

Essence: Sweet children, become one who has a far sighted and a broad and unlimited intellect. Don't cause any disturbance in Shiv Baba's task. Those who cause a disturbance cannot receive a high status.

Question: What thoughts do people who live in this world have which the golden-aged deities would never have?

Answer: Here, people think that their sons and grandsons will eat from whatever they earn. The deities would never have such thoughts because their sons and grandsons take their inheritance with them from here. They believe that their kingdom is imperishable. Each one is making his own individual effort here.

Song: Mother oh mother, you are the fortune of tomorrow...

Om shanti. Children heard praise of the mothers. Children know which mothers are praised. Surely, it is the mothers who have been here and gone that are praised so much. They are not here now. On the path of bhakti there is praise of the one who was Jagadamba. You too didn't know what she did before she went. They go to the Jagadamba Temple and ask for something or other. Some would want a child and others would ask for blessings. Non-living images cannot do or understand anything, but that is devotion! You know that they existed in the past. There is praise of Jagadamba. She isn't the only one. All of you sustain the Brahmin clan and then you will sustain the divine clan. At this time, it is as though you are sustaining the whole world, but no one knows this. There is also a gathering for goddess Chandika, but the name Chandika is not so good. Baba says: Those who were amazed, and then ran away and divorced the Father will then go and take birth as cremators. If children cause mischief at home or are disobedient, they are called cremators. You can really see that some belong to Shiv Baba and yet they cause so much mischief. To cause mischief means to be disobedient. Those who cause disturbance in Shiv Baba's service would eventually leave. A Brahma Kumari at a centre causing mischief won't be able to explain to anyone. If she gets angry, everyone would say: She has a lot of anger. Chandika would not be just one; there are many of them. There is praise of the goddesses and also memorials of those who become like Chandika. They still belonged to God. Although some leave, they still go to heaven. They would still become masters. Although only the kings and queens become masters, the subjects would also say: We are masters. The Congress party say: Our Bharat is great. Nowadays, they even sing songs: Bharat was very good. Today, there are rivers of blood flowing. You have now become children of the unlimited Father. The gopes and gopis of Gopi Vallabh have been remembered. Vallabh is the Father. It is remembered that the one Gopi Vallabh has many gopes and gopies. In the golden age, there is no question of gopikas etc. You children now have a far-sighted and broad and unlimited intellect. The lock on your intellect has opened. You know very well the life story of this birth. Everyone has that intoxication. There is Birla who would have intoxication of his wealth. He would think that he is the wealthiest of all. However, you know that those who are wealthy today will then become poor. There is the difference of day and night between your intellect and that of the people outside. Some have intoxication of one thing and others have intoxication of another thing: I am So-and-so, I am like this.. This one (Brahma) also had the intoxication of being a great jewel-merchant. You now understand that all those types of intoxication are worth shells. The intoxication of you children is so high. Those people think that they will earn something and that their sons and grandsons will eat from that. It is not like that here. You know that by knowing the unlimited Father you are claiming your inheritance from Him, and we ourselves will receive the reward of that status birth after birth. All the sons and grandsons are making effort here. There, they don't think: Our grandsons will eat from this. They understand that that is the imperishable kingdom. Here, royal people think that their sons and grandsons will eat from their earnings. You are now claiming so much inheritance from the Father and performing such actions that you continue to receive the fruit of that for 21 births. You are not concerned about your sons and grandsons. All of them also claim their inheritance here. You have so much knowledge. People don't know anything. People would definitely receive so much happiness from God, the Father, whom everyone remembers so much. It is sung: O Supreme Father, Supreme Soul, have mercy! He is called the Supreme Soul. He is the Supreme. He is beyond birth and death and this is why He is called the Supreme Soul, that is, God. The form of all souls is the same. Whatever effort each of you makes, so accordingly is the status you claim. This one's soul studies well and thus becomes Narayan. Someone who fails will become Rama. It is the soul that becomes that. You souls understand that you are studying Raja Yoga with the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul. The soul then comes and wears a new costume and plays his part. He will change from an ordinary man into Narayan. This is in the intellect of you children numberwise according to the effort you make. This knowledge will then vanish. There won't be anyone impure there. Whom would you give knowledge to? The Purifier is remembered here. OK, just think that the Ganges is the Purifier. However, that would not be able to teach you Raja Yoga. The Father teaches you Raja Yoga. All the secrets of the drama, from the beginning to the end, are in the intellects of you children. All of you are studying in the one class, but you are numberwise. At the beginning, there was a bhatthi of 300. If there were thousands of cows in a cowshed to be looked after, no one would be able to look after all of them. A bhatthi of only a few had to be created. Amongst them too, some are still continuing to move along and some have broken away. Some children think that it would have been better if they had been here from the beginning. However, that is not so. So many of the old ones have run away. Even those who have been here for 25 to 30 years don't even remember that He is the unlimited Father from whom they receive an inheritance. Baba makes you into the masters of heaven; it is a matter of a second. The Father says: By belonging to Me, you will become the masters of heaven. Kings and queens and also the subjects receive liberation-in-life. "Liberation-in-life in a second" has been remembered. What would the children who are not studying fully be doing? Causing mischief. Some children are very obedient. They claim an even better status than their father. Their father would be earning a 100 or 200 and the child would become a millionaire. So, it is the same in alokik relations. A child who is seven days old would go quickly ahead of someone who has been here for 25 years. It is numberwise. In fact, all of you are brides and you remember the one Bridegroom. You know that the Father comes and gives us the inheritance of the land of happiness. All women have their lokik husbands, and yet everyone remembers the Husband of all husbands. The parlokik Bridegroom gives you nectar to drink and this is why He is remembered. Then you become the masters of heaven. You don't remember anyone there. Through your efforts of the present time, you claim a reward for 21 births. Your intellect has opened so much. That is numberwise and so the sovereignty you claim is also numberwise. Everything has been explained to you. By studying well here, you will also claim a high status. Otherwise, uneducated ones will have to bow down in front of educated ones. You have to make very good effort in this. The time now is very good for making effort. You know that you have to drink the nectar of knowledge whilst you are alive, that is, you have to continue to study. Saplings continue to be planted. For those who understand quickly, it is obvious that he or she will receive a good status. He is a flower who is very close and has surrendered himself in body, mind and wealth and has become engaged in service very well. He understands that however much time he gives for service is beneficial. Just as Baba has become the Stick for all of us who are blind, without the eye of knowledge, so we also have to become the same. You continue to become the stick for one another. It is Ravan who has made you blind. It is explained to you that at this time the whole world is Lanka. All are in the cottage of sorrow. They have the name "Ashoka (without sorrow) Hotel", and they have great pleasure there. Those who helped the Congress Party are now receiving a lot of happiness. You know that Baba has now come. The Mahabharat War is just ahead. It has to take place because the gates have to open. There is no question of this happening in the copper age. There is extreme darkness now. The night of Brahmins has now come to an end and Baba has come. Only you children know these things. When studying at school, some claim very good marks whereas others fail. The sign of failing is becoming part of the moon dynasty. Rama has been given the symbol of a warrior. They don't understand the meaning of that. They sit and relate so many stories about Luv and Kush (children of Rama). They make so many false allegations. It is sung: The King is Rama and the people are those who belong to Rama; there is mercy because of righteousness. So where did all those things come from? All of these things have to be understood. You know that this knowledge is in your intellect numberwise. Students should make very good effort. We are God-Fatherly students. Who would not remember their teacher? We are the students of God, the Father, the Purifier.

The Father, Teacher and Satguru are all included in this. All of you are Sitas. You are sitting in Ravan's cottage of sorrow. Incorporeal God, the Father, is the Ocean of Knowledge, knowledge-full. You would not say this of Krishna or Lakshmi and Narayan. Their praise is completely different. In the song, it is sung: The praise of the One who makes us like that is limitless. You say: Baba, I will claim the full inheritance from You. You are so sweet! You are so lovely! Lakshmi and Narayan are so sweet and lovely. Look at the picture of Lakshmi and Narayan. They are always shown smiling. You know that deities used to stay in this Bharat. Where are they now? You can tell everyone: This is your final birth and you have to become like Krishna once again. The land of Krishna is now being established. The Krishna soul is also studying Raja Yoga. If you want to go to the land of Krishna, then study Raja Yoga. When you speak of Lakshmi and Narayan, they become confused. Krishna is rocked in a cradle and they worship Lakshmi and Narayan. There are not shown in any childhood activities. Where did Radhe and Krishna go and what happened to them? They don't know anything. Radhe and Krishna were not brother and sister. Now, there is no kingdom of Radhe and Krishna. No one in the copper age knows about their kingdom. A very good intellect is needed to understand all of these things. It takes effort to write literature. They portray the ornaments on Vishnu, but, in fact, Vishnu doesn't have those ornaments. Neither Vishnu nor Lakshmi and Narayan have the conch shell. So what should we write? People cannot understand anything. You have the conch shell so the ornaments surely have to be given to Brahmins. They would say: Where did these Brahmins come from? They wouldn't be able to understand anything. You can explain that we Brahmins are the spinners of the discus of self-realisation. A very broad and unlimited intellect is needed to explain all of these things. Those who have a gross intellect and are to become subjects won't be able to understand anything. They find it very difficult to explain. Baba writes: Sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found spinners of the discus of self-realisation, mouth-born creation of Brahma. However, you don't have those ornaments. In the pictures, they have shown the goddesses with a third eye, but they don't have a third eye. Your third eye has now opened. There is praise of you Shaktis. Since there is Jagadamba, the children would also be with her. Mothers are in the majority. The mothers are lifted up high. Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. Use your time in a worthwhile way in service. Surrender your body, mind and wealth and continue to study for as long as you live.
2. Sustain one another with knowledge. Don't perform any task through which you would be disobeying the Father.

Blessing: May you be a spiritual server who has enthusiasm within the self every day and also gives enthusiasm to everyone.

BapDada gives all you spiritual serviceable children the gift of love: Children, have enthusiasm within the self every day and celebrate a festival of giving enthusiasm to everyone. Through this you will become free from the effort you make of harmonising sanskars and ending sanskars. Celebrate this festival at all times and all problems will end. Then you won't have to spend time or use your powers on that. You will become angels who dance and fly in happiness.

Slogan: Those who understand the secrets of the drama and make the lesson of "nothing new" firm are carefree emperors.

* * * O M S H A N T I * * *
