

Essence: Sweet children, you Brahmins are Godly students. The Father has given you knowledge of the Creator and creation and made you master janijananhar (one who knows everything). You now know everything.

Question: Which children have the intoxication of explaining to others?

Answer: Those who have the treasures of knowledge. Those who understand everything and imbibe it are able to explain to others with intoxication. You have to give everyone the Father's introduction with intoxication and show them how to claim their inheritance from Him.

Song: I have come having awakened my fortune...

Om shanti. There is no need in fact to sing this song, but that sound has to be made in order to entertain you. Souls do not actually need to make any sound. Souls want to go to the land beyond sound. Having heard so many musical instruments and so much clapping etc., souls are tired and this is why they now remember the Father: Oh God! Take me back! You children know that the Father is explaining to us. In a home, both the father and the grandfather say: Children, children. The grandfather wouldn't say: Grandchildren, come here! Both would say: Children, come here! Here, both Bap and Dada, the corporeal and the incorporeal are together. In fact, they are the Bap and Dada of the whole human world. Therefore, the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, surely has to come here to create the world. This Brahma Kumars and Kumaris name of yours that has been kept is very good. In Abu, there are temples to Adhar Devi and the Kumari Kanya. There couldn't have been just one kumari, there must have been many. The temple to each is separate. Only you know who is called Adhar Devi and who is called Kumari Kanya. They are the Shiv Shaktis. A very big temple to them has been built. There are many alcoves and so that shows that there must have been many kumaris and adhar kumaris. The images they created are memorials of those who existed in the past, just as there are images of the deities who definitely existed in the past. They were the masters of the world. They are not that now. Only the Creator of the world made Bharat into the master of the world. How? It is now becoming that in a practical way. It is now the iron age. In the golden age, there is the one original eternal deity religion. In the iron age, there are innumerable religions and innumerable kingdoms of subjects. When you children hear this, you understand that Baba is explaining accurately. However, due to one reason or another, you are unable to imbibe and this is why you are unable to inspire others to imbibe. There is one obstacle or another. Although the Father explains very clearly we are dull students. There are innumerable human beings and innumerable religions. 5000 years ago Bharat was heaven. There were very few human beings. There were just the sun and moon dynasty souls who had come from the supreme abode to play their part. Souls of all the other religions were in the land of nirvana. Now there are innumerable religions and the deity religion has disappeared. So, surely, the golden age is to be created. The Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, alone has to come and create heaven. God definitely has to come here to give the fruit of devotion to the devotees who remember Him. He will take all the rest back to the land of liberation. No one else can take you back home. If even one guru knew the path to liberation and salvation, then hundreds of thousands of followers would follow him. People go on those pilgrimages and then come back, but why would they come back from the land of liberation? If someone were to find the path, he would take everyone else with him. The one Father has now come and so all of you find the way. He liberates everyone from the world of sorrow and this is why He is called the Liberator. That Incorporeal One needs to have a body in order to come here. Prajapita is also needed in order for the new world to be created. The creation has to be created here. Therefore, Brahma, a human being of this world, is also needed. He will not come down here from the subtle region. People say that it is now the night of Brahma and so it is also the night of the mouth-born creation of Brahma. The Father has now come at the end to make it into the day. When the night of Brahma comes to an end, the night of the Brahma Kumars and Kumaris also comes to an end. It is right to say Prajapita Brahma. In fact, the Father of all human souls is God. Everyone calls Him God, the Father, the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul. When sensible people speak of God, the Father, they are not remembering a human being. Some say that He is the form of eternal light, that He is the brahm element. Brahma, Vishnu and Shankar cannot be called the brahm element. So, first of all, introduce yourselves as Brahma Kumars and Kumaris. The Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, creates Brahma and then creates Brahmins through the mouth of Brahma. He is the Father of the People and so he would surely have many children. The genealogical tree continues to grow in this way. The Brahmin clan changes and you become golden-aged deities because the Father sits here and teaches Brahmins Raja Yoga. The Father says: By knowing Me and My creation through Me, you will come to know everything. There is then nothing left to know. You pass such a big examination, that is, you become master janijanantar. Only Brahmins are Godly students. Deities, merchants and shudras cannot be Godly students. God speaks to only Brahmins. If it were God Krishna speaking, to whom would he speak? Brahmins are definitely needed. So Brahmins are created through Prajapita Brahma. It is Brahma who creates the sacrificial fire of the knowledge of Rudra. It is never said: The sacrificial fire of the knowledge of Krishna. So, first of all, explain that it is the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, the Ocean of Knowledge, Himself who is teaching us. He is our Father, Teacher and Satguru. So there is no need to ask any unnecessary questions about this. There are so many BKs. There aren't just one or two. First of all teach them about Alpha. Without knowing Alpha, people cannot know anything. You should explain to them that the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, Shiva, is creating Brahmins through the mouth of Brahma. Brahma alone is not the creator. These points have to be imbibed. Baba has knowledge and so He delivers it to you. You are the Ganges of knowledge. There is just the one Ocean. This Brahma also speaks this knowledge and so he is also a Ganges of knowledge. Those who speak knowledge are the Ganges of knowledge. Both males and females are included in this. Only the one Father is the Ocean of Knowledge. Here, just look at how the ocean of water has been divided into parts. In the golden age, when there was just the one sun-dynasty kingdom, the ocean wasn't divided into parts. You could have travelled anywhere. No one would have said: Do not cross our boundary! Don't take our water! Here, they even stop one another taking water. It has been divided into so many parts. We are now establishing the one land of truth, heaven. The Father also churns the ocean of knowledge and this is why He explains to us. Brahma too says: All living beings are my children. Adi Dev, Adam, is the father of all. It isn't that there weren't any human beings and then Adam created human beings. No, the incorporeal Father first definitely has to enter Adam because only then can He create the mouth-born creation. It isn't that he emerged from someone's mouth or nose, or that he was created out of the wind. All of those are stories of devotion. People continue to worship fish and alligators. So, first and foremost is: Who is the Father of all souls? He must surely have created heaven. It is now hell. We are now studying Raja Yoga for heaven from the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul. Brahma is also studying from Him. The Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, is the Father of all souls and Brahma is the father of all living beings. We are his mouth-born creation, Brahma Kumars and Kumaris. Only the Father, the Ocean of Knowledge, gives us knowledge. We are following shrimat and that is well known. The directions of Brahma are well known. It is never said that even if Vishnu were to come down, no one would accept his directions. This is said of Brahma. It is Shiva who gives him knowledge. You are also following shrimat and becoming elevated. The Father explains: I come and establish the deity religion. Tell those of the Arya Samaji, who cause so many complications: You don't believe in the deities. You defame them. We belong to the deity religion. Your religion is separate from the deity religion. Each one has the freedom to do whatever he wants in his own religion. The religion of Muslims is separate. They debate a great deal: Why are you doing this? In fact, our religion is the original eternal deity religion. This is what is spread everywhere. Why do you interfere? You should explain to them tactfully. There is no need to discuss this with them. They would not understand anything through that. Give the Father's introduction to anyone who comes. We are claiming our inheritance from the Father. If you want to claim it, then come. The Father is establishing the land of immortality and this is why you definitely have to become pure. The Father says: You definitely have to conquer Ravan. We, the Shakti Army, are gaining victory. Come and we will explain to you how our Master is teaching us to gain victory. If you want to gain victory, you can also become a member of the Shakti Army. However, don't talk about useless things. Only those who have the treasure of knowledge will be able to say this with intoxication. Achcha.

Morning Murli Om Shanti BapDada

Madhuban

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. Speak knowledge and become master oceans of knowledge and the Ganges of knowledge and serve to make impure ones pure.
2. Explain to everyone very tactfully. Don't discuss these things with anyone. Give everyone the Father's introduction.

Blessing: May you be unshakeable and immovable and with the awareness of "nothing new", finish all questions and put a full-stop.

When any situation arises, you children have the knowledge that it is "nothing new" and that you have repeated every scene innumerable times. With the awareness of "nothing new", you will never come into upheaval and will always remain unshakeable and immovable. If something new happens, then, out of amazement, you say, "What is this? Does this happen too?" However, if it is nothing new there is no question of "What?" or "Why?" Therefore, put a full-stop instead. Seeing every scene in this way, continue to put a full-stop and even in situations of distress you will continue to sing songs of wonder.

Slogan: Become embodiments of happiness, children of the Bestower of Happiness, and no waves of sorrow can then come to you.
