

Essence: Sweet children, you are now standing at a T-junction. On one side is the land of sorrow, on the second side is the land of peace and on the third side, the land of happiness. Now judge (decide) where you want to go.

Question: On the basis of which faith can you children constantly remain cheerful?

Answer: The first faith you need to have is who it is you now belong to. After belonging to the Father there is no need to read the Vedas, scriptures or religious books. The other faith you need is that your clan is the most elevated deity clan. With this awareness you can remember the whole cycle. Those who maintain the awareness of the Father and the cycle will constantly remain cheerful.

Song: Someone made me belong to Him and taught me how to smile...

Om shanti. You children first of all have the happiness of who it is you now belong to. It would not be said that you now belong to a guru. You have to belong to the Father. Even after you leave your body, you will then belong to another father. Here, too, you have to belong to the Father. There is no need for any Vedas or scriptures. As soon as a child is born, his father understands that the child is a master of his property. It is a matter of a relationship. You children also know that, in fact, you are first of all the children of the parlokik Father, Shiv Baba. First, we are souls, and then we receive a body. You have a body and you have now found the unlimited Father. He has come and given you His introduction. You say: Baba, I belong to You and there are no other relationships. You have become the children of the Father. This One says: I am not a guru etc. On the board, the name Brahma Kumars and Kumaris is written and so there would surely also be the father. You write that you are Brahma Kumars and Kumaris. This is a relationship. There has to be the relationship with the Mother and Father. It is remembered: You are the Mother and Father and we are Your children. It is as though the soul remembers this eternally. When we become Your children, we will claim our inheritance. You know that you now belong to the Mother and Father. You are the children of Shiv Baba and so you definitely remember the Father and the inheritance. You are not taught from any religious books etc. You are just made to have faith. You now belong to the Father. Therefore, remember Him. The Father says: By remembering Me, you will become like them (Lakshmi and Narayan). This is so easy. You should have a broad and unlimited intellect. He doesn't explain anything else to you. He just tells you about your clans and how you go around the cycle of 84 births. He liberates you from studying the Vedas and scriptures etc. You have to continue to remember the Father. It is in your intellect how the world cycle turns. By knowing its beginning, middle and end, you become the highest-on-high. You become the masters of heaven. I make you cheerful for all time. This is so easy, but you still forget it. What is the reason for this? Children never forget their parents. Remember the Father and the inheritance and you will always remain cheerful. When there is sorrow, people remember the Father. The Father definitely gave you happiness. When someone causes sorrow, they say: Oh Baba! Oh God! You have been crying out in distress every birth. Everything is now explained to you children very easily. Even though you may not be healthy, you may be very ill, but you can still do service. When someone is ill, he is told to chant the name of Rama. Here, when someone is ill, you tell him: Remember Shiv Baba. You definitely have to remind others of this. You can give this knowledge to others even they are in a state of dying. You are the children of God. Remember Him. Shiv Baba is the unlimited Father and He alone will give you an inheritance. When you have an interest in servicing, you will give knowledge to others even when you are dying. It shouldn't be that you are lying in hospital and you stop speaking. Let something or another continue to emerge from your mouth. Your stage should be very good. Even when you are ill you can do a lot of service. When your friends and relatives come to visit you, you will tell them: Remember God. He alone is the Protector of All. Therefore, remember Shiv Baba. He is the only One. Everyone receives an inheritance from just the One. In worldly relationships, the males receive an inheritance. A kumari is considered to be more elevated than a hundred brahmins. Donations are made to those who are pure. You kumaris are the purest of all. This is why it is said: I am donating my daughter. That is considered to be a great donation. In fact, that is not a donation. You are now making a donation. You say: I am giving my daughter to Shiv Baba for her to be made into an empress of heaven. However, the kumari should also be well educated. She should be someone from our deity clan who can understand everything quickly as soon as it is explained to her. She has to be serviceable. Baba is not going to look after little children. It is very easy to explain to anyone: Shiv Baba is your unlimited Father. The pictures are in front of you. Look, you are claiming an inheritance of this golden age. From where did Lakshmi and Narayan receive their inheritance? This is so easy and this is why Baba is having large pictures made. This play is now coming to an end. We have played our part of 84 births. We are now going back to Baba and then we will come back into the new world. Our Baba is the Creator of the new world. He is making us into the masters of that world. We are showing you the way you can receive an inheritance of constant happiness from the unlimited Father. Firstly, explain: I am a soul. I, the soul, am eating. I, the soul, am walking. There has to be very good practice of this. Body consciousness should be broken. Those who are body conscious remember their lokik relatives. Those who are soul conscious only remember their parlokik Father. Whilst sitting, walking, moving around, let it remain in your intellect: I am a soul. You have to follow the Father's directions. Shiv Baba is giving you directions: Consider yourself to be a soul. You have to make effort. You will become members of heaven. However, you mustn't become happy with just a little. Although you will go to heaven, you have to become real children. Those who remember BapDada are said to be real children. If anyone else is remembered, then you are a step child. There are many who continue to remember both. This One is the Father who gives you an imperishable inheritance of heaven. There is this clan and there is also that clan. You receive sorrow from that clan, and you receive an inheritance of temporary happiness. You can now judge with your intellect: In which direction am I going? Where should I go? Towards the lokik or the Parlokik? The intellect says: After belonging to the parlokik Father why should I not go to heaven? You have to die alive to your worldly relatives. By belonging to the parlokik Father you will become a master of heaven. Here, you become the masters of hell. The soul says: Where should I connect my intellect? Should I go to our lands of peace and happiness or should I go here? In fact, there should not even be the thought to go here (land of sorrow). You have been staying here for birth after birth. We will now never let go of the parlokik Father. You children are personally sitting here in front of the Father. You have no worldly relatives. Your intellect says: We will go to the land of liberation and the land of peace with Baba. You should wake up in the early morning hours and sit and churn in this way. You will enjoy yourself a great deal by sitting at that time. In which direction should I now go? Why should I go towards hell? Maya deceives you a great deal in this. You now have the aim and objective. You are now standing on the shores. You know that on this side there is nothing but sorrow. On that side there is happiness for 21 births. The Father says: Remember Me, because you have to come to Me. Maya says: You have to go towards the world. Where should I go? You have found the path. On one side is the path to heaven and on the other side is the path to hell. There is the T-Junction. The T-junction is where three roads meet. In which direction should we now go? One road is to liberation, the second is to liberation-in-life and the third is to hell. This is like a confluence of three rivers. There is the three road junction, and we are standing at one of those junctions. The example of the T-Junction is good. Where should we now go? Hell is to be destroyed. There is a lot of sorrow here. We are now standing at the T-junction. We are not going to move backwards. Baba has removed us from the road of sorrow and brought us to the T-Junction. You have come after having passed along the road of sorrow for birth after birth. Your intellect now says: We should go to liberation and liberation-in-life. We are not going to sit in the land of liberation for all time. It isn't that we become free from playing our part and do not come down again. It is not possible to become free from your part. According to the drama, you will definitely come down again. Those who have seen so much sorrow should also be able to see just as much happiness. Baba has put an equal balance in the drama: There are even those who have a small part and only come here for one or two births and then go back. You are now standing at the T-Junction. That is the land of peace and the other is the land of happiness. If you wish to go to the land of peace, then continue to remember the land of peace. You have to remember liberation. Those who come down later remember the land of liberation more because they have stayed in the land of liberation for a longer period of time. You would remember the land of liberation-in-life. We should go to heaven quickly. Those people desire to stay in liberation. Achcha. Just continue to remember the Father; there is benefit in that too. If someone wants to stay in the land of nirvana and doesn't want to go to the land of happiness, then understand that that one's part (of heaven) is not visible. You are standing at the junction on the road leading to the land of happiness. You are making effort. People will like your true yoga. Achcha. Continue to remember the Father. There is no need to remember the cycle. This knowledge is for those of all religions. You understand that however much everyone claimed according to the drama, everyone will come and claim their status again. If you want to go to the land of liberation, remember the Father. If you want to remain constantly happy, there is peace and happiness there. Wherever someone belongs, he has to claim that inheritance. The Father is the Bestower of Liberation and Liberation-in-life for all. If someone is only going to take one or two births, he will experience happiness and sorrow in that, just as a mosquito comes and goes. That is not called an invaluable life. You are those who constantly remain cheerful. You are lighthouses standing here. You can show both paths. You can go to the land of liberation or you can remember both: the land of liberation and the land of liberation-in-life. There is no need to study the scriptures etc. in this. This is very easy for the kumaris because they haven't climbed that ladder. It is good to study in childhood because the intellect is good then. You don't remember anyone else at that time. All of you are kumaris. You don't have to do anything else. Simply become engaged in study, that's all! The boat will go across. Only the unlimited Father who makes us into the masters of heaven explains this to us. You have the pictures of what you have to become. The Father says: You will become deities through this study. This play is now going to end. People are in extreme darkness. You are now in the light. The Father has come and awakened you from sleep. This is awakening the intellect, the soul. The Father comes and awakens you: Wake up and make effort for the land of happiness. Those who belong to your clan will continue to come and there will continue to be expansion. You can calculate how many are becoming your subjects. But no! Some listen to a lot whereas others leave after hearing just a little. You cannot calculate this. You have everything in your intellect as to who becomes part of a big rosary, a small rosary, how the wealthy and ordinary subjects are created and how they become part of it, who will become the main sun-dynasty emperors and empresses, who will become part of the moon dynasty and how many subjects will be created. Here, you are told all of the things of how the branches, twigs and leaves etc. emerge from the middle of the whole tree or the cycle of all religions. Leaves continue to emerge even now. Then, the incorporeal world will become completely empty, and destruction will take place. Millions will die in the great war; countless will die. So many will die here. However, only a few will come and rule in the golden age. There are now so many people. There isn't even enough food for them all. You children know that Baba comes at the confluence age. The Father explains: Children, you have to perform actions for your livelihood. Continue to ask for advice about everything. Each one's karmic account is his own. Continue to ask for shrimat from the eternal Surgeon. He will give each of you your own individual medicine. It is explained that this world has already ended. Now remember the Father and your boat will go across. The Father has come to destroy hell and establish heaven. We are giving you advice. We are also giving you the shrimat that we have received from Shri Shri. The Father says: Remember Me and you will become the masters of heaven. Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. Have the interest to do service. Stay in remembrance of the Father even in illness. Remind others to stay in remembrance. Continue to donate knowledge through your mouth.
2. Become real children, that is, stay in remembrance of the one Father. Wake up early in the morning and churn the ocean of knowledge. Do not remember anyone else.

Morning Murli Om Shanti BapDada

Madhuban

Blessing: May you have faith in the intellect and thereby remain carefree by ending all worries in the fire of love.

Children who have faith in the intellect remain carefree in all situations. All worries have now ended. The Father has removed you from the pyre of worries and made you sit on the heart-throne. As soon as you had love for the Father, on the basis of that love, all your worries ended in the fire of love, as though they had never existed. There is no worry about your body, anything wasteful in your mind, any wealth or what is to happen. With the power of knowledge, you know everything and your life therefore has become a carefree life, a life that is free from all worries.

Slogan: Become so unshakeable and unmovable that no type of problem can shake the foot of your intellect.
