

Essence: Sweet children, you have found a very unique Master. Follow His shrimat and you will become double-crowned deities.

Question: What is the easy method for you not to become tired of the study?

Answer: Let your stage remain in equanimity in praise and defamation, regard and disregard that happens in the study. Consider all of that to be a game and you will never become tired. Krishna has been defamed the most. People have accused him of so many things and yet they also worship such a Krishna. Therefore, receiving insults is not a new thing, so, never become tired of the study. Continue to study for as long as the Father teaches you.

Song: Oh Dweller of the Forest, Your name is the support of my life...

Om shanti. Who said this? Who spoke and to whom? Only you children, who are called gopes and gopis, know this. So, they remembered their Father, Gopi Vallabh. No one, apart from the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, can be such a Father. So, they remember those who have come and gone. They are later praised. For example, Christ came, but, having established the Christian religion he didn't go away anywhere. He definitely had to sustain it; he had to take rebirth. However, every year people celebrate the birthday of those who leave having established their religion. They are remembered on the path of devotion. In the same way, people celebrate the festival of Dashera nowadays. It is celebrated, so it must definitely be something auspicious. When someone leaves having done something good, his festival is celebrated. Even the festival of Deepmala is celebrated. The birthday of Krishna is also celebrated. They celebrate a festival of those who have come and gone. The people of Bharat don't know why the festival of rakhi etc. are celebrated. What happened? They know that Christ and Buddha came to establish their religions. At this time, all are the devilish community whereas you are the Godly community. The Father, Rama, has now come and is making you divine and elevated. Or, it can be said that the Supreme Father has come and is having heaven inaugurated, that is, He is laying the foundation for it. It can also be called the opening ceremony. The elevated emperors and empresses who existed in Bharat have now gone. The golden-aged deities were double crowned. They had the crown of purity and also a crown studded with jewels. Vicious kings only have the crown studded with jewels. Those with a single crown worship those with a double crown. However, no one knows when they came and went or how they received their kingdom. Lakshmi and Narayan were such elevated double-crowned deities. The Father sits here and explains who made them so elevated. People celebrate Dashera. You know that something must have happened that caused people to celebrate Dashera and burn an effigy of Ravan. However, he is not something that will get burnt. His kingdom is now coming to an end. Until the kingdom of Rama is established, the corrupt kingdom has to continue. People continue to celebrate the ceremony of when the kingdom of Ravan ended and the kingdom of Rama was established. They burn an effigy of Ravan which proves that this truly is the corrupt devilish kingdom. There are also grades of corruption. Corruption begins in the copper age. At first there are two degrees of corruption, then 4 degrees, then 8 degrees, then 10 degrees and whilst gradually increasing, it has now become 16 degrees of corruption. Now, to change those who are 16 degrees corrupt to 16 degrees elevated is the task of the one Father alone. The Father explains: At this time, it is the kingdom of Ravan. There used to be the elevated kingdom of Rama. That has now become corrupt. The elevated Bharat is called heaven. That same kingdom has now become corrupt. The Father says: I have now come to make the corrupt kingdom into the elevated kingdom. There are the Yadava and Kaurava clans. There are innumerable religions in the Yadava clan. Those who belonged to the elevated deity religion have become corrupt in their religion and their actions. The Father now teaches them how to perform elevated actions. They have been celebrating festivals on the path of devotion. Definitely God came. It is a matter of 5000 years. The Father came and made the corrupt beings elevated. It is the Father's task alone to make the whole world elevated. Then He sends you down from above to sustain it: Go and sustain the deity religion that you established. It isn't that anyone says this; this happens automatically according to the drama. When you become elevated, even the world will become satopradhan and elevated. Now even the five elements are tamopradhan. There is so much upheaval and people are so unhappy. Damage costing millions is caused. In the golden age, there won't be any of these calamities. Calamities take place in hell. Even the calamities are at first only 2 degrees whereas now they have become 16 degrees. All of these things have to be explained in detail. They are very easy, but people are unable to understand them or explain to others. So, this burning of Ravan began in the copper age. You cannot say that it started 5000 years ago. When the path of devotion begins, all of these calamities also begin. You now know how the kingdom of Ravan is destroyed and how the kingdom of Rama is established. People don't know what Ravan is. The Father says: There wasn't anything such as Lanka. There is no Lanka in the golden age. There are very few people there. They live by the banks of the River Jamuna. In Ajmer, they show a model of Paradise, but they don't understand it. It doesn't take long to build golden palaces there. They use the machinery to quickly melt the gold and makes tiles etc. You children know that this science through which destruction takes place will be useful to you later on. Now they make aeroplanes etc. for great happiness, but they will also carry out destruction through them. So, these aeroplanes are for sorrow as well as happiness. That is temporary happiness. All of these things have been invented in the last 100 years. So, all of this has happened in the last 100 years. So, just think, when destruction takes place, all of these things will be created in such a short time in the new world. There, the golden palaces are built very quickly. In Bharat, so many palaces are studded with gold and silver. They have big royal courts there. Royal people would meet there. That would not be called the Pandava gathering. That would be called the gathering of the kingdom of Lakshmi and Narayan. All the princes and princesses also go and sit there. When it was the British Government, there used to be great royal court gatherings of princes, princesses and Maharajas. All the kings would be sitting there wearing their crowns. When Baba used to go to Nepal, they would hold the gathering of the Rana (king) family. The kings with big crowns would sit there. They are called emperors and empresses, and it is numberwise amongst them. The queens don't sit there. They remain behind the curtains. They sit with a lot of grandeur. We used to say that was the Pandava Government. They called themselves the sun dynasty. They used to exist here too. However, they had a single crown for it was before them that there were those with a double crown. They have written so many things about Krishna: He abducted So-and-so and did such and such. However, there was nothing like that. People continue to celebrate the festivals of things that took place in the past. They also celebrate the festival of when the kingdom of Ravan ended and the kingdom of Rama was established. They celebrate it every year. So, this proves that the devilish kingdom of Ravan also existed 5000 years ago. The Father came and inspired the destruction of the kingdom of Ravan. That same Mahabharat War is just ahead. However, there is no such thing as Ravan. They show Madodri as the wife of Ravan. However, they don't show her with ten heads. They show Ravan with ten heads. They show Vishnu with four arms: two arms of Lakshmi and two arms of Narayan. They show Ravan with ten heads, five vices of his and five vices of Madodri. They have also shown the significant of the four-armed image of Vishnu. They also worship Mahalakshmi. They never show Mahalakshmi with two arms. At Deepmala, they invoke Lakshmi. Why? Did Narayan commit any crime? After all, Lakshmi gets her wealth from Narayan anyway. She is a half-partner. In fact, wealth is not received from Lakshmi. Wealth is received from Jagadamba. You know that Jagadamba then becomes Lakshmi. So, they have separated the two of them. They ask for everything from Jagadamba. If they have any sorrow, if their son dies, they ask Jagadamba: "Protect us". "Give me a child." "Remove this illness of mine." They have many such desires. They go to Lakshmi placing only one desire in front of her and that is for wealth. That's all. Jagadamba is the one who fulfils all your desires. She is the one who makes you wealthy. At this time, all your desires are being fulfilled. Some don't give wealth. They simply teach you through which you become great from nothing. Then, when you become Lakshmi, you become wealthy. At this time you have the power to fulfil all desires. Jagadamba gives donations. Lakshmi does not give donations. Donations are not given there. There is no starvation there. No one is poverty-stricken there. Ravan doesn't exist in the golden age. Here, they burn Ravan. After Dashera, they celebrate Deepmala. They celebrate in happiness. The kingdom of Ravan has been destroyed and the kingdom of Rama established and so there would be happiness. There is light in every home. You souls receive enlightenment. The things that exist at the confluence age do not exist in the golden age. You are trikaldarshi and you experience the reward there. You forget all of this knowledge there. At the confluence age, there is establishment and then destruction. Once establishment has taken place, that's it. Only you know about all of those festivals. Ignorant people don't understand anything. They make much out of nothing. You can see in a practical way that those things do not exist in the golden age. The story of Narad is also mentioned in the scriptures. When you are asked, you say: Baba, I will marry either Lakshmi or Narayan. So, the Father says: Check yourself to see that you don't have any vices. If you have anger etc., how would you be able to marry him or her? Yes, no one has yet become perfect, but you do have to become that. You have to chase away these evil spirits, for only then will you be able to claim a status. You have found a very unique Master. The Father is full of all virtues. He is the Ocean of Knowledge and the Ocean of Bliss and so He also makes those who come and become His children full of all virtues and double-crowned deities. You are truly becoming that. Deities have both crowns. You have come here to claim your inheritance from the Father. You have to claim your inheritance; you have to study. Many points continue to emerge. If you don't study, how would you be able to explain to others? The drama is repeating identically. You understand this knowledge at this time and then it will disappear. The Lanka etc. that they show doesn't really exist. When was Ravan born? It is written that the deities go onto the path of sin in the copper age, and that they begin to become vicious. Devotion was at first unadulterated and then it became adulterated. People have now begun to have themselves worshipped. The Father says: I come to carry out establishment of the elevated world and destruction of the corrupt world. Surely, the establishment would be carried out first and then destruction. This is My part every cycle. It takes time to make it elevated from corrupt. You have to study for as long as the Father teaches. However much those who studied in the previous cycle studied, they will study the same now. Whilst moving along, many children say: That's it. I am not able to continue any more. Ah! There will be praise and defamation, regard and disregard. Why do you stop studying because of that? It was Krishna who was defamed the most. He was accused of so many things. So, why do people then worship such a Krishna? In fact, it is this one (Brahma) who takes all the insults at this time. He was defamed throughout the whole of Sindh, and was unable to do anything about it. All of this is a game. It is nothing new. He took insults in the previous cycle too. He crossed the river. You came away from Sindh to this side of the shore. It wasn't Krishna, but this Dada, who used to come and go. You know that you are now claiming a kingdom and that you will then lose it. This too is a game. Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. You have to become Kamdhenu (Jagadamba) who fulfils everyone's desires. Continue to donate.
2. You have to keep your stage in equanimity in praise and defamation. Whilst all of that happens, you mustn't stop studying. Go across considering all of it to be a game.

Blessing: May you be an easy yogi and bid farewell to Maya by forging all relationships with the one Father.

Where there is a relationship, remembrance is natural and easy. To have all your relationships with the one Father is to become an easy yogi. When you are an easy yogi, Maya is easily bade farewell. Once you have bade farewell to Maya, the congratulations from the Father make you move forward a great deal. Those who continue to receive God's blessings and the blessings of the Brahmin family at every step are easily able to fly.

Slogan: Become businessmen who always remain busy and you will receive an income of multimillions at every step.
