

Essence: Sweet children, whilst living at home with your family, fulfil your responsibility to everyone. You should not have dislike for anyone, but you definitely do have to become as pure as a lotus flower.

Question: When will the bells of victory chime? When will you be praised?

Answer: At the end, when the eclipse of Maya stops influencing you, when your line is constantly clear, the bells of victory will then chime and you children will be praised. As yet, you children are still experiencing the eclipse of Maya and obstacles continue to come. You even find it difficult to find even three feet of land to do service. However, the time will come when you children will be the masters of the whole world.

Song: Be patient, o mind, your days of happiness are about to come!

Om shanti. Children understand numberwise, according to the effort they make that this old play is now ending. Just a few moments of sorrow still remain and then there will be constant happiness. When you know about happiness, you can understand that this is the land of sorrow. There is a vast different. You are now making effort for happiness. You understand that this old play of sorrow is ending. You are now following BapDada's shrimat to attain happiness. It is very easy to explain to anyone. You now have to return home to Baba. Baba has come to take you back with Him. Remain as pure as a lotus flower whilst living at home with your family. You definitely have to fulfil your household responsibilities. If you do not fulfil your responsibilities you would be like sannyasis. Because they do not fulfil their household responsibilities, they are called those who belong to the path of isolation, those who practise hatha yoga. Whatever is taught by sannyasis is called hatha yoga, whereas you are studying Raja Yoga, which is taught by God. The religious scripture of Bharat is the Gita. You are not concerned with the religious scriptures of others. Sannyasis do not belong to the household path. Their path is hatha yoga. They abandon their family and go and live in the forests, and so they have to take birth as renunciates for birth after birth, whereas you live at home, in your household, and renounce everything for just one birth and you receive the reward of that for 21 births. Their renunciation is limited and they practise hatha yoga. Your renunciation is unlimited and you practise Raja yoga. They renounce their household and business. Raja Yoga is praised a great deal. God taught Raja Yoga, and so He must surely be called the Highest on High. Shri Krishna cannot be God. The unlimited Father is the Incorporeal One. Only He can give you the unlimited kingdom. Here, you don't have there is no dislike for family life. The Father says: In this last birth, remain pure whilst living at home with your family. No sannyasi can be called the Purifier. Sannyasis themselves call out: Oh Purifier! They remember that One. They also want a pure world, but they don't know that that world is totally different. Since they don't live in a household, they don't believe in the deities. They can never teach Raja Yoga. Neither does the Father teach hatha yoga nor do sannyasis teach Raja Yoga. This matter has to be understood. A world conference is going to be held in Delhi. Explain to them and give it to all of them in writing. There, there are many conflicting ideas. When you put it in writing, everyone will understand what your aim is. You understand that we are now part of the elevated Brahmin clan. How could we become a member of the shudra clan or how could we register ourselves in a vicious clan? This is why we refuse to register. We are theists and they are atheists. They do not believe in God, whereas we remain in yoga with God. Therefore, there is a conflict of ideas. It has been explained that those who do not know the Father are atheists. Therefore, only the Father can come and make them theists. By belonging to the Father, you receive your inheritance from Him. This is a very deep matter. First of all, you have to instill in their intellect that the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, is the God of the Gita. He is the One who established the original eternal deity religion. The deity religion is the main religion of Bharat. The land of Bharat has to have a religion. They have forgotten their religion. You also understand that, according to the drama, the people of Bharat had to forget their religion so that the Father could then come and establish it again. Otherwise, how could the Father come? He says: I come when the deity religion has disappeared. It definitely has to disappear. It is said that one leg of the bull that supports the world is broken and that it is standing on three legs. So, there are four main religions. The leg of the deity religion is now broken, that is, that religion has disappeared. This is why the example of the banyan tree is given.

Although its foundation has rotted away, its many branches and twigs still remain. So here, too, the foundation of the deity religion no longer exists but there are many sects and cults all over the world. There is now total light in your intellect. The Father says: You children have now come to know this drama. This whole tree has now become old. The golden age will definitely come after the iron age; the cycle definitely has to turn. You have to keep it in your intellect that the play is now over and that we are returning home. As you walk, as you move around, remember: We now have to return home. This is the real meaning of manmanabhav and madhyajibhav. If you have to give a lecture to a large audience, explain that the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, is once again saying: O children, renounce the consciousness of your body and all bodily religions and consider yourself to be a soul; remember the Father and all your sins will be absolved. I am teaching you Raja Yoga. Whilst living in your household, remain like a lotus flower and remember Me. Remain pure and imbibe this knowledge. Everyone is now degraded. In the golden age the deities were in salvation. The Father comes again and grants salvation. The qualities of salvation are 16 celestial degrees completely pure and full of all divine virtues. Who gives you these qualities? The Father. What then are His qualities? He is the Ocean of Knowledge, the Ocean of Bliss. His praise is totally separate. It is not that everyone is the same. All souls are the children of the one Father. There are also the children of Prajapita Brahma. The new creation is now being created. All are the children of the Father of Humanity. However, those people don't understand these things. The Brahmin caste is the highest of all. The castes of Bharat have been remembered. Whilst taking 84 births you have to pass through these castes. The Brahmin clan exists at the confluence age. You children now remain in sweet silence. This silence is the best of all. In fact, the necklace of peace is around your neck. Everyone wants to go to the home of peace, but who can show them the way? No one, except the Ocean of Peace, can show you the way. He has been given good titles: Ocean of Peace, Ocean of Knowledge. Shri Krishna is the prince of heaven. Baba is the Seed of the human world tree. There is the difference of day and night. Krishna cannot be called the Seed of the human world tree. This proves that the knowledge of omnipresence is not valid. The Father has His own praise. He is eternally worthy of worship. He never becomes a worshipper. Those who first come from up above are the ones who become worshippers from being worthy of worship. Many points are explained to you. So many come to the exhibitions, but only a handful out of multimillions emerge, because the destination is very high. Countless subjects will continue to be created. Out of multimillions only a handful emerge who become the beads of the rosary. There is the example of Narad. He was told to look at his face to see if he was worthy to claim Lakshmi as his bride. Many subjects will be created, but a king is still a king! One king has hundreds of thousands of subjects. You have to make elevated effort. Amongst the kings as well, some are great kings and some are not as great. There are so many kings in Bharat. Even in the golden age there are many maharajas. This has continued since the beginning of the golden age. The maharajas have many properties and the kings have less. This is the knowledge to become Shri Lakshmi and Narayan. It is for this that you continue to make effort. When you are asked; "Will you claim the status of Lakshmi and Narayan or the status of Rama and Sita?" you reply: We will only claim the status of Lakshmi and Narayan. We will claim our full inheritance from the Mother and Father. These are such wonderful matters. Such matters do not arise anywhere else, nor are they written in the scriptures. The lock on your intellect has now opened. The Father explains: As you walk and move around, maintain the consciousness of being an actor and that you have to return home. To remember this is called being manmanabhav and madhyajibhav. The Father reminds you again and again: I have come to take you back home. This is your spiritual pilgrimage. No one except the Father can take you on this pilgrimage. You have to praise Bharat a great deal. This Bharat is the holiest land. Only the one Father is the Remover of Sorrow, the Bestower of Happiness and the Bestower of Salvation for all. Bharat is His birthplace. That Father is the Liberator of all. This is His most elevated pilgrimage place. Although people of Bharat go to the Shiva Temple, they do not know Him. They know Gandhi and believe that he was very good; this is why they go and offer him flowers etc. They spend hundreds of thousands of rupees on that. It is now their government, and so they can do whatever they want. The Father sits here and establishes this religion in an incognito way. This kingdom is now totally separate. In Bharat, in the beginning, it was the kingdom of deities. They show a battle taking place between the deities and the devils, but nothing like that happened. It is here on the battlefield that you conquer Maya. Surely, only the Almighty Authority can enable you to conquer Maya. Krishna cannot be called the Almighty Authority. Only Baba can liberate you from the kingdom of Ravan and establish the kingdom of Rama. However, there is no question of a battle etc. there. If you look around, it is the Christians who are now the almighty authority. If they wanted to, they could conquer everyone. However, it is not the law for them to become the masters of the world. Only you understand this secret. At this time, the kingdom of Christians is the most powerful authority. In fact, their population should be the least because they came last. However, out of the three religions theirs is the strongest of all and they have everyone under their control. This too is fixed in the drama. It is through them that we will receive our kingdom again. There is a story of how two cats were fighting each other and a third one took the butter. Whilst they wage war amongst themselves the people of Bharat will take the butter from in-between. The story itself is only worth pennies, but the meaning of it is so great! Human beings are so senseless. Even though they are actors in the drama, they do not understand the drama. They have become senseless. It is only the poor who will understand this. The wealthy don't understand anything. The Father is remembered as the Lord of the Poor and the Purifier. He is now playing that part in a practical way. You have to explain this to large audiences. Common sense says that, little by little, His praise will be sung, and the bells will chime at the last moment. As yet, children are still eclipsed by bad omens. Their line is not clear. Obstacles continue to come. They will continue to come according to the drama. The more effort you make, the higher the status you will attain. It is remembered with regard to this time that the Pandavas didn't even have three feet of land. However, no one knows that they were the ones who later became the masters of the world in a practical form. You children now understand that you don't need to be unhappy about this. The same thing happened in the previous cycle too. You have to stay on the rails of the drama; you must not waver. The play is now about to end, and you will go to the land of happiness. Study in such a way that you claim a high status. Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. As you walk, as you move, maintain the consciousness that you are an actor and remain stable on the rails of the drama. Let it remain in your intellect that we are now on a pilgrimage and returning home.
2. Imbibe all the qualities for salvation within yourself. Become full of all the divine virtues and 16 celestial degrees completely pure.

Blessing: May you be one whose activities are elevated and become constantly powerful by ending the burden of disobedience in small matters.

1) You have been instructed to get up at amrit vela, and you do get up and sit in meditation, but you do not achieve success in the right way because you mix the silence of sleep with sweet silence. 2) Baba has instructed you not to give sorrow or take sorrow, and you do not cause others sorrow, but you do still take sorrow. 3) You don't get angry, but you become bossy. Therefore, it is the disobedience in these small matters that makes your mind heavy. Now end all of that and create an image of one who is obedient in everything. Only then will you be called a constantly powerful soul whose activities are elevated.

Slogan: Instead of asking for regard, give regard to everyone and you will continue to receive regard from everyone.

 OM SHANTI ***
