

Essence: Sweet children, you Brahmins are now on a very steep pilgrimage. This is why you have received a double engine. You have two unlimited fathers and also two mothers.

Question: Which title can you children not give yourselves at the confluence age?

Answer: You BKs cannot give yourselves or write the title 'His Holiness' or 'Her Holiness' because, although you souls are becoming pure, the bodies are still created from tamopradhan matter. You mustn't take on this greatness now. You are still effort-makers.

Song: This is a story of the flame and the storms...

Om shanti. The unlimited Father sits here and explains to you children. You children have understood that you have two unlimited fathers and so there must also be two mothers. One is Jagadamba and the other mother is Brahma. Both sit here and explain to you and it is as though you have received a double engine. When a train goes up a mountain it has a double engine. You Brahmins are also now on a steep pilgrimage. You know that there is extreme darkness now. When the final time comes, there will be a lot of distress. This is what happens when the world changes. Even when a kingdom changes hands there is a lot of war and violence. You children know that a new kingdom is now being established. From extreme darkness it is now becoming extremely light. You now know the history and geography of the whole cycle and so you have to explain to others. Many mothers and kumaris teach at schools and the Government wouldn't get upset if they also taught everyone the unlimited history and geography. If you explained to their seniors, they would be even happier. You should explain that not until they understand the unlimited history and geography can children benefit and that there cannot be victory in the world either. You children are being given a signal for service. If someone who is a teacher explains this world history and geography in his college, the children can become trikaldarshi. Then, by becoming trikaldarshi they can also become rulers of the globe. Just as the Father has made you trikaldarshi and spinners of the discus of self-realisation, you have to make others the same as yourselves. Explain to others that this old world is now changing. The tamopradhan world is changing and becoming satopradhan. Only the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, who makes you satopradhan, teaches you easy Raja Yoga and gives you the knowledge of the cycle. It is very easy to explain the knowledge of the cycle. If this cycle is kept in front of you, people can come and understand who used to rule in the golden age and how there is the growth of many religions from the copper age. If it is explained to them clearly, their head (intellect) will definitely open up. You can keep this cycle in front of you and explain to them very clearly. You can also have topics: Come and we will show you the way to become trikaldarshi through which you can become kings of kings. Only you Brahmins know this cycle and this is why you become rulers of the globe. However, only those whose intellect continues to spin this cycle will become this. The Father is the Ocean of Knowledge. He sits here and gives you children the knowledge of the beginning, the middle and the end of the world. Human beings don't know anything. By saying that God is omnipresent, they cannot hold on to any of this knowledge and none of them can make effort to know God. Then there cannot be any devotion either. Whatever people say, they don't understand it. Those who are weak are not able to explain why God is not omnipresent. One person said something and everyone believed that one. For instance, someone called Adi Dev 'Mahavir' and so that name continued. Whatever name was given without understanding to someone has continued. The Father now sits here and explains that although you are human beings, you don't know the Creator or creation of the drama. You worship the deities but you don't know their biography and so that is called blind faith. So many deities ruled the kingdom in the past and so they must definitely have been sensible. That was why they became worthy to be worshipped. You mouth-born creation of Brahma listen to this knowledge and become sensible. However, Ravan has put the whole world in jail. This is Ravan's jail in which everyone is sitting in the cottage of sorrow. They continue to hold conferences on how to bring about peace. Therefore, there is definitely peacelessness and sorrow, that is, all are sitting in the cottage of sorrow. No one can instantly go from the cottage of sorrow to the cottage free from sorrow. At this time, no one is in the cottage of peace and happiness. The golden age is called the cottage free from sorrow. This is the confluence age. No one can call you completely pure. No BKs can call themselves, or write for themselves the titles 'His Holiness' or 'Her Holiness'. 'His Holiness' and 'Her Holiness' exist in the golden age. How could they exist in the iron age? Although the soul becomes pure, the body also has to be pure to receive the title of 'His Holiness'. This is why you shouldn't take on this greatness. You are still effort-makers. The Father says: Even sannyasis cannot be called Shri Shri or 'His Holiness'. Although the soul becomes pure, the body is not pure. So they are incomplete. No one in this impure world can be His or Her Holiness. They believe that souls and the Supreme Soul are always pure. However, the body also has to be pure. Yes, Lakshmi and Narayan can be called that because even the bodies there are made of satopradhan matter. Here, matter is tamopradhan. At this time, no one can be called completely pure. Even young children would be pure otherwise. Deities were completely viceless. The Father sits here and explains how sensible you are becoming. You have the full knowledge of the cycle. The Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, who is the living Seed of this tree, has the knowledge of the whole tree. He alone is giving you this knowledge. You can impress anyone with the knowledge of this world cycle. You should explain: You came from the supreme abode, adopted that costume and are now acting out your role. Now, at the end, everyone has to go back home and then come and play their part again. Whatever effort each one makes at this time, they will accordingly take birth in a royal or wealthy family. All receive a status numberwise and will continue to be transferred numberwise. It is shown that you will take birth where there is victory. These things are not taken up at this time. As you make further progress, you will continue to become enlightened. It is certain that those who leave their bodies now will take birth in a good home. The children who make more effort experience a lot more happiness. Those who remain engaged in service remain intoxicated. Apart from you, all are in darkness. No one's sins can be washed away by bathing in the Ganges. Only through the fire of yoga are sins burnt. Only the one Father liberates you from this jail of Ravan and this is why it is remembered: Oh Purifier! However, no one considers himself to be a sinful soul. The Father says: In the previous cycle too, all of them were uplifted through the kumaris. This is also written in the Gita, but no one understands it. You can explain that no one in this impure world is pure. However, a lot of courage is needed to explain this. You know that the world is now changing. You have now become children of God. This Brahmin clan is the highest of all. You have the knowledge of the discus of self-realisation. Then, when you go into the clan of Vishnu, you will not have this knowledge. You have this knowledge at this time and this is why you are called spinners of the discus of self-realisation. No one apart from you knows these deep matters. Everyone says for the sake of saying it that they are children of God, but you have now become that in a practical way. Achcha.

Love, remembrance and good morning to all the sweetest children. It is the Father's duty to remember the children and the children's duty to remember the Father. However, children don't remember Him that much. If they did remember Him, it would be their great fortune. Achcha. The spiritual Father says namaste to the sweetest, spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. With the knowledge of the world cycle, become trikaldarshi and a spinner of the discus of self-realisation and also serve to make others the same.
2. At the confluence age, move away from the cottage of sorrow and definitely become pure to go to the cottage of happiness and peace.

Blessing: May you be a multimillionaire who accumulates an income at every second through remembrance of the Father, the Point.

You children can accumulate an income of more than multimillions at every second. When you place a zero beside one it becomes 10 and then add another zero and it becomes 100. In the same way, remember the Father, the Point, for one second, and after a second, put a point (zero). You children become multimillionaires who earn such a huge income at this time and you will then continue to eat from that for many births. Even the Father is proud of the children who earn such an income.

Slogan: To be able to put right a spoilt task, bad sanskars or a spoilt mood with your good wishes is elevated service.
