

Essence: Sweet children, in order to become victorious jewels, die alive. Become soul conscious, and make effort to become the garland around the Father's neck.

Question: Even though you children clearly understand the secret of the discus of self-realisation, why do you imbibe it numberwise?

Answer: Because this drama is created very systematically. Only Brahmins can understand the 84 births and remember Baba. However, Maya causes obstacles in remembrance only for Brahmins. She repeatedly breaks your yoga. If everyone were to imbibe knowledge equally and pass easily, the rosary would be made up of hundreds of thousands. Therefore, because a kingdom is being established, everyone imbibes numberwise.

Song: To live in Your lane and to die in Your lane...

Om shanti. You children heard the song. This is the birth in which you die alive. When someone dies, the world ends for that person. When a soul departs, none of the maternal or paternal uncles remain either. It is said: He has died, that is, the soul has gone and merged with God. In fact, no one goes there, but people believe that the soul went back or merged with the light. The Father sits here and explains. You children know that souls have to take rebirth. Rebirth is called birth and death. It is possible that souls who come at the end have to take one birth. They shed that body and then go back home. There is a big account where rebirth is concerned. There are millions of human beings. Baba cannot tell you the details of each one individually. You children now say: Oh Baba, we will now renounce all our bodily relations and become a garland around Your neck. That is, we have come to belong to You while alive. Effort has to be made with the body. A soul by itself cannot make effort. The Father sits here and explains: When a sacrificial fire of Rudra is created, they make a large image of Shiv Baba out of clay. They also make many images of saligrams out of clay. What are those saligrams that people create and then worship? They believe Shiva to be the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul. They keep Shiva as the main one. There are many souls. Therefore, they also create many saligrams. They even make 10,000 or 100,000 saligrams. They make them every day and then break them, and then make them again. This requires a lot of effort. Neither those worshippers nor the ones who have sacrificial fires created know who those saligrams represent. Are that many souls worthy to be worshipped? No. Achcha, even if you make 33 million saligrams to represent the people of Bharat, that too is not possible, because not everyone helps the Father. These are very deep matters and have to be understood. People spend 4 to 5 hundred thousand rupees in creating a sacrificial fire. Achcha, Shiva, the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, is right, but who are the children who are worshipped as saligrams? At this time, only you children know the Father and become His helpers. People also help. Those who remember Shiv Baba will definitely go to heaven. Although they may not give knowledge to anyone, they will still go to heaven. There will be so many of them. However, there are 108 main ones. Look even Mama is such a great jewel. She is worshipped so much. You children now definitely have to become soul conscious. You have been body conscious for birth after birth. No human being would say: I, the soul, am a child of the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul. If you are His child, you should know His complete biography. The biography of the parlokik Father is very great. So, children say: Baba, I will definitely die alive and become a garland around Your neck. There are big rosaries of souls. In the same way, there is also the biggest garland of the human world. Prajapita Brahma is the main one. He is also called Adam, Adi Dev, Mahavir. These are very deep things. You souls understand that all of you are children of the incorporeal Father, and that this is the genealogical tree of the human world. It is called the genealogical tree. When someone has the surname "Agarwal", his children and grandchildren would also have the same surname. A family tree is created in this way. Gradually growing from one, the tree becomes big. All souls are the garland around Shiv Baba's neck. He is imperishable. There is also Prajapita Brahma. How is the new world created? Does annihilation take place? No. The world continues to. It is just that when it becomes old, the Father comes and makes it new. You now understand that you were the newest of all. You souls were new and pure. You souls were pure gold and because of that, you also received golden jewellery (body). That is called having an eternal (long-lasting) body. Here, the average life-span of a person is 40 to 45 years. Some perhaps live up to the age of 100. There, your life would not be less than 125 years on average. Your age is made like that of the kalpa tree. There is never untimely death there. You souls are the children of Shiv Baba. Brahmins are definitely created through Brahma and then they create other people. First of all, you become Brahmins, the mouth-born creation of Brahma. There is the one Shiv Baba, so then, where is the mother? This is a very deep secret. I come and adopt you children through this one. You die alive to the old world. When those people adopt children, they do so to give wealth. The Father adopts you to give you the inheritance of heaven. He makes you worthy. He will take you with Him. This is why you have to die alive to this old world. While living at home with your family, become pure and belong to the Father. We are residents of that place. Then, in the golden age, we will play our part of happiness. The Father explains these things. They are not mentioned in the scriptures. The Father sits here and purifies you souls. He removes the dirt from souls. You receive the third eye of knowledge. They have then sat and created the story of the third eye. In fact, that refers to the present time. You now receive all the information of Brahmānd and of the beginning, the middle and the end of the world. The Father comes and explains to you only once. Sannyasis continue to take rebirth. This One simply comes and teaches you children. That is all! This is something new. These things are not mentioned in the scriptures. This is a very big college. The rule is to first of all understand very well for one week. You have to sit in the furnace. They have readings of the Gita or the Bhagawad for a week, and so they have to sit for 7 days. Everyone indulges in vice. Sannyasis leave their home and become viceless. Nevertheless, they take birth through vice and then take up renunciation in order to become viceless. Some also believe in rebirth because they see the examples. Some shed their body having studied many Vedas and scriptures and so they take birth according to that. Therefore, they are able to recite scriptures in their childhood. They take birth and consider themselves to be impure. They would then take up renunciation to become pure. You become pure only once and become deities. You then don't have to renounce anything. So their renunciation is limited. They themselves are unable to explain these things. Baba sits here and explains this. He is the most elevated Father and you have become His children. This is also a school and many new things emerge every day. He says: Today, I am going to tell you the deepest things of all. If you don't listen to Me, how will you be able to imbibe? The Father sits here and explains: Now that you belong to Me, shed the consciousness of the body. I have come as the Guide to take you back. You are the Pandava community. They are physical guides whereas you are spiritual guides. They take you on a physical pilgrimage whereas your pilgrimage is spiritual. They have given the Pandavas weapons and portrayed them on a battlefield. You children must now also have strength. When your number increases, your strength will also increase. The Father sits here and explains: I have adopted you through this Brahma. This is why He is called the Mother and Father. Everyone says: You are the Mother and Father and we are Your children. Achcha, He is called God, the Father. He is not called God, the Mother. So, how can you call Him the Mother? So, people then consider Jagadamba to be the Mother. But no, she too has a mother and father. Who is her mother? These are very deep matters. There is the praise, but who can give the proof and explain it to you? You know that this One is the Mother and Father. First of all is the Mother. You truly definitely have to come to this mother Brahma first. I enter this one and adopt you. This is why this One is the Mother and Father. These things are not mentioned in the scriptures. The Father sits here and explains how you become the mouth-born creation. I create you through the mouth of Brahma. A king would say: I say that you are mine. The soul says this. However, that one would not be called the mother and father. These are very wonderful things. You know that you belong to Shiv Baba and so you have to renounce the consciousness of your body. To consider yourself to be a bodiless soul requires effort. This is called Raja Yoga and knowledge. Both words are included in this. When someone is dying, he is told to chant the name of Rama, or gurus would give him their name. When a guru dies, his son is made the guru. Here, when the Father goes, everyone has to go back. This is the final birth in the land of death. Baba is taking us via the land of liberation to the land of immortality. It has been explained to you that when destruction takes place, the part of the iron age goes down below and the golden age comes up above. However, nothing goes in the ocean. You children come here to the Ocean to be refreshed. You see the dance of knowledge in person. The gopes and gopis are portrayed dancing with Krishna. This refers to the present time. The Father's murli is played in front of the chatrak (a type of bird that eagerly awaits drops of rain) children. You children also have to learn this. Then it depends on how much each one of you learns. You have to explain: Claim your inheritance from the unlimited Father. You say: Oh God! But, in fact, He is the Creator, and so He would definitely create heaven. This One is the only Father who creates heaven, and that too lasts for half the cycle. Baba explains so many secrets to you. You children have to make effort to imbibe it. Baba has also shown you the meaning of the discus of self-realisation so clearly. Only Brahmins can remember the cycle of 84 births. This is remembering the cycle by connecting your intellect's yoga. However, Maya repeatedly breaks your yoga and creates obstacles. If it were easy, everyone would pass and a rosary of hundreds of thousands would be created. However, this drama is created systematically. There are 8 main ones. There cannot be any difference in them. All the princes and princesses up to the end of the silver age study together here. The subjects would also be studying here, since the kingdom is established here. Only the Father establishes a kingdom. None of the preceptors establish a kingdom. This is a very wonderful secret. Where did the kingdom of Lakshmi and Narayan come from in the golden age since there is no kingdom in the iron age? There are innumerable religions. The people of Bharat are poverty-stricken. The night of the iron age has ended, the day has begun and the kingdom has started. What happened? They show the play of Allah-Alladin. Plenty of treasures emerge from there. You go and see Paradise with divine vision in a second. Achcha.

The mother and Father, Bap and Dada and all the children, the whole family are sitting together. To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for Dharna:

1. Do service like the Father of refreshing everyone. Become chatraks and perform the dance of knowledge and also inspire others.
2. Renounce any consciousness of your body and die alive to the old world. Practise being bodiless. Make yourself worthy of the inheritance of heaven.

Blessing: May you be full of good wishes and pure feelings and remain content and make others content. Brahmins are those who always remain content and make everyone content. Therefore, no matter what happens or how much someone tries to shake you, you have to remain content and make others content. If you have this awareness, you would never become angry. If someone repeatedly makes a mistake, don't become angry to transform that person. Instead, be merciful and have a vision of good wishes and pure feelings and that person will easily be transformed.

Slogan: Make the Father, the Bestower of Fortune, belong to you in all relationships and you will become full of all attainments.
