Baba says: You have to come to Me and therefore: remember Me. At the time of their dying, people are told to remember Rama (God), but they do not understand the significance of that. They are not able to reach there by merely calling out the name, "Shri Krishna", because it is Baba who takes everyone home. How can you return home without having destroyed your sins? Now is the time of settlement for everyone. Then at their own time, everyone will return here. You have to imbibe these points. Note them down! You have to follow the mother and father. Mama never caused anyone distress. Baba receives many reports about the teachers, saying they do not have any manners. The Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, is teaching you, so you should be clever. Everyone loves those whose behaviour is good. However, some cause great distress. Then, they slap themselves and thereby destroy their own status. There is also the saying: The Hindu people slapped themselves. They have called God, the One who gives the fortune of the kingdom, omnipresent. By slapping themselves, they have reached this state. The scriptures say: God speaks: I am omnipresent. But God Himself, says: I am not like you that I would slap Myself! Am I in the cats and dogs? Baba says: You have defamed Me, but this too is the drama and it will happen again. Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for Dharna:

1. Do not perform any wrong actions. Imbibe the virtues well. Follow the mother and father.
2. With the power of yoga, finish even the slightest intoxication of lust and anger. Become instruments and do the service of liberating everyone from the chains of Ravan.

Blessing: May you be an embodiment of Godly success and with the accurate method finish all waste and claim number one.

Just as darkness is automatically dispelled by light, so too, by using your time, thoughts and breath in a worthwhile way, waste is automatically finished, because to use them in a worthwhile way means to use them in an elevated way. Therefore, those who use everything in an elevated way win over that which is waste and claim number one. They gain the success of stopping waste. This is Godly success. People with occult powers show temporary miracles, whereas you gain Godly success by using the right method.

Slogan: Only those who uplift even those who defame them are said to be enlightened souls.
