FAQ

- Who we are and What we do
 - What is the Brahma Kumaris (BKs)?
 - What are the aims and objectives of the Brahma Kumaris?

The Brahma Kumaris seeks to help individuals re-discover and strengthen their inherent worth by encouraging and facilitating a process of spiritual awakening. This leads to an awareness of the importance of thoughts and feelings as the seeds of actions. The development of virtues and values-based attitudes creates a practical spirituality which enhances personal effectiveness in the workplace and in family life.

An understanding of the spiritual context of human existence is offered, helping to make sense of contemporary issues. Based on the principle that the roots of change lie within, the university encourages individuals to live by their highest values, vision and purpose. It holds that this commitment to self-transformation will create peace and a better world for all.

Brahma Kumaris World Spiritual University

World Headquarters, Mt. Abu, Rajasthan, INDIA

International Site

- BKWSU is the largest spiritual university in the world.
- The university has 8,500 branches in over 100 countries with more than 825,000 students from all walks of life.
- BKWSU is a non-governmental organization in general consultative status with the United Nations Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC), in consultative status with The United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF) and affiliated to the Department of Public Information (DPI). The Brahma Kumaris are also the recipient of seven UN Peace Messenger awards.

(Visit our International Site for detailed information on Brahma Kumaris' activities at the U.N.)

- An outstanding feature of BKWSU can be seen in the university's administration, which is almost entirely female. The student body includes an equal number of male and female students.

- BKWSU students learn to be leaders rather than followers.

The University and its centers are supported financially by the voluntary contributions of its teachers and students who live and work in the local community. All activities are free of charge and offered as a community service.
