

Essence: Sweet children, you have to accumulate your account of charity for 21 births and burn your account of sins with the power of yoga. Therefore, become introverted.

Question: By following which shrimat will you easily be able to make the effort of going beyond sound?

Answer: Shrimat says: Children, become introverted, do not say anything. When you follow this shrimat, you will easily be able to go beyond sound. The more you stay in remembrance and spin the discus of self-realisation, the more income you will accumulate. The time of amrit vela is very good for remembrance. Wake up at that time, sit down and become introverted, stabilise yourself in your original religion.

Song: You spent the night in sleeping and the day in eating.

Om shanti. Who is telling you to become introverted, not to say anything, but to sit stabilised in the form of the soul? The Father says to the children: Don't say anything. You have been saying, "Rama Rama" a great deal, but human beings haven't been able to become pure by saying that. Human beings can become pure from impure when they follow the shrimat of the Purifier Father. By saying Purifier, you remember the Father. The Father says: You truly were impure. You are now becoming pure. There is no one impure in the golden age. 5000 years ago when Bharat was pure, there was just the one religion. The Father would only create a world of happiness. Bharat was the land of happiness. The temples to Lakshmi and Narayan, Rama and Sita are signs of the golden and silver ages. In the golden age, there truly was the dynasty of Lakshmi and Narayan. There was this Bharat in which there was the kingdom of the sun and moon dynasties and they are now being established once again. This is called world history and geography. Only human beings would know this. When human beings don't know this they are said to be worse than animals. They stumble around so much in order to know the Father, but they can't know Him. You have become the children of the Father and so He gives you His introduction. At first, you didn't have His introduction, and so what was the consequence of that? You became orphans, atheists without a Lord or Master. You now belong to the Father and so you are claiming your inheritance from the Father. The inheritance you receive is huge: you receive a sovereignty for 21 births. Is this a small thing? It is 5000 years since Lakshmi and Narayan used to rule the kingdom. History repeats. The Father explains: Follow My shrimat, become introverted. Do not become extroverted. At this time, there is extreme darkness. This is called the night. The dawn is now coming. The end of the iron age is called extreme darkness and the beginning of the golden age is called extreme light. The Father says: I only come at the confluence age when all human beings are impure. I have now come to give you children the inheritance of constant happiness. Destruction is just ahead. A lot of time has gone by and only a little remains. Therefore, now make effort quickly and claim your inheritance from the unlimited Father, as everyone is doing. All are effort-makers. Everyone now has to go back to the sweet home, beyond sound. That is the home of souls, the land of nirvana. There wouldn't be just one person living in a land. All the living human souls (embodied souls) that exist now will all shed their bodies and go to their home, to Baba. That is the incorporeal tree. The tree has been shown in the picture. That is the home of us souls, the land of peace. Then we will go to the land of happiness. The cycle of 84 births is now coming to an end. After the iron age, the golden age will definitely come. After the copper age, the iron age will definitely come. The Father says: I come at the confluence age of every cycle. I inspire the destruction of the old world. Until the new world is established you have to stay in this old world. Until the new building is built, you still have to live in the old one. Then, when it becomes new again, the old one is demolished. These are also old things, are they not? There is this Mahabharat War for the destruction of it. The Father sits here and explains to you children. It is the soul that understands. It is the soul that studies worldly knowledge. The soul says: I am a principal, a surgeon. Because of not having knowledge of the soul, there is body consciousness. It is the soul that carries the sanskars. You children understand that Shiv Baba is explaining to you souls. We souls will shed our old body and take a new one. From being ugly we will now become beautiful. You are now once again becoming beautiful from ugly. We take 84 births, and then Baba removes us from the pyre of lust and sits us on the pyre of knowledge and makes us into the masters of the golden age. The unlimited Father would surely give you an unlimited inheritance. The Father is the Highest on High. He says: I have brought the gift of Paradise for you children. I have brought heaven on the palm of My hand. You have a vision of that in a second. There are so many Brahma Kumars and Kumaris. They are definitely the children of Brahma and the grandchildren of Shiv Baba. You say: We are claiming our inheritance from Shiv Baba. He is the Bestower of Salvation for All. He is teaching us Raja Yoga. How would the Incorporeal One teach us Raja Yoga? This is why He teaches us through these organs. He gives us the knowledge of the world cycle. All the praise is of the One who is called the Supreme Soul. He is the Ocean of Knowledge and the Purifier and so He definitely has to come. He makes you master supreme and pure. He is the unlimited Father to whom everyone calls out. The Father of all the devotees is God, the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul. If He were omnipresent as they say, how would you receive an inheritance? Human beings cannot be called God. Krishna is also called a human being with divine virtues. He is the first prince. Everyone rocks him in the cradle. No one ever rocks Shiv Baba because He never becomes a child. He just grants a vision to explain to you that He is your Child, and that if you make Him your Heir and surrender to Him, He will also surrender Himself to you. When you surrender to Him, it is as though He has become your Child. Human beings have so much blind faith. They continue to bow down here and there. That is called the worship of dolls. On Navratri (nine days festival of worshipping the goddesses), they make many dolls. No one knows about their occupation. There cannot be a goddess with 4 or 6 arms; they even put a sword in her hand. Deities are not violent. Scholars of the scriptures have portrayed them as violent. They worship Kali in Nepal, but she isn't like that. Mama is not like that Kali with a long tongue. Human beings are human beings. Brahma, Vishnu and Shankar are residents of the subtle region. That's all. There is nothing else. So, how could there be anyone with 8 or 10 arms. They made all of those ornaments on the path of devotion. They need some means of earning money. Therefore, they sit and create so many types of image. In the one place they have a temple to the beautiful Krishna and also a temple to the ugly Krishna. There has to be a reason for that. There is so much blind faith. The path of bhakti is coming to an end and the path of knowledge is becoming victorious. There is very little time and everyone definitely has to die. Your children and grandchildren won't become your heirs. There, you won't even have the knowledge that you made effort for the kingdom at the confluence age. There, the pure world continues. Here, you know that you are truly the ones who have a right to Baba's kingdom. There, you won't know what actions you performed or how you became that. You forget all of that. There are no impure ones there that they would need a guru to become pure. A father washes the children's feet and sits them on the throne. A guru is needed for salvation. There, there is already salvation and so there is no need for a guru. The Father says: Consider yourself to be a soul. Do not stay in body consciousness. I, the soul, am a doctor. I, the soul, am a magistrate. Then, I don't know what I will become after shedding this body. We are studying through these bodies. The soul studies through these organs. It is the soul that listens. These matters have to be understood; they are not tall stories. The Father says: The whole world has to become a graveyard. Now, awaken. Otherwise, at the time when the haystack is set on fire, there will be cries of distress. However, you won't be able to do anything then. Death will eat you up. You will just remain there crying out in distress. There will also be a lot of punishment. We now have to end our account of sin and accumulate in our account of charity. We have to accumulate anew everything for 21 births. It will be accumulated by remembering the Father. Your old account has to be settled. Knowledge is so easy. You earn such an income every day. To the extent that you remember Baba and spin the discus of self-realisation, so you accumulate plenty of income; it is countless. There, you don't count anything. You are now sitting in huts whereas later you will sit in palaces. There is a difference, is there not, between a hut and a palace? When the new world is established through Brahma, the old world will be destroyed. This refers to the present time. When the kingdom is established, whatever effort each one of you is able to make is made and destruction will take place. Therefore, you mustn't make any mistakes now. Wake up early in the morning and sit in remembrance. The more you keep a chart of remembrance, the better it will be and then you will claim a high status. You will become a garland around Shiv Baba's neck. Look in the mirror of your heart to see if you have become worthy to marry Lakshmi or Narayan. Am I doing service like Mama and Baba? There are different types of flower. This is the human garden of Baba, the Master of the Garden. It would be said: Look, Kumarka, Manohar are such good flowers. This one is a ratan-jyot. Baba sees this garden and then goes into the other garden and looks at the flowers. The Master of the Garden checks the flowers and so the children should follow Him. Who are the number one and two flowers? You have to become like them. To claim a royal status for 21 births is not a small thing. There is plenty of happiness. You have to become a master of the world. This is a school. Together with a worldly education, study this spiritual education. Teachers always have good manners. They are honest. In schools, there is no question of blind faith. There, they study to become a barrister or an engineer. Here, you are studying to become kings of kings. Sannyasis say that God is omnipresent. The game ends there. The unlimited Father explains to you children: Children, remain pure in this final birth. You can do a lot of service. There is an education department in schools, and this too is an education department. You children are Raj Rishis. Those people leave their home and family. You live at home and renounce the whole world. You have the new world, which only the Father creates, in your intellect. This is why the Father says: Remember Me. This old world is to end. This spiritual college-cum-hospital through which you become ever-healthy and ever-wealthy is very large. You can open this hospital-cum-college in every home. There is no expense in this. You simply need three square feet of land. Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. Wake up early in the morning and definitely sit in remembrance. Don't be careless about this. Accumulate your account of charity.
2. Whilst keeping your aim and objective in your intellect, imbibe good manners. Definitely study the spiritual study and become introverted.

Blessing: May you be a master of the self and remain safe from iron-aged vibrations whilst living in that atmosphere.

One who is a master of the self is not attracted by any of the physical senses. He always remains attracted to the one Father. Let there not be any attraction to any person or object. Only such sovereigns are tapaswi souls. They are the swans who, whilst living in the iron-aged atmosphere of storks, always remain safe. They are not even slightly attracted by the vibrations of the world. All complaints then end.

Slogan: To transform bad into good is the elevated power of the highest Brahmins.
